THE ANARCHIST RECORD.

One of the Clan Slashes Five Pittsburg Policemen.

Insanity of Counsel Tried, But the Sentence Is Not to be Disturbed Until Confirmed.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 15.—James Elbert, supposed to be an anarchist, created excitement this morning at three police-station houses by slashing five policemen with a razor. One of the officers, George McGuigan, had his face cut in a horrible manner and his condition is serious. The others, George Cole, James McKeray, W. E. Corsier and William Kenney, are badly but not seriously cut.

After cutting his way through the guard of fifteen policemen, Elbert attempted to escape by jumping thirty feet from a rear window. He was only pursued by the officers, while blood streamed from their wounds. After a chase of several squares, Officer Corsier brought him down with a bullet in the arm. The man fought desperately and had to be disarmed time manacled before he could be taken back to the station. Elbert now lies in the jail hospital in a precarious condition.

He has Anarchist. He had been working at the Armstrong cork factory, but was discharged on account of his anarchistic tendencies. He has threatened Armstrong's life, and was arrested because he insisted on raging around the factory.

GOLLIN'S TRIAL.

VERGES, Spain, Aug. 15.—Michael Angulino, alias Gollin, was tried here this morning by court-martial for the murder of Senor Canovas del Castillo at the baths of San Andreas on August 8th. The court consisted of a lieutenant colonel and six captains of artillery.

All the statements of Angulino were submitted in writing. The sentence of the court-martial will not be divulged until it has been confirmed by the supreme council of war.

The trial lasted two hours, the prosecution demanding that the extreme penalty be inflicted upon the accused. When called up to speak in his behalf in mitigation of punishment, the accused began a rambling statement but was not allowed to proceed.

SUICIDES DEPRESSED.

No Marching—Exercise of Anarchists Fomented a Strike.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 16.—A leading city and Mill slowly established to the feeling of depression which existed at the miners' camps at Turtle and Plum creeks today. The men huddled together for shelter under the compliments tents and, having nothing else to do, put in the time smoking and discussing the strike as all its phases. The spirit of aggressiveness, however, has totally died out. The same grim determination to stick it out until starvation brings defeat or victory is apparent, but there are no suggestions to assist their cause or go contrary to the sheriff's orders.

The men all realize that in opposing the law, as represented by the sheriff and his deputies, they would have about the same success as in butting their heads against a stone wall. They have no particular ire for the deputies, although there is an absence of that cousin rapture between the factions that is usual in such former strikes. There were no marches this morning.

This has been the usual Sunday custom at all the camps, but even if it had been otherwise, the strict order of all strike leaders to wait quietly until after Monday would have prevented them. Sunday has usually been used by the men to do missionary work among the working miners. None of them attempted to interfere with workmen, however, and kept severely away from the company houses.

The march into Westmoreland county will begin as soon as the injunction is settled in court. Mass meetings are proposed as to the outcome. The men stake everything on their ability to show the right to assemble and march on the public roads.

This afternoon there was a large mass meeting at Plum Creek.

At 11,000 strikers and 200 miners from the Plum Creek mines were present. Speeches were made by President Rudolph Schmidt, Samuel Gompers, James B. Severson and the local leaders. The meeting was orderly and there was no interference from the deputies.

There is a possibility of the customary march taking place in the early morning, in spite of the strict orders issued by President Pearce against such a course. None of the men are smiling under the restraint, and Capt. Bellingham, who is in charge of the camp, said tonight that he had not decided whether to allow the march or not. The deputies are on the alert and they will affirm say who may participate.

Evictions from company houses have begun. One family has already been evicted and their household goods are on the roadside near Center. It is probable that other evictions will take place tomorrow.

Q When you are sick and require the services of a physician do you get estimates from several and engage the lowest bidder?

A Not much. You consider the most skillful as being none too good; you even think not of price, but engage him.

A No. The "gilt edge" overland flyer none too swift and sure, if the fare IS a little more.

Q When about to engage in a lawsuit, do you procure bids from various lawyers, disregard ability and price, and engage the lowest bidder?

A No. You trust your case only in the hands of one you are sure will render you immediate and valuable service.

Q When you are seeking a good investment, do you select stocks and real estate for the least money, with little or no regard for value?

A No. You act wisely and invest only in such as are sure to produce the best results for your money.

Q When you are having printing done, is your method consistent with the answers given in the previous questions?

A No. You get prices from printers who do GOOD work and from those who do INFERIOR work and often accept the lowest bid.

AND RIGHT THERE IS WHERE YOU make your mistake. The best drawing card for businesses of all kinds is good printing; in all that the words imply. There is harmony between type, paper, ink and good workmanship that you should not disregard.
