To Sing Christmas Cantata—Unlicensed Painters Discharged—James Peterson Bound Over.

Ogden, June 13.—Engineer Campbell of the Southern Pacific, announced today that the plans for the Twenty-fourth street viaduct are completed and that construction work will commence as soon as material now on the road arrives. The construction will be 2,400 feet in length and will extend from Wall avenue almost to Weber river. It will do away with accidents, long waits and a general state of dissatisfaction which has existed between the railroad companies and the citizens of Weber county for years.

In addition to the erection of a viaduct the general arrangements of the track system in the yards will be altered and improved. Heavy rails will replace the light material now in use and move spurs and switches will be maintained in order that the handling of freight may be facilitated. Parts of this work are being materialized and the project is being well advanced to the point where it is under way of fulfillment.

The promoters of the enterprise have assumed that entire responsibility of the trip, and guarantee all the expenses so that a special train will carry the organization together with the soloists of Salt Lake that sing the leading parts. Sunday afternoon at 1:30 a special concert will be given for the benefit of children upon the arrival of the choir at Logan and a second rendition of the cantata will take place at 8:30. The invitation came solicited and is a flattering compliment to the ability of the choir.

PAINTERS DISCHARGED.
In the case of W. H. Luddington vs. Harry Herbig and C. D. Nangle Judge Murphy held today that a licensed painter had the right to sublet his work to any other painter. The case was brought before the court by the defendant, who claimed that the workmen need not be armed with individual licenses. The controversy was precipitated when Luddington had Herbig and Nangle over to the defendant's warehouse. Both were discharged.

It was shown that William Windward had sublet a contract to T. C. Morris, in whose employ the defendants were when apprehended.

JAMES PETERSON BOUND OVER.
Judge Murphy this morning bound James Peterson of Eden over to the district court on a statutory charge under a bond of $1,000.

ARRESTED FOR STEALING FLOWERS.
Alexander Mowrey was arrested this afternoon by Sergeant Charles Pincock on complaint of Joseph D. Wilcox, Scott and Joseph Carlson, whose flower beds he is alleged to have spoiled during the course of a week. Mowrey is lodged in the city jail and will be tried on a charge of vandalism.

The flash of a match revealed Mowrey to an occupant of the Clarke residence last night, as he bent over a choice rose bush in the morning. The number of beautiful flowers were missing and a description of the prisoner, together with a photograph, was sent into the police department. Scott and Carlson also complained of similar losses but were unable to give any definite information regarding the thief.

Mowrey admitted that he had on several times conducted nocturnal excursions into private gardens, but declared that he gave the blossoms to his friends and did not pick them for the vulgar uses of commercialism. One of his bouquets he presented to Charles Vander Vies, special officer, with a note wishing him good luck in business undertakings in this world. The bouquet was signed "A. Y. M." The bouquet was quite an elaborate arrangement of red roses, ferns and pampas grass.

NEPHI.
TRIAL OF BIG MINING CASE.
Grand Central vs. Mammoth Mining Company Suit for Damages.

Special Correspondence.
Nephi, Juab Co., June 12.—Monday was the time set here for the trial of the big suit of the Grand Central vs. the Mammoth Mining company, and a jury which was summoned for the trial of the case appeared, but were discharged upon the opening of the court when the attorneys in the case announced that they had agreed to waive a trial by jury and try the case before the court.

The counsel for the defendant then made a motion for a continuance on the ground that one of their important witnesses—Curtis L. Knight—was absent, and they had been unable to procure his presence, and also that Judge Zane, one of the counsel for the defendant, was unable to be present on account of the illness of his wife.

For two days testimony and arguments of counsel were heard upon this motion, when the court decided that the case would be continued till the 18th inst., upon the defendants paying the costs of the case up to date.

It will be remembered that this is the great apex suit that has been twice tried in this court. Each time it was decided in favor of the plaintiff, after which it was appealed to the supreme history of the school, which has been supported by the citizens of Beaver stake, and at the expiration of another year, the institution will pass into the control of the church as the contract under which it was established, between the Beaver stake and the church will have expired.

CHANGES IN FACULTY.
Principal Andrew B. Anderson has severed his connection with the school and Prof. Josiah E. Hickman has been appointed to succeed him. A number of changes are proposed, looking to the comfort of the students, which are fully concurred in by the stake authorities.

WILL HONOR JULY FOUR.
The celebration of the Fourth of July has been made the order of the day and a strong committee has been appointed to prepare for its proper observance.

On Sunday last the presidency of the stake visited Greenville ward, and held ward conference. Sunday school conference was also held on the same day; both were fairly well attended. The sheep wagon missionaries have been here for several days, preaching services have been held in the M. E. church. On Sunday night services were held in the L. D. S. meeting-house.

A commercial club is under consideration and a committee has been appointed to prepare necessary constitution and by-laws.

WILL CURE CONSUMPTION.

ART OF CROSS-EXAMINING.

"You say you know Mr. Sharp?"
"Yes, sir."
"You swear you know him?"
"Yes, sir."
"You mean that you are acquainted with Mr. Sharp?"
"Yes, sir."
"You don't know him; you are merely acquainted with him. Remember that you are on oath, sir. Now, be careful. You don't mean to tell the court that you know all about Mr. Sharp, and everything he ever did?"
"I suppose—"
"Never mind what you suppose; please answer my question. Do you or do you not know everything that Mr. Sharp did?"
"No."
"That is to say, you are not so well acquainted with him as you thought you were?"
"Yes, sir."
"Now we begin to understand each other. If you don't know anything about Mr. Sharp's acts when you are not with him, you can't swear that you know him, can you?"
"If you put it that way—"
"Come, sir, don't seek to evade my question. I will put it to you again. When you say you know Mr. Sharp, you don't mean to say you know everything he does?"
"No, sir, of course not. Then you were not quite correct, were you, when you said you knew Mr. Sharp?"
"No, sir."
"In point of fact, you don't know Mr. Sharp at all?"
"No, sir."
"Ah, I thought so. That'll do. Stand down!"—TIT-BITS.

PILGRIMAGE OF THE UTAH PIONEERS

SUNDAY, JUNE 13, 1847.
The Pioneers held a meeting in the camp circle and much good instruction was given by Heber C. Kimball and Orson Pratt, who were the speakers. The emigrants, whom the company had crossed over the river, continued their journey in the morning, and were followed a few hours later by the other party which had crossed about 11 miles below.

These two Missouri companies, who kept up a regular warfare between themselves on the route, were a surprise to the Pioneers. President Young, in speaking to the people of the camp, in one of their Sabbath meetings made this the subject of his discourse. He said of the two Missouri outfits, "They curse, swear, trip and tear, and are trying to swallow up the earth, but though they do not wish us to have a place upon it, the earth might as well open and swallow them up; for they will go to the land of forgetfulness; while the Saints, though they suffer some privations here, if faithful, will ultimately inherit the earth, and increase in power, dominion and glory."
