It is said that a large camp of people, mostly Yaqui Indians, was seen on Sunday at Palo Parado.—Nogales Herald.

Smuggling over the Mexican frontier has increased enormously since the increase of the tariff on cotton, eggs and horses, says an exchange.

It would that the California honey crop does not exceed this year 1,000,000 pounds. In 1889 it was 2,000,000 pounds.

Judge King, at San Antonio, Tex., has decided the Aransas Pass road must pay the debts, and the receivers were discharged.

W. H. Howell of Caribou, Boulder county, Colorado, last week sold his farm northeast of Caribou for $10,000, including his cattle, horses and farming implements.

A great prairie fire is reported in Rock county, Nebraska, and many families have been compelled to see fields, hives, wells and caves to save their lives.

Grand Island, Nebraska, produced 2,110,000 pounds of sugar this year on which the government bounty was $42,200 and the market price about $95,000.

A large and unanimous meeting of citizens has been held at Creede, Colo., to consider the formation of a bill for the legislature asking for a new county with Creede as the county seat.

President Santoro, of the agricultural College at Logan, has issued a circular announcing a winter course of lectures in that institution, to begin January 5th, and continue daily for ten weeks.

Lewiston (Mont.) Argus—The recent snow storm has proven a great benefit to the stock. Cold weather without snow would have given cattle and sheep men considerable anxiety.

Cattle are being shipped out of a southern county in Arizona at such a rapid rate that it is impossible for the shippers to obtain cars. Hundreds of cars are on the way and they have had to shut down until the rush of moving cattle is over.

David Gordon, an old-time Californian, well-known in mining circles in California and Nevada, committed suicide at Anaconda, Montana, on Saturday by hanging. He has a daughter living in Sacramento.

A telegram has been received at the Union Pacific passenger office at Denver from Snyder, eight miles out of the city on the Jaloustry branch, stating that wild geese are flying in great numbers, and sportsmen are bringing them down by the score.

At Belle, Montana, Attorney Stapleton, representing the counsel in the famous Dixie will case, has given notice of a motion to have a date fixed for a new trial in the case. The motion will come up for hearing Saturday, December 17.

A miner employed on the Durant, at Aspen, Colorado, was seriously injured on the evening of the 9th inst., by a falling rock, one leg being broken, a shoulder dislocated and several ugly bodies were sustained. It is thought that his injuries are not fatal.

Work will be commenced on the new bridges over Snake river in a few days. A 3,000-pound pile driver will be used in driving the piles. The piles are now on the ground and the bridge timber and frame is expected to arrive in a day or two.

Fred Molina of Wanship, met with quite a serious accident last week. He was working along with an ax over his shoulder when he slipped on some ice and in trying to recover himself the ax struck him on the back of the head and cut quite a gash. He came near bleeding to death.

Thomas Garn has injured his right hand quite severely at the Wasatch mine. While working in the new stope a rail became loose and came down toward him. He tried to escape from it, but did not succeed in getting his hand out of the way, and it was broken and cut quite a gash. He will be laid up for a short time.—Summit Chronicle.

At Snowflake, in Apache county, Arizona, James and Charles Fiske attempted to arrest James Taylor. Taylor killed James Fiske and wounded Charles, who in turn killed Taylor. Taylor was a desperado and recently robbed a bank at San Marcos, and was wanted at several places for crimes committed.

The Anchor is steadily sinking its big shaft and driving the long incline. The latter is now about 100 feet below the tunnel level while the latter is steadily exposing as fine a vein of free-ores ore as one would wish to see. In fact it is proving that the Anchor is a mine and that she will yet be one of the Park's big dividend payers.—Park City Record.

J. J. Hopper, who dislocated his knee last week at Park City, says the Record, is having a serious time of it. It seems his knee-cap has been out of place for some years and the ligaments and tendons have become so deformed that the recent dislocation has assumed a serious phase and the limb may have to be amputated.

The Coeur d'Alene Press says: It is the general opinion that the state agricultural college will be located at Idaho Falls in Bingham county. The enterprising citizens of that town some months ago purchased a section of school land from the state with the intention of offering it as a site for the school, and no other town is in a position to hold out greater inducements.

James Curry, a conductor on the Denver & Rio Grande railroad in the San Luis valley, has started a fine new orchard near Hesperus, New Mexico. He has set this year 300 grape, fifty plum, fifty cherry, 300 pear, 300 peach and 300 apple slips, besides a lot of small fruits which he will plant, and next spring he will put in 1,200 peach and 200 more apple trees.—Field and Farm.

Lewis Mashed of Spring City was before Justice Ford Clark Saturday to answer to a charge of assault and battery upon Andrew Roberts. Mashed went up to Roberts's house and accused the latter of stealing a few shingles. Roberts denied the act and words followed, when Mashed struck him, knocking him down and kicking one side of his face quite badly. Mashed plead guilty and was fined $20, as the value of the shingles exercise.—Manti Pioneer representative.

A New Mexico paper says: "Cattle on most of the ranges in southwestern New Mexico are looking better than stockmen thought they would a few weeks ago. The weather has been very mild and although cattle are dying by hundreds the prospect is better than it was a month ago for stockmen." Funny the cheerfulness of the news that although "cattle are dying by hundreds," the prospects are better for the stockmen. What is the cattle business coming to?

John Herrera, convicted of murder in the third degree at the present term of the district court at Las Vegas, New Mexico, but not yet sentenced, has made his escape from jail. The jailer was admitting friends of a fellow prisoner, when Herrera dashed past him and escaped through the open door. The escaped prisoner went direct to the residence of his brother on the outskirts of the town, secured a horse and, arming himself with a Winchester and two revolvers, fled to the mountains. Officers are in pursuit.

An accident happened at Ontario No. 3 mine in Park City, last week, says the Record in which Phil Tobin received eight injuries about the head and chest. Mr. Tobin was assisting Andrew Welch in making some repairs on the shaft cable, the cage being secured by some timbers six feet below the tunnel level, and was standing astride the cable. The clack suddenly ran out, and Phil was given quite a toss falling on his face. His head was cut and bruised and he complained of his chest hurting him. His wounds were dressed by Dr. LeCompte, who said there were no serious internal injuries.

A recent issue of the Lead Herald says: One of the finest and best equipped ranches in Wyoming, when completed, will be that one owned by Harry Tubin a few miles south of Lead. This week he received 47,000 feet of lumber from the east which he will use in building sheds. Some days ago he received several hundred feet of pipe to use in running the water from a dam which he built the fall into the house. We also understand he intends putting in a water ram and will cause the same to illuminate his residence and other outbuildings by using water power. Everything is being put in the apothecary and the ranch will be stocked with thoroughbred Merino sheep.

Rose Walter, assessor-elect of Ada County, Idaho, thinks that wonderful fatty tissues in fields have been discovered on the south side of the Snake river, east of Walter's ferry, and, accompanied by half a dozen friends, started for the scene of the reported bonanza to make locations. The discovery was made by a party of surveyors who were at work at the site of the proposed dam at the mouth of Bruneau river, in Owhee county. The surveyors, suspecting that the peculiar white stone might be valuable, sent a quantity of them to Portland for examination and were quickly assured that they had no series genuine diamonds. City Attorney Sweetser said that he had been assured that the formation of the ground in which the diamonds were embedded was of exactly the same nature as that of the famous Kimberly diamond mines in South Africa.—Denver News.
