THE EVENING NEWS.

Chinese in England.

Mr. Francis Phillips, manager of the Ebbro ValeCompany's works in England, writes to his stockholders that he has had an offer from an eminent contractor in San Francisco to furnish the Company with any amount of Chinese labor, and concludes with the expression of his determination not to stand by and see the Company ruined by a pack of idle men (who have struck for higher wages), who will not work themselves or let others do so. This is from the London Times of January 28th:

This deliberate proposal to introduce Chinese Labor into England is neither more nor less than an attempt to set up slavery. Plantations of Chinamen among English workmen! Gangs of Chinamen under English taskmasters! No words or comments are needed to stamp such a proceeding as a crime of the deepest dye; a crime against peace and good order, as well as against the civilization to which we have attained. * * * But it is not so with people imported from an Eastern country. They are too strange, their health and customs are altogether different; they would constitute a foreign element, tending to lower and degrade us and hinder our development; they would constitute a serious cause of disturbance and disorder in our present social and political condition. Why, we have been constantly told that emigration was to be the cure or palliative for the social and industrial evils which press upon us; the cure for excess of population, for starvation and pauperism, and now we are threatened with an importation of Chinese labor on a large scale. Chinese miners here would be slaves. They could be nothing else, whether the law allowed it or not. Besides, our laws are stringent enough. There would be no escape for the Chinaman once brought over. Once here, it might be found necessary for Parliament to pass special penal laws for the Chinese plantations, laws which in their turn might be applied to the English workmen. And what would be the end of this? where would it stop? If Chinese, why not savages?

But we cannot believe that the Ebbro Vale Company will listen to this inhuman proposal, which invites them to commit an outrage against the civilized world. Nor do we suppose for a moment that Parliament, which is about to assemble, will allow such a crime to be perpetrated. But if anything of the kind is attempted, action must be taken at once. It must be stopped; it must be resisted. We earnestly hope that those capitalists and employers who are friends to the working classes, and have ever been true to the cause of labor, will step forward without delay and say that this shall not be.

This is becoming not only a national question, but it reaches as far as the interests of the white race extend. We are glad to know that it is attracting the attention of writers and thinkers, not only in California, but at the east and in Europe. As soon as the opinion of the intelligent world is known and pronounced, the Chronicle will get more aid from the California press than it now has, to combat the introduction here in large numbers of this most undesirable population. We wish our local press had the boldness to even discuss the matter, but with one or two honorable exceptions it shrinks from reference to Chinese immigration in a most cowardly manner. The Chronicle will press this discussion till our newspapers take sides.—San Francisco Chronicle.

THE FREE LIST ON THE U. P. R. R.—Washington, Feb. 28.—Mr. Horace F. Clark, President of the Union Pacific Railroad, now here upon business of the company, says that over three thousand free passes have been applied for this year, many of them in the interest of Senators and members of Congress, as well as other officials; but last night the executive committee decided that hereafter no free passes over the road shall either be printed or issued. The pro rata fare to San Francisco and return is $112. The directors of the company are trustees of the entire interests. The executive committee have been compelled to look into the rights and privileges of the company to issue free passes, as well as to seek every possible revenue to enable the company to pay its working expenses and liabilities, and, if possible, dividends to stockholders. Now that the government withholds the pay for its freight, the necessity of cutting off the free list is imperative. On a recent through train on the Pacific Railroad there were eighty-one free passes.—New York Herald.

THE TERRITORIES.—Washington, Feb. 28.—Some time ago Delegate McCormick, of Arizona, in accordance with the wishes of the President, introduced a bill providing that the Secretary of the Interior shall hereafter exercise all the powers and perform all the duties in relation to the Territories of the United States that are now by law or by custom exercised and performed by the Secretary of State. This morning Mr. McCormick moved to take from the table a similar bill from the Senate, and the House passed it. The bill now awaits the President's signature. It relieves the Department of State from all connection with domestic affairs and confines it to those of a diplomatic character.—New York Herald.

It seems that the Conservatives of the South American Republics are exhibiting great hostility to the Darien Canal. A newspaper called La Sociedad, of Lima, demands that the four Republics of Peru, Ecuador, Chili and Bolivia should unite in coercing Colombia to resist any and every effort to divide by a canal two continents which the Almighty has joined together by an Isthmus. It tells these Republics that their very existence depends upon successfully opposing such a scheme. It warns them that their countries would be overrun with emigrants, that their products would become staples for European commerce, and that, eventually, the European nationalities would swallow up their power, their government, and their territory.
