CHINESE GAMBLERS.

The Mysteries of Their National Game, "Fan Tan," Explained.

THE PASTIME OF "HONEST JOHN."

An Attorney Who Says He Doesn't Even Comprehend The First Principles of That Diversion.

It was nearly press time for the NEWS, last evening when the Chinese gamblers, who were arrested by the police on Saturday night in the Gaiety club rooms, in connection with a number of American and European sports, were arraigned before Justice Kesler. They were represented by Judge Laney and Attorney Will I. Stuart, while Assistant City Attorney Cond prosecuted. When the names of the Chinamen were read by the prosecutor there was no immediate response and that functionary inquired if the accused were in the court room.

"Not physically," responded Judge Laney, promptly, as he assumed an air of becoming professional dignity, "but they are represented by counsel, and we ask that their cases be heard separately."

Prosecutor Cond—I am willing that the defendants be tried separately but I insist upon their personal presence in court.

Judge Laney—I understood that you were not particular as to that.

Well, I am, and demand that they be brought before his honor for purposes of identification.

Messrs. Laney and Stuart then held a brief whispered consultation with Bitty, the proprietor of the Gaiety gambling rooms, and the latter went out in search of the missing Mongolians and returned with them shortly afterwards.

During his absence Captain Donovan produced a large collection of Chinese coins and "fan tan" paraphernalia which had been captured with the players on their arrest and which were inspected by the court and "set in motion" by Attorney Newton, who also explained its intricacies and who, much to the amusement of those present, dryly remarked that he was an adept at all kinds of games whether the creation of the clever Caucasian or the conception of the cunning Chinese, except "honest John." Of that uninteresting pastime he did not pretend to even understand the primary principles.

After a dissertation by the court on the subject of "honesty being the best policy," even for a lawyer, order was called and the "pipe hitting" Orientalists and players of "fantan" were ordered to stand up and plead. Jim Ling, who has long been the court interpreter for the local officers in such cases, acted as medium on this occasion, and after the oath had been administered by [illegible] to the offenders, they entered pleas of not guilty, and the examination of witnesses was commenced. Counsel for the accused sought diligently to establish the innocence of their copper colored clients, but with equal assurance of success they might as easily have endeavored to prevent the waters of the Mississippi from finding their way into the Gulf of Mexico. The evidence of their guilt was overwhelming and the charges against them accordingly sustained by the court.

They were fined $25 each which they paid without murmur and returned to their haunts, apparently in a merry mood.

Their names were John Ah Gee, Wing Tong, Tong Ah Jug, and Cong Wing.

EXPOSITION ECHOES.

Responses to the Circular are Somewhat Tardy.—Other Correspondence

Responses to the circular letter sent out by the World's Fair commissioners for Utah are somewhat tardy in coming in, although quite a number of prominent citizens have signified their intention of assisting the commission so far as they are able. The commissioners are desirous of pressing matters as far as wisdom may dictate.

The chief of the department of agriculture has made inquiry concerning Utah's exhibit of farm products at the World's Fair. It is said that Utah can capture the prize on barley and several other farm products if a proper showing is made.

The secretary is now supplied with the rules and regulations governing exhibitors at the World's Fair, which will be furnished to anyone making application.

Inquiry has been made by the directors general of the exposition in regard to Utah's exhibit in the forestry department, but at present the indications are not very favorable for an exhibit of any importance being made by Utah in this department.

Box Elder Stake Conference.

The Quarterly Conference of the Box Elder Stake of Zion was held in Brigham City Tabernacle on April 24th and 25th, president R. Clawson presiding.

On Sunday morning there were on the stand, President Lorenzo Snow, Presidency of the Stake, the High Council and the Bishops of nearly all the wards in the Stake. There was a crowded congregation.

Bishop Arnold Goodliff of Snowville and President Rudger Clawson, who occupied the time in the forenoon exhorted the Saints to do the will of the Lord in order to be blessed in both spiritual and temporal things.

At 2 p.m. Elder B. H. Roberts joined the brethren on the stand. The Sacrament administered, President Clawson presented the Church and Stake officers, all of whom were sustained by the vote of the Conference.

Elder B. H. Roberts then addressed the Saints. He thought there were no two things of greater importance with the Latter-day Saints than that of partaking of the Sacrament and voting to sustain the authorities of the Church.

On the morning of the 25th President Lorenzo Snow was the first speaker. His subject was "Union." All the Church and Stake officers, he said, should be in perfect harmony with each other. This was pleasing to the Lord. He felt to raise a warning voice against all strife and ill-feeling among the Saints. The Lord would be displeased with those who give way to these influences.

At 2 p.m., after some preliminary business, Elder B. H. Roberts delivered a powerful address on the subject of "U. O." He deplored the great evils growing out of strife, contention and division among the Saints. We were not brought into the world to do our own will, but the will of the Lord.

Brothers Samuel Smith, Charles Kelly, Wm. S. Wakley and Grandell Dunn spoke briefly upon the present situation of affairs among the people, called upon them to repent of their evils, and turn therefrom.

The entire conference was exceedingly interesting and well attended.

