H. H. BANCROFT LOSES.

The Conspiracy Suit of the History Company Fails to the Ground.

The suit of George R. Morrison against N. J. Stone and others was concluded before Judge Levy yesterday, says the San Francisco Chronicle of April 7th. Morrison alleges that Stone, while an officer of the Bancroft History company, disposed of the eastern agency and subscription department to another corporation known as the Pacific Publishing company. Morrison, as a stockholder in the History company, sued for $50,000 damages. H. H. Bancroft was also made a defendant, but it appeared on the trial that his interests were with the plaintiff.

At the close of the argument of counsel certain special questions were submitted to the jury. The jurors retired at 4 p.m., and returned about 7 p.m. with a verdict. They found that the sale by Stone was ratified by the board of directors of the History company; that the value of the stock of books sold to the Pacific Publishing company on January 7, 1893, was only $1762.48, and that the goodwill of the eastern agency at the same time was of no value. They also found that the demand made by the plaintiff on the company before the commencement of the suit was not made in good faith but in pursuance of an understanding with H. H. Bancroft. In conclusion, they found a general verdict for N. J. Stone, the defendant.

The NEWS has received the following letter:

WALLA WALLA, Washington, April 2nd, 1893.

Editor Deseret News:—Will you kindly inform me, at your earliest convenience, the address of Mr. James Lewis, who has been an Elder in the Church for a number of years? I have an important communication for him, and do not know where to address him. He is an elderly gentleman and a native of Wales. An early reply will be duly appreciated by yours very truly,

FRANK F. MULLER,
Walla Walla, Wash.

The editor of the NEWS knows no better means of obtaining the information asked than to publish this letter. Will the James Lewis who answers the above description communicate direct with Mr. Muller?

Home From a Mission.

Elder Joseph H. Denio, of St. Charles, Idaho, called at the NEWS office last evening, having just returned from a mission to the Pennsylvania conference of the Northwestern States mission, for which part of the world he left home on March 29, 1891.

The first nine months of his ministry were spent principally in Long Island. He made many friends in that section and left it with regret to labor in Wetzel county, West Virginia, where he remained until his release to return home. During the last six months Elder Denio acted as president of the Pennsylvania conference, having succeeded Elder H. F. Toomsa, of Spanish Fork, to that position. Elder Denio reports that the condition of the conference is better today than for some years. The people as a rule are very kind and the missionaries are doing good work among them.

I Would Be Dead

But For Hood's Sarsaparilla

A Wonderful Cure—Restored to Good Health

"Last winter I was in a very bad condition, my general health all run down. I grew thin, had no appetite, could not sleep more than five minutes at a time, and when I woke up I would have rather to my mouth. In the morning when I arose I would feel more tired than when I went to bed. I had a thumping sensation in the region of my heart. I cannot tell

How Miserable I Felt.

I was obliged to give up work entirely. My friends advised me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and I did so. I can now sleep the sixth hour, and can say that it has worked great for a wonderful cure. I have gained quite a lot, am able to work, sleep well and have a good appetite. W. MARSHALL.

Palpitation of the Heart.

I am happy now and in better health than I have been for years. I firmly believe that if it had not been for Hood's Sarsaparilla I would be dead to-day. It may not be worth mentioning but before taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I had paid two physicians sixty dollars for medicine, and Hood's Sarsaparilla gave me a new lease of life for less. W. MARSHALL, Commercial Hotel, Stockton, Cal.

Being-Beautiful

Is the least of being—that's all right for us hardware folks; we only think of being good and of how many nails we can give for a dollar. But with the women it is important to be too sweet for anything, and the MAJESTIC RANGE or RELIABLE GASOLINE STOVE will sweeten the temper of any woman. They too have wound their way into the hearts of many a housekeeper solely on their own merits.

They may not be as beautiful as some, but who looks for beauty in a range? It is quality and price that are looked for, and the Majestic Ranges and Reliable Gasoline Stoves possess both something never before found.

When not too busy drop in on us and we will tell you the little we know about steel ranges and gasoline stoves.
