PANAMA, Sept. 25.—A dispatch from Ocana on the river Magdelana received at Barranquilla on the 17th inst., reports the rising of communists at Bucaramanga in the State of Santander on the 9th inst. The Alcalde, Pedro Collazos, headed a crowd of ruffians in an attack upon several wealthy establishments, among others the only bank in the place, and completely sacked them, killing and wounding the persons who endeavored to defend them, and also burning the buildings. They then retired to the two Cuertals, carrying their plunder and there entrenched themselves, bidding defiance to the authorities of the State. The city remained in a state of alarm and terror four days. Many families fled to the woods and others barricaded their doors and kept guard night and day. Gen. Wilcher, president of the State, hastened from the capital, Socorro, more than 60 miles distant from Bucaramagua, with a small but disciplinea force, attacked the robbers in their entrenched position and com-pletely routed them. He killed several of the leaders and took many prisoners. day before the Lord Mayor at the Mansion House Police Court. Among the spectators was noticed a young American lady, quietly dressed and deeply veiled, who passed in London as Cooper's wife. Mr. Day, a resident of Hemel Hempsted, and friend of the prisoner during his residence in Hertfordshire, testified to Cooper's hand writing. During his crossand refined and honorable man than the prisoner, he had never years and the prisoner had completely won the affections of himself, his family and his neighbors. He could hardly believe the truth of the charges made. At this point the witness looked toward the prisoner appealingly, as it he would have him deny the charges. Cooper could not, however, meet the gaze of his deceived friend. His eyes sunk and he seemed visibly affected. The prisoner appeared at one time to have a chance of ultimately escaping punishment, on the plea of mistaken identity, in consequence of the use of the false the beard, caused him to be committed for trial on both charges.
