MRS. LUCAS FOUND GUILTY.

In the police court before Justice Hall Mrs. Mary J. Lucas had her hearing on the charge of disturbing the peace, before his honor, and a jury consisting of Messrs. Stevens, Wheat, Moody and Clark. Mrs. Lucas was mixed up in the fracas between her husband and John M. Klenke. Mr. and Mrs. Klenke, Henry Klenke, M. Bell, Miss Woods, Mrs. Rockafeller and daughter Ada, Ralph Brown and James Davis, testified that on the day of the mix-up Mrs. Lucas pointed a pistol at Mrs. Klenke and told her "she would kill her if she did not shut up." Mrs. Lucas denied the charges as made by the other witnesses and said that she only took the gun away from Mr. Klenke and held it until the officer came. The case was argued by A. J. Clara Kopp Wrote for Mrs. Pinkham's Advice and Tells what it did for Her.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have seen so many letters from ladies who were cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies that I thought I would ask your advice in regard to my condition.

I have been doctoring for four years and have taken different patent medicines, but received very little benefit. I am troubled with backache, in fact my whole body aches, stomach feels sore, by spells get short of breath and am very nervous. Menstruation is very irregular with severe bearing down pains, cramps and backache. I hope to hear from you at once."—CLARA KOPP, Rockport, Ind., Sept. 27, 1898.

"I think it is my duty to write a letter to you in regard to what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. I wrote you some time ago, describing my symptoms and asking your advice, which you very kindly gave. I am now healthy and cannot begin to praise your remedy enough. I would say to all suffering women, 'Take Mrs. Pinkham's advice, for a woman best understands a woman's sufferings, and Mrs. Pinkham, from her vast experience in treating female ills, can give you advice that you can get from no other source.'"—CLARA KOPP, Rockport, Ind., April 13, 1899.

Special Correspondence.

Richfield, Sevier Co., May 23.—District court was in session for a short time yesterday. The motion to set aside the forfeiting of the bonds on the undertaking on appeal in the case of the city of Richfield vs C. R. Snowden on the grounds that the court had no jurisdiction to make the order because the appeal was afterwards dismissed; and because the defendant was at the time in the custody of the sheriff of Salt Lake county and therefore could not be delivered up by his bondsmen, was argued to considerable length and then overruled by the court.

Court has adjourned to June 21st.

Examination of the eighth grade pupils of the county was held at Richfield, Sanila and Glenwood on Monday and Tuesday. There are over forty applicants for graduation.

The Sabbath school of Richfield is arranging to celebrate the first of June, President Young's birthday, by an outing in the meadows near Prattville.

A VERY BRILLIANT LINE-UP

The Great Game Begins Promptly at 4 p. m., and May Possibly End Before Night.

At last, after weeks of arduous labor and much anxiety, the final arrangements for the star baseball game of the season, local or national, has been made, and the Salt Lake public will have a rare opportunity today. It is bound to be a great (?) game for it will be played as advertised. Should any of the spectators become bewildered and forget "where they are at" a glance at the score card will set them right again.

Today at 4 p. m. the famous Council nine and the B. P. O. Elks will meet on the diamond at Walker's park. Of course it is impossible to say whether the contest will be concluded this week or not, but a guarantee is given to patrons of the game that they will be satisfied. DECISION AGAINST FIGHTING.

Judge Murasky Says Athletic Clubs Cannot Promote Fistic Encounters.

A San Francisco, Cal., dispatch today says: In deciding the case of the Columbia Athletic club, which sought to restrain Chief of Police Sullivan from interfering with a proposed prize fight, on the ground that such exhibitions by an incorporated club are permitted by section 412 of the penal code of California, Superior Judge Murasky has pronounced that section unconstitutional. If this decision stands the test of appeal, an act of 1893, which makes prize fighting a felony and as punishment therefore a fine of from $1,000 to $5,000, or imprisonment for not less than one year nor more than three, will again be in effect in this State.
