GEORGE Q. CANNON,

EDITOR & PUBLISHER.

BREVITIES.

A gentleman having a pony that started and broke his wife's neck, a neighbor told him that he wanted to purchase it for his wife to ride upon. "No," says the other, "I will not sell the little fellow, because I intend to marry again."

Hearty old gentleman to dyspeptic friend—"Doesn't agree with you! Oh, I never let anything of that sort bother me. I always eat what I like, and drink what I like, and finish off with a good, stiff glass o' grog at bed time, and go fast asleep, an' let 'em fight it out 'mong themselves."

Take the white of four eggs and ten cents worth of quicksilver; put them into a bowl and beat to perfect froth. Take a feather and dip it into the preparation, and apply to every part of your bedstead where bugs conceal themselves; do this once a year and you will never see a bed bug in your house.

Anna Dickinson proposes, out of revenge, to horse-whip a certain Chicago man who had the audacity to propose marriage to her. We can suggest a more terrible vengeance.—Let Anna accept this offer, and that man will never leave off reproaching himself until she becomes a widow.

The Boston Herald says that there is a man residing in that county whose parents died several years ago, and their bodies were placed in a tomb. Not long ago it was decided to have them buried, and consequently their bodies were placed in a box and laid away in the grave, and the son took the boards that composed the coffins home with him to be used in patching up his barn.

Mrs. Stanton holds that women have too many children; they should not become mothers oftener than once in five years. "Quality," she says, "rather than quantity is what should be sought in our offspring. One-third of all children born are complete failures, yet society does not comprehend where the evil lies. I do not approve of polygamy, but think it less censurable than the practice of keeping mistresses by married men."

There is nothing which goes further towards placing young housekeepers beyond the reach of poverty, than a well designed system of economy in the management of their domestic affairs. It does not matter whether the man furnishes little or much for his family; if there is a leakage in his kitchen or the parlor, it runs away, he knows not how, and that demon, waste, cries 'more, more,' like the horseleech's daughter, until he that provided had no more to give.

"Dinna tell me," said a sapient Forfarshire laird of the old school—"dinna tell me that the earth's shapit like an orange, and that it whirls round about like a 'ours. It's a nonsense. Seddley hills lies to the north, an' the Tay to the south, at night when I gang to my bed; i' the morning, when I rise I find the same; an' thats nae proof that the earth turns round. I'll tell you what it is—an' I spake wi' the authority o' one wha's gien the subject a deal o' study—the earth's spread out just like a muckle barley-skone, in which the Howe o' Strathmore represents a muckle mark."

The Meridian Gazette is responsible for the following:

Sometimes the simplest remedies are the most effective. A friend tells us that three generations of his family have, by simply putting a small bit of bread into the butter on the table, been saved the nuisance of flies getting in the butter. Three or four days' experience of another friend assures us that the remedy is effective. He put a piece a quarter of an inch wide by two inches long in the butter, leaving the greater part projecting above the butter. It is queer, but the flies keep their feet off the butter.

Take of gum camphor a piece about one-third the size of an egg, and evaporate it by placing it in a tin vessel, holding it over a lamp or candle, taking care that it does not ignite. The smoke will soon fill the room, and expel the mosquitoes. One night I was terribly annoyed by them, when I thought of and tried the above, after which I never saw nor heard of them that night, and next morning there was not one to be found in the room, though the window had been left open all night.

Foolish spending is the father of poverty. Do not be ashamed of work. Work for the best salary or wages you can get, but work for half price rather than be idle. Be your own master, and do not let society and fashion swallow up your individuality. Do not eat up or wear out all you can earn. Compel the selfish body to spare something for profits saved. Be stingy to your own appetite, but merciful to others' necessities. Help others, and ask not help yourself. See that you are proud, but let your pride be of the right kind. Be too proud to give up without conquering every difficulty; too proud to wear a coat you cannot buy; too proud to be in company you cannot keep up with in expense; too proud to lie or steal or cheat; too proud to be stingy.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Relating to Banks.

WASHINGTON, 16.—The comptroller of currency has decided that national banks designated as depositories for the new loan, are not obliged to hold a reserve upon funds paid into the bank in subscriptions, but on loans deposited to the credit of the U. S. Government. This ruling is approved by Boutwell, but does not apply to any other government deposits.