Tooele Stake Conference.

The quarterly conference of the Tooele Stake was held in Tooele City on April 24th and 25th.

On Sunday at 10 a. m. the meeting was called to order by President H. S. Gowans. Present on the stand were Prest. Gowans and Counselors and a number of the Bishops and leading brethren of the Stake.

Counselor C. F. Richards, James Ratcliffe, Robert C. Shields and President Gowans occupied the entire time discoursing, among other matters, upon the proper culture and education of our children, a correct understanding of the principles of the Gospel, the promotion of officers and members to the quorums of the Priesthood, etc.

In the afternoon Bishop Jas. L. Wrathall of Grantsville and Bishop Thos. Atkin of the Tooele Ward reported the condition of the organizations in their wards as very satisfactory. A. J. Stookey spoke on the effect of influence and example. President Gowans read the circular issued by the First Presidency of the Church calling upon the Saints to observe next Sabbath, May 1st, in fasting, prayer and thanksgiving.

On Monday morning Bishop H. D. St. Geer of Clover, Bishop John C. Sharp of Vernon, Bishop D. H. Caldwell of St. John, Bishop John C. Shields of Lakeview ward, each reported as to their respective wards, testifying to the steady increase in union and good works. A. G. Johnson, superintendent of the Sabbath schools of the Stake, spoke of the great good being accomplished by this organization, and advised the practice of teachers to visit the parents of children not attending school, invite them to become enrolled and to increase the average attendance of those enrolled. Counselor C. L. Anderson said the High Council, Bishops, and prominent brethren in the Stake should be models of perfection, for their influence and example will be more or less patterned after. He exhorted parents to instill correct principles in the minds of their children and manifest faith by works. We should be found doing our part in erecting and completing temples, to be dedicated to the Lord for our special blessing and benefit.

At 2 p.m. S. W. Woolley occupied a portion of the time, treating upon authority in Priesthood, the necessity of revelation and the justice of God in awarding to each what they merit. The statistical report for the past six months was read by the clerk, and the General authorities of the Church and local officers of the Stake was presented by President Gowans and unanimously sustained.

President Gowans informed the Bishops as to the instructions received for conducting the exercise at next Sunday's fast meeting.

The meetings during conference were well attended, and the spirit of the Lord was richly enjoyed by speakers and hearers. The singing by the choir added much to the enjoyment of the meetings.

GEO. ATKIN, Clerk.
TOOELE CITY, April 25, 1892.

Items From Basalt.

"Landmark" writes from Basalt, Idaho, under date of April 25th, as follows:

Today at Basalt the snow is falling fast. The ground is well covered. It seems that Boreas has not lost much time in keeping the weather cold and helping to forward the irrigation show to produce much water to irrigate the harvest of the farmers, who are all well employed on their farms.

Mr. Templeton, on Tuesday last, April 19th, organized a Farmer's Alliance Association, and a good many joined.

On Wednesday, April 20th, a serious accident happened to Brother John Ames, who fell from a load of hay. The load overturned and fell upon him. He was very badly cut upon the forehead and received various bruises, but no bones were broken. He is now on a fair way to recovery. Brother Fell Hokand, who was with him, escaped unhurt.

Amusement Notes.

The closing performance of "The Power of the Press" was witnessed by a large audience last night at the Theatre, and gave usual satisfaction.

"HAZEL KIRKE."

The appearance tonight at the Theatre of Effie Ellsler and the well known veteran actor, C. W. Couldock, is an event of more than common interest to the public. Miss Ellsler is among Salt Lake's favorite actresses, and as for Mr. Couldock, there is probably not a more popular actor of the good, old school before the public, at the present time.

"Hazel Kirke" will be presented tonight and tomorrow night and Saturday matinee. For Saturday evening, "Egypt" is announced.

Natural Gas and Oil Co.

With the clerk of the Third District Court, yesterday afternoon, were filed the articles of incorporation of the North Salt Lake Natural Gas and Oil company, which is organized for the purpose of boring for natural gas and oil, and conducting, storing, piping, refining and distributing the same, and dealing generally in the products of the business. The company has purchased all of L. P. Kimney's title to a tract of land in North Salt Lake, and is capitalized at $100,000, divided into shares of the denomination of $1 each. This stock is subscribed for as follows: S. L. Green, [illegible]; L. L. Armstrong, [illegible]; E. T. Eyer, [illegible]; J. A. [illegible]; J. J. Starbuck, [illegible]; W. G. [illegible]; H. T. The officers of the company are: S. L. Green, president; R. L. Armstrong, vice-president; A. T. Duke, treasurer and J. J. Starbuck, secretary.

Court Notes.

The transcript on appeal in the case of the Union Pacific vs. Isaac Christensen, administrator, has been transmitted to the Supreme Court of the United States.

In the case of J. W. Farrell vs. L. T. Knowlton, judgment has been entered for the plaintiff for $44.25 and costs.

Judgment for the plaintiff for $231 has been rendered in the case of the Hartford Coal and Furniture company vs. F. H. Marks & Co.

