BIG CUT IN RATES TO ALASKA

Constitutionality of Anti-Trust Law in Illinois—New Packing Arrangement Brought to Death.

L. N. R. Ashmun has been substituted for George F. Moore as Republican candidate for congress from the Idaho District, Mr. Moore having declined to run.

Cornelius Watson, who was slightly injured in a railroad accident near Ogden, left the Mare Island navy yard and will take formal command today (Saturday).

J. Milne committed suicide at Thermopolis, Wyo., Wednesday, by taking prussic acid. The suicide lived at Kansas City and was a soldier for the Mormon Camera.

A row at Rock's lumber camp on the north fork of Boise river, Idaho, resulted in P. Jensen's being stabbed in the side. P. Jensen, a young giant, is left into the body of George Arnold, fatally cutting him.

F. Mason, an 8-year-old boy who enlisted in the First Washington volunteers without permission of his parents, has been discharged on habeas corpus by United States District Judge Hawley.

Alexander Gordon, official inspector of mines for the California Board of Mines, was accidentally killed today that the cage of Bonanza mines this year would not amount to more than half of the average. Pete.

There was a wreck on the Oregon Short Line Thursday night near Glenn's Ferry, Ida., in which three men were killed. Fireman Sullivan and Engineer John O'Malley were severely hurt. A boiling of mules caused a heavy train of 15 cars to run into O'Malley's engine which stood on a side track.

In spite of everything that has been said to the contrary, another person will be found for the arrest of Mrs. Hobbs for the murder of Mr. Dunning and Mrs. Dunning, and was not arraigned and tried in Delaware for her crime. The warrant will probably be issued on Monday.

It is reported that the Coalings Oil company of Fresno, Cal., has sold its interest in the oil wells in the Coalinga district to Eastern capitalists for $1,000,000. The only interest the company had in the district was a 10-year lease, but it is understood the new owners are growing lately that the price paid is not considered overdraft.

A Butte Miner dispatch from Great Falls says: Two men just arrived here from Lewistown of the murder of Forester McHaw, a sheepman of Musselshell, and a brother, and the theft of McHaw's sheep. The bodies were found near in a wagon and have not been found. The men who took them found Conner were shot down Mrs. McHaw's sheep and have been identified as Frank Conner. They are believed to be the murderers.

The Gunstock Senator will probably sell his land and leave Idaho shortly after next Tuesday. It is understood that the Third battalion of the Twenty-third infantry, which is now at Fort Sheridan, will be ordered to go, and it is not improbable that Gen. Miles and his headquarters may also be ordered to Idaho. Miles will be the senior officer of the regular troops and would succeed Gen. Merriam, who at present commands the Second brigade.

News received from Australia by the Warrimoo, sister ship of the Head Hunters, a cannibal tribe of the natives of Bougainville have of late been extremely active in the operation of their horrible custom, and a terrible atrocity was committed by them on the western portion of the protectorate. They captured a village, and, after slaughtering many of the inhabitants, stripped some with thirty prisoners. These thirty were killed and ate at a barbaric feast, given to the boat's crew in honor of their victory. One of the most notorious of the Head-hunting chief has since been captured by the Britisher.

The west-bound overland train was a couple of hours late in its arrival at Sacramento, Cal., Friday evening, owing to an accident a short distance east of Colfax. A defective wheel on a car which had passed over the road between Sacramento and Colfax, ten coaches of the passenger train to leave the track and fall on their sides. The only person injured was Commodore Watson, who came to take command of the Mare Island naval station. The commodore was thrown against a window and sustained a bright scalp cut.

The transport Valencia left Manila a few days after the departure of the China. The report that nothing of importance had happened in the Philippines up to the time of her sailing. The hot and dry weather was intense on and some of the army doctors were apprehensive lest the health of the troops in Manila near not be as good as during the previous rainy months. Several cases of malarial and typhoid fever had occurred, and the sickness was attributed to the bad water supply. The volunteer troops stationed at the Philippines are anxious to return, now that the war is over.

According to the San Francisco Call the Hawaiian Banking firm has just closed and arrangement with the United States government which will render unnecessary the reflectly contemplated shipment of $15,000 in silver bullion from Philadelphia to the mint in San Francisco. The Hollgrande it is authoritatively stated, has offered to take the bullion at a premium of 1 per cent, which is the highest dealer in silver bullion there. The proposition of the Hawaiians, which is understood to have been decided, is to present silver at the mint there and receive certificates therefor, which will be available for use in the place, thus saving the cost of transportation across the continent.

