gan to fill up, but the delegates and alternates were slow in arriving. There was a general note called that at this session the most serious work of the convention would begin; all the work of the convention except the nominations, it was believed, would be cleared up at this session.

By two o'clock the galleries were still walls of people and the delegates were again elbowing their way to the floor. The sergeant at arms' assistants buzzed like bees in all directions, looking after the comfort of the vast audience. The heat was somewhat oppressive and all the occupants had armed themselves with broad palm leaf fans. The spectators were similarly provided and the convention hall with those waving fans resembled nothing so much as a vast fleet of waving grain. Throughout the hall rolled the dull hoarse roar that hangs over a great convention of people as it does over a great bustling city.

Conspicuously seated on the platform were Colonel and Mrs. Fred Grant and ex-Senator Carey of Wyoming. Several members of the national committee were the [illegible] which so long distinguished the followers of the "plumed knight." A great flag made of brilliant American bunting and [illegible] graced the platform. The band continued lively and patriotic music; "Marching Through Georgia" brought a response from the galleries that fairly made the rafters ring. At 2:30 there were but a hundred unoccupied seats in the galleries, and people still swarmed through the entrances.

Fully 10,000 people were in the galleries. The calling to order of the convention was intentionally postponed in momentary anticipation of the appearance of the committee on resolutions. Some of the spectators manifested impatience in shrill shouts and cat calls, while an unknown with a strong voice occasionally interjected his well-known howl, "Whoop-ee," which never failed to excite a laugh. Governor Bushnell, Mark Hanna and General Grosvenor, of the Ohio big four, each an animated conversation with Mike DeYoung, George Knight, the eloquent California orator, and others just before Chairman Thurston dropped the gavel.

A tea prayer a couple of gavels and a table were presented to the chairman for use during the convention, and then the committee on credentials presented their two reports. The chairman allowed twenty minutes to each side of debate on the reports as presented.

DRAFT OF THE PLATFORM

As Practically Agreed Upon by the Sub-Committee.

St. Louis, June 16.—The sub-committee of the committee on resolutions adopted the following draft of the platform and put it in the hands of a typewriter for preparation for their meeting at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, at which time it will be again considered and some verbal amendments probably made:

"The Republicans of the United States assembled by their representatives in national convention, appealing to the popular and historical justification of their claims to the matchless achievements of thirty years of Republican rule, earnestly and confidently address themselves to the awakened intelligence, experience and conscience of their countrymen in the following declaration of facts and principles.

"For the first time since the civil war the American people have witnessed the calamitous consequences of full and unrestricted Democratic control of the government. It has been a record of unparalleled incapacity, dishonor and disaster. In the administrative management it has ruthlessly sacrificed indispensable revenue, entailed an unceasing deficit, eked out ordinary current running expenses with borrowed money, piled up the public debt by $262,000,000 in time of peace, forced an adverse balance of trade, kept a perpetual menace hanging over the redemption fund, pawned American credit to alien syndicates and reversed all the measures and results of successful Republican rule. In the broad effect of its policy it has precipitated panic, blighted industry and trade with prolonged depression, closed factories, reduced work and wages, halted enterprise and crippled American production, while stimulating foreign production for the American market. Every consideration of public safety and individual interest demands that the government shall be rescued from the hands of those who have shown themselves incapable of conducting it without disaster at home and dishonor abroad and shall be restored to the party which for thirty years administered it with unequalled success and prosperity.

THE TARIFF.

"We renew and emphasize our allegiance to the policy of protection as the bulwark of American industrial independence and the foundation of American development and prosperity. This true American policy taxes foreign products and encourages home industry; it puts the burden of revenue on foreign goods; it secures the American market for the American producer; it upholds the American standard of wages for the American workingman; it puts the factory by the side of the farm and makes the American farmer less dependent on foreign demand and price; it diffuses general thrift and founds the strength of each. In its reasonable application it is just, fair and impartial, equally opposed to foreign control and domestic monopoly, to sectional discrimination and individual favoritism.

"We condemn the present Democratic tariff as sectional, injurious to the public credit and destructive to business enterprise, and we demand such an equitable tariff on foreign imports which come into competition with American products as will not only furnish adequate revenue for the necessary expenses of the government, but will protect American labor from degradation and the wage level of other lands. We are not pledged to any particular schedules. The question of rates is a practical question, to be governed by the conditions of the time and of production. The ruling and uncompromising principle is the protection and development of American labor and industry. The country wants a right settlement and then it wants rest.