Decision Reversed

On the 16th of March last, the late Commissioner Pleasanton decided that any writing, whether called receipt or otherwise, which contains a contract to continue in force any policy of insurance which has not expired, is exempt from stamp duty. Commissioner Douglas, on the 16th inst., in a letter to Collector Ames, Providence, reversed this decision, and holds that any written contract made in the form of a receipt or otherwise, which renews or continues a policy, requires the same stamp as the original policy, whether the renewal of receipt is given before or after the expiration of the policy.

NEW YORK.

Company responsible for the "Westfield" disaster.

NEW YORK, 16.—The coroner's jury on the recent Westfield explosion find that the accident was caused by a defective boiler and a careless engineer, and that the company are responsible for both. The coroner has issued a warrant for the arrest of the president and directors.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Election news.

WILMINGTON, 16.—Official returns from eighty three counties show a majority of 10,291 against the convention. There are seven counties to be heard from which will reduce the majority to about 9,400.

PACIFIC COAST DISPATCHES.

SAN FRANCISCO, 16.—A new Catholic school was opened in the Tenth Street Catholic Church to-day, under the management of Father Gallagher, the teachers being Sisters of Mercy. Quite a number of children who have been attending the public school have changed to the new school.

The Democratic Convention last night nominated W. C. Ford, A. L. Waugenheim, Thomas Carroll and William Hollis candidates for school directors. As four out of the six nominees are Catholics, the Protestant portion of the party are grumbling and threatening to bolt. Of the hold-over members five are Catholics.

The charge of embezzlement against Edward Allen was dismissed on payment of costs.

The British bark Conrad arrived this morning from Bankok, Siam, with a cargo of rice and tea.

Greenbacks are 89½.

SIERRA NEVADA, 16.—Overman, 6; Ellmore, 6¾; Seg. Belcher, 9; Mahogany, 12½; Ptoche, 11½; Kentuck, 114; Ophir, 28; Curry, 107; Savage, 37; Jacket, 45; Raymond and Ely, 21; Caledonia, 17; Eureka Con. 15; Choller, 33; Belcher, 232; Succor, 84; Chariot, 23.

John Hutchings was thrown from a butcher wagon on Bryant street this morning and sustained a fracture of the thigh.

FOREIGN NEWS.

ITALY.

Garibaldi ill.

FLORENCE, 16.—Garibaldi is very ill, and his son Riccotti has been summoned to his bedside at Caprera.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Accused of scuttling a ship.

LONDON, 16.—The statements of the New York newspapers in respect to the finances of that city are the subject of editorials in most of the journals.

The trial of Dobson, American, charged with scuttling an English ship, resulted to-day in a conviction. The accused will be condemned to-morrow.

Telegraphic communication is established with Japan. Messages have been sent from this city to Japan and answers received to-day.

Cholera Spreading.

In Konigsberg, Prussia, on the 14th inst., sixty-two persons were attacked by cholera and twenty-two died.

The Meeting of Emperors.

The meeting of the Emperors and their advisers at Gastein is generally regarded as a pledge of peace. The French pretend to be indifferent to the meeting and prognosticate an alliance between France and Russia.

PRUSSIA.

The German evacuation of France.

BERLIN, 16.—The Provincial Correspondence confirms the report that negotiations are pending for the complete evacuation of France, but affirms that the provocation offered to Germany by French newspapers, endangers the peace between the two countries. It adds if the French offers to make early payment of the indemnity are fulfilled, and there be no onward disturbance of peaceful relations, the withdrawal of the German forces from French territory will soon commence.

FRANCE.

French Presidency offered to D'Aumale.

PARIS, 16.—It is rumored that the right wing of the Assembly has offered the presidency of France to the Duke d'Aumale, and that he refused it.

Communist prisoners appear depressed.

VERSAILLES, 16.—The Assembly today re-elected Grevy President of the chamber. A proposition to draw up a constitution was rejected by the Assembly.

In the court-martial to-day, M. Lullier, denied that he had anything to do with the assassination of prisoners, or the incendiary acts of the commune, or that he had attempted to make himself dictator. The prisoners appear much depressed.

In a famous horse case in Binghamton, N.Y., the attorney asked a veterinary surgeon, "have you ever made any examination in the abnormal region?" To which the witness replied, No; all my examinations have been made in Broome county."
