THE EVENING PAPER IS THE PAPER OF TODAY, THE MORNING PAPER IS THE PAPER OF YESTERDAY.

Deseret Evening News.

5 O'CLOCK EDITION.

NO. 263 THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1898. SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH. VOL. XXXI.

THE INSIDE TRACK.

The Gil Blas Claims to Give McKinley's Instructions.

NO HOPE FOR UNHAPPY SPAIN.

French Papers Comment Upon the Difficulties that the Two Peace Commissions Will Have to Face.

[illegible]

A PLUCKY MESSENGER.

Five Masked Men Attempt to Hold Up D. & R. G. Express.

BLOODHOUNDS ARE ON THEIR TRAIL.

[illegible]

DENMARK'S QUEEN DEAD

She Passes Away at the Age of Eighty-One Years.

THE MOTHER-IN-LAW OF THE CONTINENT.

The Queen Had Been Dangerously Ill for Several Months, but Her Condition Was Not Made Public.

[illegible]

ALASKA BOUNDARY LINE.

[illegible]

FIRST FORMAL FUNCTIONS.

[illegible]

ORDERED HOME.

[illegible]

VAN WYCK NOMINATED.

The New York Democrats Cheer the Name of William Jennings Bryan.

SCHRAUB SCORES STATE ADMINISTRATION

[illegible]

THE PRESIDENT'S VISIT.

[illegible]

DIATRIBES AT DENVER.

The Rev. Joseph P. McIntyre as a Naval Expert.

SEN. SCHERMERHORN FOR THE DEFENSE.

He Was of the Opinion that the Chaplain Was Ill and Should Have Been More Explicit.

[illegible]

THE OREGON SAILS.

[illegible]

FIERCE FOREST FIRES

A Sea of Fire Encircles Live Stock and Property in Colorado.

IT HAS BEEN BURNING FOR WEEKS.

The Fires Embrace the Northwestern Portion of the State—Claimed to be the Work of Indians.

[illegible]

"GOD BLESS THE RED CROSS!"

[illegible]

HOBSON WILL DO IT.

[illegible]