"The Republican party renews the pledge for the protection of all American industries against foreign competition, and declares its faith that the supremacy of the United States among the nations is the result of such a policy. We believe in [illegible] reciprocity which [illegible] the appreciation of the public debt of home markets to all future legislation affecting the tariff and the foreign trade. We believe the repeal of the reciprocity arrangements negotiated by the last Republican administration was a national calamity, and demand their renewal and extension on such terms as will equalize our trade with other nations, remove the restrictions which now obstruct the sale of American products in the ports of Europe and secure new markets for the products of our farms, forests and factories.

"We have [illegible] the early American policy of discriminating duties for the upbuilding of our merchant marine and the protection of our shipping in the foreign carrying trade, so that American ships, the product of American labor, sailing under the Stars and Stripes and manned, officered and owned by Americans, may regain the carrying of our foreign commerce.

FINANCIAL PLANK.

"The Republican party is unreservedly for sound money. It caused the enactment of the law providing for the resumption of specie payments in 1879; since then every dollar has been as good as gold.

"We are unalterably opposed to every measure calculated to debase our currency or impair the credit of our country. We are therefore opposed to the free coinage of silver, except by international agreement with the leading commercial nations of the world, which we pledge ourselves to promote, and until such agreement can be obtained, the existing gold standard must be preserved. All our silver and paper currency now in circulation must be maintained at a parity with gold, and we favor all measures designed to maintain inviolable the obligations of the United States and all our money, whether coin or paper, at the present standard, the standard of the most enlightened nations of the earth."

FOREIGN PLANK.

The foreign plank, drawn by Senator Lodge, is general in its nature, outlining a policy in regard to all current foreign questions. It contains a declaration for the protection of American citizens abroad, reaffirms the position of the party in favor of the Monroe doctrine; indorses the administration of President Harrison on the attitude of this country toward Hawaii; demands protection for American missionaries in Armenia; expresses sympathy for the Cubans in their war for independence, and takes a position in favor of awarding to them belligerent rights.

BEET SUGAR.

With regard to beet sugar the platform says:

"We condemn the present administration for not keeping faith with the sugar producers of the country. The Republican party favors such measures of encouragement and protection as will speedily lead to the production on American soil of all sugar which Americans use, and for which they pay to other countries more than $1,000,000,000 annually."

Civil service reform is approved and the extension of the principle whenever practicable. The use of public money for sectarian purposes and the union of church and state are opposed. A declaration is made in favor of arbitration between employer and employer, but no specific legislation is recommended.

A declaration is made in favor of liberal pensions, and the present administration is denounced for dropping from the rolls without examination deserving soldiers.

The building of the Nicaragua canal by the United States government is favored.

Educational Notes.

The State Teachers' association will convene in the Assembly Hall for a three days' session, beginning tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Her services have been attended with a high degree of success, and she leaves with the best wishes of the people of the city.

TOOELE CITY IS O. K.

Salt Lake & Pacific Officials Make No Complaint Against It.

INDIVIDUALS ARE TO BLAME.

Excessive Prices Asked for Land that is Comparatively Worthless—Will Try to Conciliate.

The right of way obstruction through Tooele county are still staring the Salt Lake & Pacific railway officials in the face. The trouble has arisen over individuals demanding enormous prices for land that is comparatively if not absolutely worthless. The section along or through which this condition obtains principally is between E. T. and Tooele city and out in the latter place, as has been rumored, although there are a few individuals there also who apparently expect to become suddenly enriched from the necessary purchases by the railway company of rights of way. The city as a corporation still stands ready to carry out the obligations entered into and it is confidently hoped that for the good of all concerned the few obstructionists will change their minds and join the ranks of their more enterprising and public spirited citizens and lend a helping hand to the railroad, for when once acquired it means that Tooele will have a permanent advantage over all the other towns of the county. If permitted to go by the way of Grantsville it means that that place will have the advantage, while the county seat will be obliged to play second fiddle and witness itself completely outgrown by its sister city.

The prospects are, however, that the folly of asking fabulous prices for rights of way will be seen and these privileges granted with cost to the railroad company in which event grading will very soon begin again. The way to encourage an enterprise is to do so in a substantial manner. Mr. George C. Lambert will leave for Tooele tomorrow or next day to lay the matter before the people and endeavor to convince them of the great benefits they will derive by doing the right thing at the right time, which is now.

