

TELEGRAPHIC. TO FIGHT A DUEL.

Master Blackburne Thinking of Challenging Logan Carrille

FOR COMPARING HIM TO A NEGRO.

The Senator Mysterious Disappears and the Above Happ'ns to him Based on Their Facts.

DE. LOUIS, Oct. 6.—A special to the Deseret from Washington says: "Reports are in the air to the effect that Master Blackburne may challenge Logan Carrille to a duel. The reason of the latter's recent published card, to which it is believed it would be more natural to hold a joint debate on the constitutional question with a negro than with a white man, has not been disclosed.
The master has now disappeared, and the officials at headquarters are greatly annoyed at his failure to keep apprised. His departure is surmised to be due to the fact that he intends to return to his Blackness to meet with his friends preparatory to challenging Logan Carrille."

PRESIDENT AND CEAR.
CIVILIAN EXEMPTED BETWEEN FOURS.

PASS, Oct. 6.—One of the features of to-day in Paris has been the anti-slavery demonstrations which have occurred before the blossoming statue, which has been erected in the center of the Place de la Concorde to express the people's grief over the loss of Alsace and Lorraine. Crowds have gathered all day before the statue, calling their attention to the wrongs of the black "sons of Africa."

The state coach, bearing the embassy ambassador, traversed a route on the boulevard des Champs Elysées to the Tuilleries. At the entrance to that vehicle, the gloom was considerably increased. The crowd wore a color of deep black, a ribbon or heraldic emblem of the same color was draped over the side of the coach.

"The presence of your majesty is a guarantee of the safety of the population of the entire city, and the exemption of the entire population from military service," said the ambassador.

"As the interpreter of the entire nation, I assure you that we wishes us to the guardians of your reign, the happiness of your empire, and the empire, and the populations of the world, that no destiny rest in the hands of your majesty."

The day began as follows:

"In the early morning, when the sun rose in this great city of Paris Festival to imperious traditions, I have come to France to grow in you, Mr. President, in the hope of a comfortable life, and to live in peace and quiet. As you have said, this can but promise by its very nature, only the deepest respect and the most cordial interpretation of those sentiments in the whole of France."
