HOME INDUSTRY FAIR

A Great Showing Will be Made at the Opening This Evening.

GRAND DISPLAY OF EXHIBITS.

Governor West and Other Prominent Citizens Will Conduct the Opening Exercises.

The Home Industry Fair makes a grand showing, and a genuine surprise is in store for the crowd of people who will throng to the opening ceremonies this evening. Most of the exhibits are in place now, and present a picture that is highly complimentary to Utah industries. The section of the Continental market being on First South street is a scene of beauty and life that cannot fail to bring cheer to visitors, as they gaze at the tastily arranged displays.

This evening at 7 o'clock the doors to the Fair will be thrown open to the public, and while the people are admiring their first glance at the grand display, Hess's Band will discourse sweet music. At 7:30 o'clock the regular opening program will be entered upon, when Governor West and other leading citizens will address the assemblage. The services of the evening will be in full harmony with the interesting surroundings.

TO UTAH STOCKMEN.

Vital and Interesting Questions Propounded for their Benefit.

The President of the D. A. and M. Society has issued the following letter to stockmen. It is self-explanatory and is of interest to every resident of the Territory:

DESERET NEWS OFFICE, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, MARCH 29, 1894.

Dear Sir—The board of directors of the Deseret Agricultural and Manufacturing society have decided to hold a fair this fall, commencing Tuesday, October 2nd, inclusive, and the following-named committee, at a meeting held yesterday, for the exhibition of agricultural and mechanical products, minerals, home made goods of every description, fine arts, educational displays and everything else that goes to make grand a home exhibition. The directors are undecided as to the propriety of including in this fair a live stock exhibit, as several of the principal exhibitions at former fairs have stated that they are not inclined to exhibit this year. The directors think that they are public servants and would like to ascertain the minds of all the live stock exhibitors on the subject. If satisfactory arrangements are offered for the week, will you exhibit your animals? If so, please answer the following questions without delay:

How many horses? How many brought last year?

How many sheep? How many brought?

We would be glad to get your views on this subject, so that we may be able to form judge of the general feeling of the people.

Yours very truly,

JOHN R. WINDER,
President D. A. and M. Society.

ANTHON H. LUND, Secretary.
GEORGE D. PYPER, Secretary,
Box 595, Salt Lake City.

This letter will be sent to all past exhibitors in the live stock department. Colonel Winder, however, would be glad to receive the opinions of all who are interested in stock.

NEW ENACTMENTS.

TO PROTECT LABELS.

Recorded Trade Marks and Devices Not to be Imitated.

AN ACT to prevent counterfeits, frauds and injuries to trade marks, trade labels and frauds in advertising.

Be it enacted by the Governor and Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah:

SECTION 1. Whoever any person, association or firm whether incorporated or unincorporated, have adopt and recorded in the office of the Territorial secretary a trade mark, device or form of advertisement, or shall have lawfully obtained the right to use such trade mark, device or form of advertisement, shall be entitled to the protection of this act, and any counterfeit or imitation of such trade mark, device or form of advertisement, or any part thereof, or any colorable imitation thereof, so nearly resembling the same as to be calculated to deceive, and that the description and facsimile truly represent the trade mark sought to be registered, and necessary affidavits of the person, association or firm adopting the same, and a duly attested certificate of the record of the same, for which he shall receive a fee of two dollars. Such certificate of record shall in all suits and proceedings under this act be prima facie evidence of proprietorship and proof of the adoption of such label, trade mark, device or form of advertisement, and of the right of such person, association or firm to adopt the same. Provided, That no trade mark which is simply the name of the applicant or any other person, or any name which is simply descriptive of the article sought to be protected shall be registered under this act. No label, trade mark, device or form of advertisement shall be recorded that would be liable to be mistaken for any label, trade mark, device or form of advertisement already of record.

SEC. 2. Every such person, association or firm adopting a label, trade mark, device or form of advertisement who have complied with the requirements of this act, as aforesaid, may proceed by suit to enjoin the manufacture, use, display or sale of any such counterfeits or imitations, and all courts having jurisdiction thereof may grant injunctions to restrain such manufacture, use, display or sale, and shall award the complainant in said suit, such damages resulting from such wrongful manufacture, use, display or sale, as may by said court be deemed just and reasonable, and shall require the defendants to pay to such person, association or firm the profits derived from such wrongful manufacture, use, display or sale; and said court shall also order that all such counterfeits or imitations in the possession or under the control of any defendant in such case be delivered to an officer of the court, or to the complainant to be destroyed.

SEC. 3. Every person who shall use or display the genuine label, trade mark, device or form of advertisement of any other person, association or firm in any manner not authorized by such person, association or firm shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. In all cases where such association or firm is not incorporated, suits under this act may be commenced and prosecuted by any authorized officer or member of such association or firm.

SEC. 4. Any person or persons who shall in any way use the trade mark or seal of any such person, association or firm or officer thereof, in and about the sale of goods or otherwise not being authorized to use the same, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 7. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act, and sections 4119 to 4125 inclusive Compiled Laws 1888, are hereby repealed.

Approved March 5th, 1894.

Will Take Hold on Monday.

Surprised the Court.

E. Johnson and Frank Hendricksen were arraigned in the police court today on a charge of stealing a ride on the railroad. One of them also was guilty of carrying a concealed weapon—a revolver of large dimensions. The court gave them the alternative of going to jail for just the few days remaining of spring or of a fine. Of course the judge never imagined for a moment that either of the offenders had money but they surprised him greatly by walking to the clerk's desk and coming out full of greenbacks which they spended to be of great value, and said their fines and departed.

Assault and Battery Case.

William Walters, a commercial, was arrested on a warrant issued today from Justice Smith's court on a charge of assault and battery. The case was set down for hearing.
