HIGH HANDED RASCALITY. The officers of the inw are anxious to locate Billy Gibson on the charge of obtaining goods under failse oretense. Gibson becape enumored with a Miss Anderson of Ogden, but the young haly uuraed him down. As revense, he cut a fine skirt belonging to her into shreds. He was fined 576 in Sub Lake for that offonse. He then came to Ogden and notified her parents that they were morried and wanted her belongings. The young lady's trunk with clothing, etc., valued at $200, was sent him, and he skipped out for California, taking it with him. At Truckee on the South-ern Pacific he wired the young lady her mother was dying at Ogden, and she came here only to find hor well and to discover his rascality. HIGH HANDED RASCALITY.