In the case of R. C. Armstrong vs. the Oregon Short Line et al., the defendant has been granted thirty days additional time in which to prepare and file a motion for a new trial.

In the case of Wallace P. O'Brien vs. Frank J. P[illegible], in which [illegible] Attorney [illegible] gave judgment for the plaintiff of $100 and costs, an appeal has been taken to the Third District Court.

Sarah Moore, the septuagenarian, who in Tuesday was adjudged guilty of committing a breach of the peace by throwing rocks upon her neighbors' lawn and in [illegible] language, has been well scolded by Justice Greenman and let off with a caution and the payment of costs.

The Parsees and the Dead Prince.

In connection with the expressions of sorrow evoked throughout all parts of our Indian empire by the sad death of the Duke of Clarence one of the most remarkable pathetic was the meeting of the Parsee residents of Bombay. The Parsees assembled the other day in the beautiful Wadia Fire temple under the presidency of Sir Jamsetjee Jejeebhoy, the well known Bombay millionaire and philanthropist. After prayers and references to the duty of loyalty to rulers as inculcated by the Zoroastrian theology and philosophy, the dastur, or Parsee high priest, observed that the fire that was kept burning in the center before the assembly was the emblem of the light of heaven, and before that fire they were all earnestly called upon to pray to the Almighty Ahura Mazda that he might grant a peaceful repose to the spirit of the royal prince in the eternal abode of paradise.

After invoking the archangels and angels to guard the prince's spirit from harm, the prayer specially composed by the dastur for the occasion ended with beseeching the continuance of the safety and prosperity that the Zoroastrian community enjoy under the rule of her Majesty the Queen-empress. All this is touching, characteristic as it is of the loyal and gracious spirit so constantly displayed by our Parsee friends in the [illegible] commercial metropolis.—Colonies and India.

A landowner at Wrightsboro recently split open a hollow maple log and found seven rabbits, besides twenty-six mice, all dead. There were three species in the collection—the long tailed or kangaroo mouse, the white bellied wood mouse and the common short tailed field mouse. The sleepers think they crowded up into the hollow in order to keep warm, and the hole through which they entered having closed up, they starved to death. How won't eat mice, evidently, although civilized men have been known to feed on one another under similar conditions.—Lewiston Journal.

I have been a great sufferer from catarrh for over ten years; had it very bad, could hardly breathe. Some nights I could not sleep and had to walk the floor. I purchased Ely's Cream Balm, and am using it freely, it is working a cure surely. I have advised several friends to use it, and with happy results in every case. It is the medicine above all others for catarrh, and it is worth its weight in gold. I thank God I have found a remedy I can use with safety and that does all that is claimed for it. It is curing my deafness.—B. W. Sperry, Hartford, Conn.

"I have just recovered from a second attack of the grip this year," says Mr. Jas. O. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days, against ten days for the first attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy, as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being 'struck' with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting 'down.'" 50 cent bottles for sale by Z. WHY THE DESERET NEWS SHOULD BE SUBSCRIBED FOR IN PREFERENCE TO ANY OTHER PAPER.

1. It is the Organ of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and the authorized medium through which the views, wishes and instructions of the Church Authorities are expressed, and given to the world.

2. It may always be relied upon as advocating or defending the right side of every question proper for public journals to treat upon.

3. It is devoted to the interests of the Latter-day Saints and has, from its inception, valiantly defended their rights and advocated the principles in which they believe, and every Latter-day Saint should therefore feel under obligations to do his part in helping to sustain it.

4. It is not published for speculation, and never has been, but for the good which it is capable of accomplishing, the profits, if any there be derived from it, being devoted to extending its sphere of usefulness, and benefiting the community.

5. It is doing its utmost to establish home industries, among which are paper making and type founding, stereotyping and electrotyping—branches necessary to the development and independence of the community, but which, during their infancy (which in this Territory they have not yet passed), can only be carried on at a pecuniary loss.

6. There is no danger of any subscriber to the NEWS failing to get what he subscribes for through failure of the business and a suspension of the publication—a result in the case of hundreds of newspaper ventures every year.

7. It is now printed throughout in new and readable type, so that even the aged can peruse it without difficulty or danger to their eyesight.

8. It is free from objectionable advertisements, so that no parent need fear that his children will have their minds corrupted from having access to it; in fact, it refuses thousands of dollars worth of the best paying advertisements annually, because it is devoted to the moral and spiritual interests of its readers instead of to getting gain at their expense.

9. Its tone is not regulated by public opinion nor the hope of gaining subscribers or advertisements. It advocates that which is right and condemns that which is wrong, regardless of results, financial or otherwise.

10. It never insults its readers by palming off columns of self-praise for news items.

11. The NEWS practices no deception and resorts to no subterfuges to induce people to subscribe, but on the contrary, prefers to stand on its own merits as the people's newspaper, with a promise only to do its utmost to give its patrons the full value of their money—a promise which it has endeavored to faithfully keep in the past.

12. In conclusion, if a Latter-day Saint can afford to subscribe for only one newspaper, that paper should be the DESERET NEWS, and if more than one, the NEWS should invariably be the first.
