BY TELEGRAPH.

PER WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH LINE.

Last Night's Dispatches.

FOREIGN.

TURKEY.

War Notes.

CONSTANTINOPLE, 7.—Mukhtar Pasha telegraphs the Porte, under date of Friday, as follows: To-day the bulk of the Russian forces fell back to the foot of Kamtoel, leaving only six battalions entrenched at Kabaka. They have thus abandoned their positions parallel with our lines. There is no trace of the enemy at Baldoran, Kizilyan or Oghuzlu, they having struck their camps. The enemy's losses during the three days' battle at Yanilar, Gulveran, and Aladjavdagh, is estimated at 10,000 killed and wounded; our losses are about 2,000.

The Grand Duke Michael commanded the Russians in person. Providence has happily frustrated the formidable plans of our enemies.

FRANCE.

Gambetta's Manifesto.

PARIS, 7.—Gambetta has issued a manifesto to the electors of the 20th arrondissement of Paris. In it he says: I confidently declare that France, despite the maneuvres against the freedom of her votes, will scorn official candidature and its agents, spurn royalists, Cesarists and clericalists, with knaves and partisans of violence. She will condemn the dictatorial policy and leave the chief of the executive power, who is transformed into a plebiscitary candidate, no alternative but to submit or resign. We, ourselves, sure of the support of the country, shall know how to make its will prevail over a powerless and incorrigible minority. The union of all good Frenchmen will keep us discreet and render us invincible for the country and republic.

The conservative papers strongly censure Gambetta's manifesto, some declaring that the real crisis has now commenced. The republican papers warmly praise the manifesto.

To be Prosecuted.

The Francaise announces that government has ordered the prosecution of Gambetta for his manifesto.

Tranquility Prevails.

Perfect tranquility prevails. The republicans are too confident of success at the elections to be enticed into any demonstration.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Eastern War News.

LONDON, 7.—A Constantinople dispatch says Achmet Eyoub Refat Pasho, late chief of staff, two brigadiers, and several superior officers are to be tried. Eyoub Refat is charged with disobedience in having refused to obey Mehemet Ali's order to advance.

The Porte has seized a Greek vessel entering the Gulf of Orta with arms and ammunition. Greece has demanded her restoration.

General Hazen, United States military attache at Vienna, has arrived at Bucharest. He will proceed to Bulgaria immediately.

There is already two feet of snow in the Schipka Pass. The troops are obliged to sit on the frozen trenches, ankle deep in mud.

A correspondent before Plevna telegraphs, on Wednesday, that the Grand Duke Nicholas' interpreter, who was sent into Plevna with a flag of truce, was personally received by Osman Pasha. This reception was granted in answer to a sealed letter from the Grand Duke. Though the interview was thought to be only about the burial of the dead, it creates considerable interest.

A Vienna special says, the Constantinople authorities merely intend that Raouf Pasha shall retain enough troops at Schipka to maintain the defensive. All the reserves collected in Roumelia have been sent across the Balkans to a new position which the Turks seem to be preparing at Orchanie for Osman Pasha to fall back upon should he be obliged to leave Plevna. The only question is whether he will be able to do so. The massing of the Russian guards in the rear of the line at Plevna, looks very much as if the Muscovites were preparing to effectually close the communication of Plevna by sending a large force across the Vid to the rear of the Turkish position.

A special from Poradin says, General Gourko has been appointed to the command of the Russian cavalry in rear of Plevna.

World Exhibition,

1876.

MASON & HAMLIN CABINET ORGANS

Unanimously assigned the

"FIRST RANK

IN THE

"SEVERAL REQUISITES"

of such Instruments!

The MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO. have the honor to announce that the Organs of their manufacture have been unanimously assigned "the FIRST RANK in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of instruments of the class" by the Judges at the CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION at Philadelphia, 1876, and are the ONLY INSTRUMENTS OF THIS GENERAL CLASS AWARDED THIS RANK. This is after the severest competition by the best makers, before one of the most competent juries ever assembled.

They have also received the MEDAL, but, as is well known, medals of equal merit have been awarded all articles deemed worthy of recognition; so thus it will be easy for many makers to advertise that they have received "first medals."

The differences in competing articles, and their comparative excellence, are recognized in the Reports of the Judges from which the following is an extract:—

"THE MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO.'S exhibit of Reed Organs and Harmoniums shows instruments of the FIRST RANK IN THE SEVERAL REQUISITES OF INSTRUMENTS OF THE CLASS, viz: Smoothness and equal distribution of tone, scope of expression, resonance and singing quality, freedom and quickness in action of keys and bellows, with thoroughness of workmanship, combined with simplicity of action."

(Signed by all the Judges.)

The Mason and Hamlin Organs are thus declared to rank first, not in one or two respects only, but in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of such instruments, and they are the Only ones assigned this rank. This triumph was not unexpected, for the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs have uniformly been awarded the highest honors in competitions in America, there having been scarcely six exceptions in hundreds of competitions. They were awarded highest honors and