$23,000 MISSING.

Shortage in an Idaho County's Bank Account—Holding a Draft on a Salt Lake Bank.

Boise, Idaho, Statesman, June 16: Secretary of State Garrett returned from Hailey Sunday. He states the difficulty over the county funds resulted in the arrest last Saturday of County Treasurer H. H. Clay and his deputy, Frank H. Parsons, who is cashier of the First National bank of Hailey. The officials were arrested under a complaint sworn out by District Attorney Rogers charging them with embezzlement. The amount it is claimed the treasury is short is in the neighborhood of $23,000. The treasurer claims he deposited all the funds he received in the First National bank of Hailey, and this is not denied. A short time ago the county commissioners made a demand to count the county money. The report of the treasurer showed a balance on hand of about $41,000. The commissioners found but $15,000 in the bank. This disclosure created no little excitement. It was stated the bank was guilty of using county money for its own interest, and charges and countercharges were the order of the hour. The county could not hold the bank, so it was decided to bring criminal proceedings against the responsible officers. This will result in proving whether or not the bank made use of the county funds, as it seems very likely it has. If it be shown that the funds have been put to such use, the bank officials, it is stated, will also be prosecuted.

Attorney General Parsons said yesterday he had received a response from his demand upon Treasurer Clay for the money due the state from Blaine county. It was in the shape of a draft on the McCornick bank in Salt Lake for $8,700, the amount due. The attorney general wired to Salt Lake to ascertain if the draft was good, refusing to accept it until he had assurance it was all right. He had not received a reply last evening.

The bank officials say, so it is stated, the bank will be in a position shortly to turn over to the county every dollar that has been deposited. They merely ask for time.

A DECIDEDLY GOOD CIRCUS.

Sharp and Clean Cut, Clever Specialties, Well Kept Promises and Pleased Audiences.

For once the promises of the advance circus agent have been kept and that to the very letter. When it was announced several weeks ago that Wallace Bros. Shows would visit Salt Lake again this season the public felt that they would see a first class exhibition and now they know their confidence was not misplaced.

The audience last night was an immense one and was thoroughly entertained from the opening to the close of the performance. Only once was there any diminution in the interest and that was when the would-be [illegible] delivered himself of a lot of [illegible] advertising gags in which he was recklessly [illegible] to the sawdust the names of the local firms. An omission of this feature might be brought about by giving the lady of the [illegible] baby elephant to a railway [illegible] for dissecting and then the fellow was only a [illegible] and [illegible] great [illegible] in the circus ring. Some of these [illegible] were very clever [illegible]. A number of comparatively new [illegible] were put [illegible] in a manner that brought forth hearty rounds of applause from the great audience. The most difficult [illegible] were done with surprising ease and grace by the [illegible]. The [illegible] work of Miss [illegible] Jeanette proved her to be one of the most daring of living equestriennes. It is doing the [illegible] to her alone. There is only [illegible] to be found with her act, and that is that it is too cool, too thrilling, too dangerous. The riding was all good, especially in the chariot contests where visions of Ben Hur flitted before the minds of the spectators until they were wrought up to a degree of intense excitement. The horses used were thoroughbreds and clearly showed the effects of fine training and good care. As stated in the NEWS of last evening they are the finest equine specimens to be found in the circus ring.

There was no parade this morning as it is customary with the Wallace shows to give but one such exhibition in a town except when they remain for a week when two are permitted. The third performance occurred this afternoon and the engagement closes tonight and in that connection the positive announcement is made that there will be absolutely no cutting; that the full program will be carried out. It is explained that such a proceeding is more desirable on account of the close proximity of the railroad track and the short distance to be traversed before the next show town—Ogden—is reached.

AMUSEMENTS.

John Drew.—The attendance at the Theater last night was slightly diminished owing to the numerous counter attractions of importance, but the same keen appreciation of the play and players was manifested as upon the opening night, Miss Adams being particularly favored with applause and commendation. The entire company will be the guests of Colonel and Mrs. N. W. Clayton at Saltair today, and this evening will close their engagement here with the presentation of the Theater of "The Squire of Dames." A big house is assured and Drew and Adams will be seen at their best.

The Orpheus club assisted by some of the best local talent, gave a musical recital at the Congregational church last evening. Those attending did so by invitation of the club, and the church was filled to its utmost capacity. Following is the program rendered:

Alleged "Moonshiners."

