Steps are being taken towards the establishment of a fire department at Ogden, Utah.

The Troy Laundry company of Denver has incorporated with a capital stock of $50,000.

Trinidad, Colo., is organizing a board of marshals for the purpose of keeping the town clear of gamblers.

An attempt to cut down the Butte yellow fever from thirty-six to twenty-four hours has been resorted by the Butte yellow commissioners. The Helena yellow fever scourge is only too real.

Boulder, Colo., is rejoicing over the prospect of a handsome Masonic temple and opera house. Arrangements have been made to float bonds amounting to $75,000 and the work will be early commenced on the building.

The mail carrier and pilot who conveyed Mr. J. J. Quinn at Leadville, Colo., turned in the gratuity to Santa Claus. The building was a two-story frame. A few sacks of papers, cases and paints, valued at $2,000, was a total loss. Fully insured.

Thomas Orr, 85 years old, was a California pioneer of 1850, died at Lincoln Springs, El Dorado county, a few days ago. He came to New York from Scotland to Dixy Grove in Illinois and finally to Utah, where he was for a time before coming here. He was buried at Placerville, Cal.

A quicksilver fire blazed in Salt Lake City, John H. and Thomas Henderson near Bingham, about twenty-five miles from Eureka, Utah. They have a fine lode and, when they get to place no an 800,000 pounds ton, "There is nothing more probable than a wild stocks from Utah.

Governor Merriam, of Washington, has offered a reward of $500 for the arrest of Samuel H. Hart, president of the Hart Bank of Hockam, who disappeared a week ago, leaving a wrecking of $50,000. It is reported that he has Western Eye other banks during the career.

An inquest has been held at Colorado Springs on the body of Oscar N. Bill, who died in Colorado city from opium. It seems that Bill came to his death from the effects of smoking opium, accidentally and intentionally said to Kim Yock, a Chinaman, at the sale of Chinaman's shop on November 23 in 1893. The Chinaman has been arrested.

The grand jury at Glenwood Springs, Colo., have got through a long session and returned their reports. Indictments are reported against the managers of all the hotels in the city for non-compliance with the laws in relation to fire escapes. A. W. Dennis, ex-mayor of Glenwood Springs, and P. H. Fitzpatrick, late sheriff of Garfield, were both indicted for alleged frauds at election day.

In South Weber bay is a scarce article, save the Davis county trigger. Some parties are hauling hay from Morgan, and others are slaughtering some of their animals "to save their cows," that is, to keep them from starving this winter. This might do for the present, but don't be in a hurry, for cattle is not going to fall away has been worse on sheep" facts, as some Republicans are trying to stick for safe keeping under Democratic rule.

A prisoner named Brighton, serving out his six months in the county jail for smuggling opium, committed suicide in his cell at the county jail, Colorado, by cutting his throat with a razor. He was the fourth prisoner who has committed suicide in the jail within a few years. He shaved off his mustache, then, placing a stick that to catch the blood, cut his throat from ear to ear. He was deranged because the court did not let him go free, as he expected.

A terrific explosion of giant powder occurred at the Dock Dunne, Louisville, Colo., at an early hour on Saturday morning, but, strange only enough, no one was killed. Edward Wilson, a miner employed at the Monitor, Andrews, of a Midland freight crew, were both badly injured. Several others were slightly bruised and have returned to work. The company has what is known as a hawing house, where they keep the giant powder needed for immediate use.

Hor Sher, the Chinese procuress, for whose arrest and conviction a reward of $500 was offered by the Six Companies, has been captured in Chinatown at San Francisco, and locked up in the city prison. The woman, who sometimes goes by the name of Hor Ah Kim, is a great old hag and has been long in the business of selling young Chinese girls into slavery. The crime for which she was arrested was the illegal landing of a young girl whom she entered away from her home in the Orient.

The death has just occurred, at San Francisco, of Edward Harrel, the mining man and railroad engineer, whose name has been prominently before the public in connection with California and Nevada enterprises for over thirty years, and who has been a resident of San Francisco for over forty years. The deceased landed in California, at the age of twenty, with 10 cents. He died worth probably $2,000,000. His property consists largely of valuable real estate here, various bonded and bank stock and a magnificent ranch of several hundred acres at San Mateo which was his country home. He was 63 years old, and leaves a wife and family.

Says the Los Angeles Herald: George H. Buckingham was yesterday wounded by an immense bald eagle in the Cucamonga pass and he might have been badly injured had it not been for a lucky shot. The eagle became within a fraction of an ounce weight but from tip to tip near two feet and talons that would prove safe weapons in a close struggle. Mr. Buckingham was seated upon a bowlder resting, having been hunting in the pass. His shotgun was across his lap. He had been sitting down for a few minutes when he heard a rushing sound. Startled by it he looked around in different directions. Finally he gave was attracted by a rapidly moving dark mass almost above him. It was coming straight towards him at an angle of about 45 degrees, and when he caught sight of it was only thirty or forty feet, as near as he could judge, from him. Without pausing to reflect he took aim at the object, and the bird came down dead within four feet of him.

Why Kids Should Be Good Boys.

Mormons who are married and purely natural in their ways. They have not gone in the sky and they are never caught there, so that their production and preservation should be in the hands of those who are of deeply interested in making them a useful community. Rather all the more good to your children for the spectacle, the village gossiping spends in the neighborhood on which he lives. If there is a fault worse in all the big bad nation, it will, souls forbid.—Fishing Gazette.
