WANTS $500 DAMAGE.

The Suit by S. I. Clawson Against the City Council of Coalville.

An order has been issued from the Third district court upon the City Council of Coalville to appear October 14th at 10 a.m., and show cause why an injunction should not be granted, restraining the city from interfering, with Mr. Nelson I. Clawson in the erection of electric light poles on the streets of Coalville. Mr. Clawson is under a $500 bond for any damage he may do to the city in the meantime by the erection of his poles. A summons has been served on the city, to show why Mr. Clawson should not be awarded damage in the amount of $500 for the interference of the city up to date. The complaint sets forth that relief is prayed for on the ground that July 10, 1893, the defendant granted to plaintiff the privilege of building and maintaining an electric light plant, within the limits of said Coalville city, for the generating, distributing and selling electricity for commercial, public and private lighting and for furnishing, distributing and selling electric power and heat; that plaintiff has made many preparations for the erection of said electric light plant and has in good faith been complying with provisions of said franchise, commences work on said plant on or before Sept. 8, 1893, when the city passed an ordinance of Coalville, acting under the direction, or at the authority, interfered with and sought by digging up the poles which the plaintiff had erected and throw them down and otherwise interfered and threatened said plaintiff, that the plaintiff's property invested in said plant is being wasted and damaged in the sum of $500.

Young, Young & Maginn of this city are attorneys for the plaintiff.

No clue to the guilty parties.

The Kimball Case.

The hearing of the petition of John W. Smith, asking for the revocation of the letters of guardianship of Mrs. Susannah Davey, guardian of Alfred E. and Theila Kimball, continued in the Probate court until late in the afternoon on Saturday. The petition charges gross immorality against Mrs. Davey and her family. Mrs. Davey is alleged to have lived with a certain Joseph Beethwaite while still married to Charles Davey; it also charges her daughter Rose and Ann and granddaughter Kate with immorality, and Mrs. Davey with drunkenness. The petitioner is John W. Smith, who was the husband of Mrs. Josephine D. Kimball, now deceased. The testimony of all submitted at 5 o'clock, when court adjourned, and the case will be argued next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The funeral occurred from the Fourteenth ward assembly hall. The bereaved mother desires to express her gratitude to friends who so kindly came to the family's assistance in her hour of trial. She especially wishes to convey her thanks to Professors Stephens and H. G. Eaton for the sweet music they so kindly furnished.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE TABERNACLE CHOIR concert Saturday evening proved a fair success financially, though the attendance was not all what the merits of the occasion warranted. Artistically the success was most emphatic. The features most appreciated were the concise choruses, though it was very regretable that the full 150 voices were not represented, the gentlemen especially, owing to business engagements, being very light. This was so much noticeable, that the voices were in many instances overweighted by the organ. Mr. Weihe and Mr. Easton were accorded the usual lengthy encores, and the other numbers, especially the ladies' chorus, were greatly appreciated. Mr. Stephens has every reason to congratulate himself on the issue of the closing World's Fair contest.

THE SPAN OF LIFE closed its engagement Saturday night to a very large audience. The piece made an immense hit.

THE TWO ORPHANS by the Salt Lake Stock Co. will go for the last time to cheap prices tonight. The same company will present A Celebrated Case at the same rates on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings.

Wonderland.

People will be amused, no matter how hard times are, and this resort is entitled to the liberal patronage accorded it. The management of this place of amusement evidently believes in stimulating business by giving superior performances, for in such hard times something special must be represented in order to merit the patronage bestowed.

A stock company of excellence appears to the Dewdrop, giving popular prices.

On the upper stage a good vaudeville performance is given, and in the curio hall a long list of interesting curiosities are on exhibition.

The Raffael Suit.

In the case of Joseph Raffael vs the Societe Anonyme des Mines de Lexington et al, on motion of Attorney Boyle for the defendant, Judge Barlow this morning allowed sixty days in which to file statement on motion for a new trial. Meantime a stay was granted.

Four Couples Today.

The County Clerk this morning issued marriage licenses to Edward C. Eyring, 25, and Caroline Romney, 19, both of Colonia Juarez, Old Mexico; Homer A. Harrington, 23, and Maud W. Stafford, 21, both of Salt Lake City, Michigan, Ontario; Edward F. Dudley, 24, and Ida L. Eyring, 18, both of Colonia Juarez, Old Mexico; to Fred Wm. Katron, 21, of Lewiston, Cache county, and Tabitha Dean Halsey, 20, of Richmond, Cache county.

World's Bee Convention.

Mr. E. S. Lovey has gone to St. Louis and Chicago, where he will represent the Utah Bee-keepers at the World's Bee convention, to be held on the 11th, 12th and 13th of this month, at Chicago. Anyone wishing to correspond with bee-keepers relative their communities is to No. 250 Howard street, or to Wm. Muth, or care American Bee Journal, 51-55 Fifth Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

Destroyed by Fire.

Shortly after one o'clock this a. m. a barn belonging to W. C. Rowting at No. 157 east Fourth South street, was found on fire. An alarm was sounded and the department turned out in good shape and rendered valuable service, thereby saving a building on the other side of the adjoining stream, which was entirely of adobe. There were three horses in the barn. Two of them were saved, while the third one, valued at $75, perished in the flames. A buggy and set of harness were also destroyed. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss will amount to $300. This, however, is covered by insurance.

A $50,000 Damage Suit.

William S. Affleck, administrator of the estate of John Affleck, deceased, has filed a $50,000 damage suit against the Salt Lake City Railway company in the Third district court. In the complaint he alleges that the deceased, who was his son, was employed by the defendants as a wiper and cleaner at their power house in this city, and while working on the 15th of May in a pit constructed for that purpose, the car was accidently set in motion and moved. Young Affleck was jammed against the cross ties of the pit and injured to such an extent that he died upon the following day.

The Mining Case Over.

The case of Joseph Raffael vs the Societe Anonyme des Mines de Lexington et al concluded before Judge Bartch late on Saturday afternoon, when it was submitted to the jury. At 7:30 they came into court with a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $5000 as against the company alone. The plaintiff sued for $12,000.