Paul Petersen and his wife were arrested at Smithfield, Cache county, last Thursday by a deputy marshal on a charge of running an illicit distillery in that town. It appears that the couple, who are over 70 years old, have been making home made beer and putting alcohol in it, and this is the ground for the arrest. Neither Petersen nor his wife can speak a word of English and he is an invalid. Attorneys C. M. Nelson and H. A. Smith will look after the interests of the old couple.

Fell From a Car.

Just before press time this afternoon Mr. Wilstead, a car cleaner employed at the Union Pacific depot in this city, slipped and fell from a car, receiving such severe injuries that he had to be removed to his residence, where surgeons were in attendance ascertaining how badly he was hurt.

THE CARNIVAL CONCERT.

Rehearsal at the Assembly Hall Tomorrow Night—Miss Pearl Will be "Utah."

The Carnival concert at the Tabernacle is going to be a grand affair, Professor Evan Stephens, the musical director of the Carnival, says so. He now has a chorus of 500 trained voices in active rehearsal and after tomorrow night he will draw the line at applicants. The rehearsal will begin at 8 o'clock sharp in the Assembly Hall, and the most important selection to be rehearsed is a stirring chorus, adapted from a French opera by Professor Stephens, and entitled "Hail to the Carnival Queen." The tableaux will be a most interesting feature of the Carnival. The Carnival queen and her retinue will comprise one and Miss Pearl, as "Utah," surrounded by members of the choir, the other. Eight calcium lights will be used to give the tableaux the proper spectacular effect. Prof. Stephens announces that entries to the band contest must be in by the 20th inst., and urges the attention of all band masters to the announcement. The K. of P. band (the Dentalians) which won the first prize at the Eisteddfod last year will take a leading part in the concert.

NOTES.

An appropriation has been made to the veteran firemen in order that their machine may be properly decorated.

A full statement of the receipts and expenditures will be published at the proper time by the executive committee.

Business men who intend to have advertising floats in the parade are requested to notify the grand marshal on or before the 21st inst. of the fact.

Ten thousand slips containing a Carnival editorial, which recently appeared in the Denver Times, have been printed and are now being circulated.

Twenty-thousand folders containing an outline of the three days' program and railroad rates are now being circulated throughout the intermountain country.

Sixteen men and four women are now on the Carnival pay roll. Of the number only two are non-residents. They are the master mechanic and his foreman.

After Thursday evening (tomorrow) no application for membership in the Carnival chorus will be entertained. Until then trained singers and readers are cordially invited to participate.

Sent to the Infirmary.

Henry Leggett, 45 years old and afflicted with rheumatism, applied to the county commissioners today for assistance. The poor fellow was in a bad fix, being unable to walk with any degree of comfort. He will be taken care of at the Infirmary for a couple of months, when he expects to get out in good order and go to work.

FEMALE VOTE PREDOMINANT.

The Fair Sex Will Out-Vote Their Sterner Fellow-Citizens.

The enumerators authorized by the board of county commissioners are nearing the end of their work in the city, as will be seen in the following table. The ladies appear to be leading, so to speak, as in all wards except the Sixteenth, where the division is exactly equal, they outnumber their jealous brothers. The Danger is Averted by Using

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

"Nearly forty years ago, after some weeks of sickness, my hair turned gray and began falling out so rapidly that I was threatened with immediate baldness. Hearing Ayer's Hair Vigor highly spoken of, I commenced using this preparation, and was so well satisfied with the result that I have never tried any other kind of dressing. It stopped the hair from falling out, stimulated a new growth of hair, and kept the scalp free from dandruff. Only an occasional application is now needed to keep my hair of good, natural color. I never hesitate to recommend Ayer's [illegible] to my friends."—Mrs. H. M. Haight, [illegible]

Garden City Notes.

Henry Ellison, 15 years of age, was before Justice Maxey yesterday charged with stealing a box containing tickets and money, from the bicycle whirligig people. He pleaded guilty and was ordered into the custody of the sheriff to be taken before the district court on a recommendation to be sent to the reform school. Ellison's father was present and stated that he could not control the boy. Young Ellison has been in a number of stealing scrapes for the last two or three years; he seems to have a mania for that kind of business. Harry Smith, a companion, who has been before the justice on a previous occasion, was ordered imprisoned till this evening, and two other boys, who were accessories after the fact, were allowed to go under a suspended sentence.