One of the heaviest cuts ever made in the rates from Chicago to Alaska points was made Friday, by the Pacific Express company, and the passenger traffic to Skagway, Juneau, Wrangell, and all other points on the route, is now $15 for those, and $18 second class. The cut is made to meet the cut of the Canadian Pacific, having Tacoma Wednesday, October 19th. The rates for the cut in the sailing of the City of Seattle next Wednesday. The Washington & Alaska Steamship company officials are unwilling to state what the rates will be on the City of Seattle, but it is probable they will meet the cut or at least make a rate of about $12 and $8.

The islands recently annexed by the British circular thousands in the name of Great Britain, are said to be the Duff, Cherry and Mitre groups. Mr. Moseley planted the British flag on the newest group. In her trip to the islands, she ran on a reef and was considerably damaged. The Duff group includes eleven islands all finally inhabited by cannibals and native traders. The Mitre group is another group of islands, and finally inhabited by cannibals and native traders. The islands are densely wooded and of great fertility. Mitre islands is uninhabited, but Cherry island lies between the Mitre and Duff. The same rule as the Tongatapu. The whole of the transpacific operations have been carried during the cruise of H. C. M. Broadback, the British resident in the Solomon group.

The island of Malaita or Mandy island, which has appeared on the charts since the beginning of the century, was described as a place by the steamer Mohawk when she passed the Santa Cruz islands. No island exists anywhere near the position assigned, and it is thought that that island, like Fraser island, also has sunk beneath the waves.

Mrs. Julia Vogel, a visionaire and medium, was found dead in her apartments on Camp street at lunear Pitt, day. She lay on the floor, face down, with a bullet in her head, was fully dressed her work, and there is no doubt that she had been attempted to death. There is no clue to the murderer, but the police believe that the deed was committed by the same who committed three murders on Market street in that city in 1891, shortly after those murders, Mrs. Vogel offered the police details that aliria had given her, while not in a trance, a description of the murderer, but the clues proved to be groundless. It is thought that the murderer of Mrs. Vogel either believed that she was a witness against him in the old robbery in "mirth," and decided to put her out of the way and possibly save himself from exposure. Mrs. Vogel has a brother and a sister, Andrew and Amanda J., who are living at 1021 North Broadway, St. Louis. Her husband is serving a term in the penitentiary for stealing bronzes.

The Nippon Yusen Kaisha steamer Tosashi Maru arrived at Seattle Friday with the largest cargo of the entire fleet ever brought to that port. She left Yokohama September 7th, and brings cheerful commercial news up to that date. Nearly 200 Chinese were docked on the ride in a trap on Japanese ground by the overturning of a crowded Canton passage boat in Kaei river. The Chinese were pilgrims returning from the shrine of Hiroshima, Chosshigi, and had been frightened away by a small fire, which they mistakenly thought was a signal for a general uprising. The boat was overwhelmed in the hold of the vessel, which was boom area to a small extent during the fire. The Canton, the merchant society sent a boat to the scene of the disaster and cut open the side of the vessel, which the bodies were taken. The Amoy-Canton train was totally wrecked on Feb 26 Feet and Four of her Chinese crew drowned. It was first believed Chinese and Mrs. Brockhurst had perished with them, but they were reached Yokohama shortly before the Tosashi Maru sailed that they were alive. The steamer Hongkong saved fourteen of the crew.

Garcia Budget.

Correspondence of the "News."

Colonia, Garcia, Mexico, Oct. 1.—The rainy season is over in this section and we are having our cool autumn, i. e., temperature days and pleasant nights in August when the fall season is at its height, a fire in the evening is indispensable to comfort.

The roads between the mountains and colonies and Juarez have been empty impassible on account of washouts, but a few days more and stages from Garcia and Pacheco have been repairing them for the last two weeks and they are now in pretty good condition.

Immense quantities of lumber are being hauled from Garcia to the colonies for new depot, dwelling and round house as well as for private parties. Lumber brings $28 per thousand here.

The farmers here are beginning to cut their hay and corn. Corn is yielding four to five bushels to good yield and potatoes do not seem to promise an average crop.

Deer are numerous in the pine woods all around us and venison steaks a delicious luxury. Hunting parties, including some government officials, are camped on the heights. The settlers hope they will rid us of some of the mountain lions which infest the woods and play havoc among the colts and young stock. The bears are not so numerous.

The bees with which we tried to raise domestic fowls has also learned that there are many wild decoys of the species who in to wit to decoy, necessitating good floored quarters for roosting purposes, and "natural vigilance" during the daytime. We invite spectators to come for hunting, though a certain pretty little animal with a wooden tail may make them lively for them if they don't look out.

