A HOUSE FOR TWO.

The will I would marry the girl in question. He declared there was no doubt of it. Then I said I would find out if she was in love with him. Well, I did find out, and I found that she was not. Then I said I would find out if she was in love with me. Well, I did find out that she was. Then I said I would marry her. Then I said I would not. Then I said I would. Then I said I would not. Then I said I would. Then I said I would not. Then I said I would