HILL'S EXAMINATION.

He is Before a Commissioner on a Charge of Embezzlement.

Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock the preliminary hearing of O. E. Hill, cashier of the Commercial National bank, was commenced before Commissioner Gideon. There were present a number of attorneys and prominent citizens. Mrs. Hill, with her pale, sad countenance, plainly indicating what she must have suffered during the past few days, was the only lady present during the examination. She sat immediately behind her husband's chair, listening attentively to all that was said. The prosecution was conducted by United States District Attorney Judd and Assistant District Attorney Maginnis, while Captain Ransford Smith represented the defendant.

J. C. Armstrong, president of the bank, was first put on the witness stand. His testimony was in effect that Hill's statement, made on Saturday morning, of the previous day's business, was wrong. The following is a summary of the report: Cash on hand $28,981.11; due from other banks $44,161.35; due other banks $2,700.76. On examination of the affairs of the bank it was discovered that but $6,669.29 in cash was on hand, including the deposits made up to 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, against $20,981.11 which Hill's statement showed; and instead of $44,161.35 being due from other banks it was found that the Commercial owed $19,000.00.

L. B. Adams, cashier of the Utah National bank; H. H. Kalapp, cashier of the Utah Loan & Trust Co. bank; Thomas A. Whalen and A. R. Heywood, directors of the Commercial; Mr. Taylor, teller, and C. J. Currier, bookkeeper of the Commercial bank, were all placed on the witness stand. The important facts brought out by the examination of these gentlemen were that Hill had confessed to there being a shortage; that he had full control of all monies in the bank, and that he had no authority for making loans without the knowledge and consent of the executive committee. Adjourned until today.

The Silver Meeting.

The meeting held last night at Lester Park pavilion, in the interest of silver, was a very enthusiastic one. Speeches were made by Messrs. Macmillan, Leonard, Pattee, Rhoads, Weber, Rich and Farrell. E. R. Ridgely was appointed as delegate to represent Weber county at Denver, St. Louis and Chicago.

Bound Over.

Robert Adams, the rapist, was held by Commissioner Holanski to await the action of the grand jury in the sum of $1000. In the absence of bondsmen he will be taken to the penitentiary today.

Notes.

John Sharkey and Gus Wilcox, the fellows charged with stealing from the gas well, were yesterday discharged by Commissioner Turner, the evidence not being sufficient to hold them.

Professor Loisette yesterday commenced his class in memory training at the New West academy. Some of the best people of the city are members.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - JULY 11, 1893.

TO BOND THE DISTRICT.

The Provo Board of Education Calls an Election.

At last night's session of the board of education, a resolution was unanimously adopted providing for the bonding question to be submitted to the people. The sum of $15,000 is asked for, and as a reason, the $5,110.82 indebtedness of the board for building and furnishing the Timpanogos school, the necessity of several of the school buildings being repaired and additional school room being required, are given. The election is to be held Tuesday, July 25th, between the hours of 2 p. m. and 7 p. m. Judges of election were appointed and polling places established.

At present popular opinion does not seem to be in favor of bonding. The board are not unanimously in favor of it and hence submit the proposition without recommendation.

Arrested for Forgery.

In response to a telegram received from Sheriff Belnap of Ogden, Marshal Brown last night arrested one Dan McDonald, charged with forgery. McDonald had a number of blank checks on his person when arrested.

Notes and Personals.

It is reported that the semi-weekly Dispatch will continue to issue for a time until a number of advertising contracts are filled.

Sister Elsie Booth of Alpine has passed to another sphere of action. The funeral services over the earthly remains will be held at Alpine on Thursday at 2 p. m. Sister Booth was a faithful Latter-day Saint and an earnest worker for Zion. She was the author of the Temple chant rendered at the dedication of the Salt Lake Temple by the Utah Stake choir. A number of grown sons and daughters, among them Hon. John E. Booth of this city, are left to mourn her demise.

B. Bachman Jr. this morning stepped out of the office of clerk of the First district court, D. H. Peery Jr. of Ogden succeeding him. Mr. Peery has appointed as his deputies Mr. Higginbotham of Ogden and Ben Thurman of this city.

WHY THE DESERET NEWS SHOULD BE SUBSCRIBED FOR IN PREFERENCE TO ANY OTHER PAPER.

1.—It is the organ of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and the authorized medium through which the views, wishes and instructions of the Church Authorities are expressed and given to the Saints.

2.—It may always be relied upon as advocating or defending the right side of every question proper for public journals to treat upon.

3.—It is devoted to the interests of the Latter-day Saints, and has, from its inception, valiantly defended their rights and advocated the principles in which they believe; and every Latter-day Saint should therefore feel under obligations to do his part in helping to sustain it.

4.—It is not published for speculation, and never has been, but for the good which it is capable of accomplishing; the profits, if any there be derived from it, being devoted to extending its sphere of usefulness and benefiting the community.

5.—It is doing its utmost to establish home industries, among which are paper making and type-founding, stereotyping and electroplating—branches necessary to the development and independence of the community, but which, during their infancy (which in this Territory they have not yet passed), can only be carried on at a pecuniary loss.

6.—There is no danger of any subscriber to the NEWS failing to get what he subscribes for through failure of the business and a suspension of the publication—a result in the case of hundreds of newspaper ventures every year.

7.—It is printed in readable type, so that even the aged can peruse it without difficulty or danger to their eyesight.

8.—It is free from objectionable advertisements, so that no parent need fear that his children will have their minds corrupted from having access to it; in fact, it refuses thousands of dollars worth of the best paying advertisements annually, because it is devoted to the moral and spiritual interests of its readers instead of to getting gain at their expense.

9.—Its tone is not regulated by public opinion nor the hope of gaining subscribers or advertisements. It advocates that which is right and condemns that which is wrong, regardless of results, financial or otherwise.

10.—It never nauseates its readers by padding out columns of self-praise for news items.

11.—The NEWS practices no deception and resorts to no subterfuges to induce people to subscribe; but on the contrary, prefers to stand on its own merits, as the people's newspaper, with a promise only to do its utmost to give its patrons the full value of their money—a promise which it has endeavored to faithfully keep in the past.

12.—In conclusion, if a Latter-day Saint can afford to subscribe for only one newspaper, that paper should be the DESERET NEWS, and if more than one, the NEWS should invariably be the first.
