PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, DEC. 4, 1895.

First District Court.

The following business was transacted in the First district court Monday afternoon and yesterday:

H. S. Brownlee, editor Eastern Utah Advocate, was arraigned on a charge of criminal libel. He pleaded not guilty.

Bullock-Beck & Champion Mining Co. vs F. E. Morris, trustee (two cases) dismissed by consent.

United States vs Norman Beaty; time of sentence postponed until December 17th.

United States vs Jefferson Carter, indicted for conducting an illicit distillery; case dismissed and ordered to be submitted to the present grand jury.

Jacob Jacobsen vs Caroline M. Jacobsen; ordered that plaintiff pay defendant $25 attorney's fees and $10 per month temporary alimony, commencing with Jan. 1st, 1896.

Thos. F. Cochran vs Louisa J. Cochran; it is ordered to set aside order setting aside default and judgment denied.

The jury in the case of the United States vs Samuel Brown, tried for conducting an illicit distillery, brought in a verdict of guilty with a recommendation to mercy.

Mike Marnano vs Dan D. Sullivan is a suit now on trial. The suit was brought to recover possession of a horse and household goods in Lehi, Juab county. Plaintiff claims to have borrowed $125 on the property in question and gives defendant a bill of sale of it as security, and when he wanted to pay defendant he refused to accept the money and return the property.

City Council.

At the meeting of the city council Monday evening Mayor Holdaway vetoed the salary ordinance passed at the former meeting of the council, giving as a reason that some of the salaries provided were too low to secure competent men for the positions named. The ordinance was unanimously passed over the mayor's veto.

On recommendation of the mayor the adoption of the report of the committee on water dam in Provo river will be reconsidered at the next meeting. Among the reasons given by the mayor for the reconsideration is the fact that the various canal companies who will receive water through the dam would contribute a portion of the expenses of construction, and a proper apportionment of such expenses cannot be made till the rights of the several parties to the water is determined by the decision of a case now in the First district court.

Notes and Personals.

Frederick A. Hearing, aged 30, and Elizabeth C. Dunkley, aged 24, both of American Fork, have received a marriage license.

Sheriff Carter, of Sanpete county, brought Hekemia Clayton, a 15-year-old boy of Mayfield, to Provo on Monday. He is accused of breaking into Edwards Bros.' store at Mayfield and taking money and other valuables. He was bound over to await the action of the grand jury by the Mayfield justice of the peace. Young Clayton visited the World's Fair without any money, when he was 13 years of age.

Richard R. Lyman was appointed first counselor to Blake Superintendent Hinkley at the late M. I. A. conference, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Elder J. W. Cluff, and not, as erroneously stated in a previous Provo department, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the absence of A. L. Booth, on a mission to England.

The Dispatch plant was bought Monday by John R. Twelves, who bid in for $930 for parties having claims against the Dispatch company. Arrangements are being made for the continued publication of the paper.