The annual deer and turkey hunt among the young men of the colonies will be on in about a month.

Mexican independence day which falls on September 16th, was celebrated at Garcia with an appropriate program in the forenoon and dance in the afternoon and evening for the children and "grown-ups" respectively.

The teacher school have a program arranged for next Friday evening, promise to be very creditable, to be followed by a picnic and then a dance.

The general health of the people is good, though there have been quite a number of typhoid fever cases. Bishop Walton has had six of his children down with it and buried one. Little Joseph and Thomas. The sign of sickness in his family latter over a month ago, and the fever has been pointed of this month, the latter being now convalescing.

People moving from Utah to Mexico make always to come in the autumn, so as to get counseled before the cases set in.

Mr. John T. Lemon, agent of the Santa Fe route at El Paso, passed through Garcia with a few or three prospective settlers. They are looking a route for a new railroad into this country to come to tap the immense timber lands as well as the mines.

SARAH E. PEARSON.

A Desirable Country.

Ohio, Wayne County, Utah, September 30, 1898.

To the Editor:

On the 17th inst. we had a very enjoyable time in the shape of a Sunday school jubilee, held in our ward for the benefit as other of the surrounding wards. There were present of the Stake superintendency Joseph Ekerle and Alva Nebeker, also President W. E. Hinson, president of Wayne stake. The schools of the different wards and teachers were reported as being in a prosperous condition. It was a joyful practical sermon of the many great blessings advanced by Heaven. Eternity our school will certainly be benefited by the visit.

The following day, Sunday afternoon, Elder Hinson preached to the people, he seemed filled with the good spirit and blessings for all.

Our crops were late in consequence of so much difficulty in the spring and the frost came earlier than usually, hence we cannot boast of first-class crops; still I think we have reason to rejoice, for the Lord has blessed the labors of our hands. We need more people and the time is ripe for a forward rush, we have hoped and prayed and faithfully believed that we could see in the distance the much-needed help. We are wondering why so many people go to Canada, Mexico and other far away places and have a valley like this with the same advantages that we have undeveloped. The question was once asked me anything good come out of Nazareth? As a matter question is asked concerning Blue Valley. To those wanting homes, we invite them to come and see for themselves and if the fine fruits, vegetables, grain, etc., do not convince them that it is a good country, then we will ask, what more do they want? The facilities are such that industrious people can build up a home here. The prospects for employment and market for our products are slowly but surely improving. Some old prospectors claims and several new ones are being worked, both on the Henry and Miner's mountains; also some new experiments are being tried on the Colorado river. We have not had any floods this season, and the health of the people is good.

ANOTHER BRAIN WORKER.

Gives Experience in Coffee Drinking.

"My work (writing for papers and magazines) calls for such steady use of the brain cells, the many follow-workers that I became much badly affected at times, and memory felt a desire for some aid of stimulant.

"Coffee, then, was considerably, its effects finally became so apparent that I decided I must make a change for I would not allow the beneficial and creative environments that followed. Then came the question (unanswered) from the other members of the family, 'What shall we have for breakfast in the place of coffee for you of all people are very particular about your morning drink?'

MRS. MARY E. NORSTTH,
Milwaukee, Wis.

"We tried leaving off coffee, but for a morning or new the breakfast was not tempting.

"Postum Food Coffee was brought to my notice, and unfortunately, the first morning it was unknowing, I made it, and we had not at all satisfactory. I determined to look personally after its preparation, and after satisfying that the directions called for full fifteen minutes boiling after boiling hard, we commenced. I made the trial was, and there was none of the exclamations at the breakfast, 'What an improvement!' 'Why I never suffered from coffee!' 'What an exquisite flavor!' 'Delicious, delightful!' etc.

"The health of the children on my health was marked. The headaches and nervousness were gone, and to my great pleasure I found that the coffee imitation possessed the entire body. I was on the sick member of the family and I was called to the sick member who had suffered seriously with stomach trouble, was relieved entirely in a very short time.

"Perhaps you might be interested to know that there are several of our friends who have been already helped by the use of Postum. Mrs. Emma May said to be nearly crippled with nerves and sick headaches; Miss Addie Hicks was cured of stomach trouble; Miss Bessie Lowry suffered great, by from severe vitious attacks. All of these persons have been relieved or cured entirely and put in a fine condition of health by abandoning coffee (which evidently was a poison to each of them) and using the Postum Food Coffee.

"I am convinced that your claim that Postum furnishes the nutrition of plant which and albumen necessary to repair the delicate matter in the nerve cells, and that for my part, experience and that of my family and friends, gives every confidence in it."
