OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - APRIL 22, 1895.

Junction City News.

The fine weather yesterday brought out an unusually large attendance at the Weber stake conference making it necessary to hold an overflow meeting in the Third ward meeting house, and the tabernacle. Elder Geo. Teasdale occupied the time at the morning service, his remarks were of a general character and were listened to with much interest. At the afternoon service after the administering of the Sacrament Mrs. Bertie Dyke Allen, Miss May Driver, Ed Tout and Robert Anderson sang, "The Holy Mountain," a composition by Squire Cowan, of this city. Elder F. D. Richards preached the sermon. He drew attention to the fact that many were concerning themselves about questions that are unprofitable to discuss, in the respect of principles of every day life special were mentioned. Elder Richards urges the different wards to exert themselves in the matter of looking after the waste of the poor, that none may suffer. He condemned the prevailing extravagance for the purpose of show when it could not be afforded, resulting in embarrassment and distress, advising prudence and reasonable economy.

In the Fourth district court on Friday was heard a damage suit for $5,000. In January, 1894, David Kerr was engaged by the defendants, L. S. Adams and F. J. Kissel, coasting out upon the ice at Syracuse. The sport did not become tedious and, acting on instructions from his employers, the plaintiff chucked upon the pile of ice when it slipped, and in the fall several bones of broke and left upon him breaking his arm and leg, and making him a cripple for life. It is alleged in the complaint that the ice had become thinly, making it weak, defective and unsafe, but it was negligence of the defendants in not ascertaining the dangerous condition of the ice pile.

Charles Hinson, a desperate inmate of the Reform school, has made his escape from the school. Every night for the last three months he has had a twenty-five pound chain around his leg. About 8 o'clock Thursday night he took his bed clothes, by which he lowered himself from his cell to the second floor to the ground. Although a thorough search has been made, no trace of him can be found.

In the Fourth district court on Saturday Judge Smith saw the solution of the prosecuting attorney to the fact that witnesses were pestering themselves. Attorney Magnusson produced a plan to the effect the immediate arrestee.

A marriage license was granted Friday to Hanlon B. Adams and Leonora Wakefield, both of Salt Lake City, in the evening they were married by Rev. G. M. Jeffery.

The Ogden school board have a committee appointed to confer with the Constitutional delegates to secure free city high schools.

Mrs. C. J. Corey slipped on a garden rake and two of the teeth penetrated her foot, making a bad wound.

The gambling houses and the prostitutes paid a periodical fine on Saturday.

LITERARY NOTES.

The Forum for May will contain a novel study of the career and character of Prince Bismarck, by Charles A. L. Dodge, the well-known military writer. Col. Dodge has recently spent more than a long season in Europe, and he has prepared the paper after long study in the minister's own country by Bismarck's resignation came.

The May number of Godey's Magazine appears in an even more attractive cover than the last one. It contains a striking frontispiece "Spring," a charming study of the "Fair Women Series," "Across in Their Studies," by Cooper, "Chase," by Milne, and "The Angelus Call," also delicious short stories, poems, book reviews, and "Godey's Fashions."

The complete novel in the May issue of Lippincott's is "The Lady of the Chase," by Christian Reid. It gives a little (in the text) opinion (with illustrations) of South America, "The Heart of the Fire Spring," by the late Louis Alvin P. Sydenham, setting forth a case in the early devices of the Indian medicine-men, "The Great of Bunda Ho-ses," Effecting the Fire-fly," "The a Mass Fiber," etc., etc.

OBITUARY NOTES.

EDWIN M. KING.

LAYTON, Davis County, April 15, 1895.—Edwin M. King, one of our old pioneers, and the son of Hyrum and Nancy B. King, passed away at a ripe old age, April 8, 1895, with Bright's Disease. He was born in East Bloomfield, Ontario county, New York, May 3, 1815, was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints at the age of 15. He passed through all the trying scenes of Kirtland and Missouri and Nauvoo, and arrived in these valleys in 1848, locating at Bay's Creek, now Layton, in 1850, where he ever since built his home. In 1852 he was married to Mary B. Stanley. Mr. Stanley was the father of ten children, one of whom survives, by his eighteen grandchildren, and fourteen great-grandchildren. He was one of the Nauvoo Legion, and took part in the Indian wars and in the Echo canyon campaign.

The funeral services were held at his residence Tuesday afternoon.—Contributed.
