FOR CURRENCY REFORM.

Secretary Carlisle Before the House Committee on Banking.

The Difference Between the Baltimore Plan and the Scheme Now Proposed.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Secretary Carlisle appeared before the House committee on banking and currency today, to present in detail the features of the new currency plan proposed in his annual report and outlined in the President's message. Besides the full membership of the committee, Senor Romero, the Mexican minister, and many members of Congress were present.

Carlisle took up each section of his recommendations, first—the repeal of all laws requiring or authorizing the deposit of United States bonds as securities for circulation, and, second—to permit national banks to issue notes to an amount not exceeding 75 per cent of their paid-up and unimpaired capital, but to require each bank before issuing notes, to deposit a guarantee fund consisting of United States legal tender notes, increasing treasury notes of 1890 to the amount of 30 per cent of the circulating notes applied for.

Carlisle explained the technical difference between his and the Baltimore plan. The latter proposed a deposit of 10 per cent under certain conditions, while the treasury plan proposed a deposit of 30 per cent. When the time falls the treasury plan contemplates an assessment on all national banks, they in turn having a lien on the failed bank.

Representative Hall (Mo.) suggested that there was a prevailing opinion that it was unsafe to place the power of currency in the hands of corporations and banks.

"It will work automatically," said Carlisle. "The banks will not expand the currency unless the public need it. Their interest will be to expand and contract as common interest demands it. Those interests will, therefore, control at all times."

Comptroller of Currency Eckels appeared before the committee and made an elaborate statement. He contended that national banking laws were not to be lightly dealt with and should not be altered unless it was absolutely known that the change would be beneficial.

Opposition Steamship Line.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—A special to a morning paper from Valparaiso, Chile, says:

A plan is on foot in Guatemala to establish a line of steamers to run in opposition to the Pacific Mail steamships in connection with the Tehuantepec road, the steamers to ply between Salina Cruz and Panama.

THE DIPHTHERIA CURE.

Preparation for the Culture of the Serum at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Dec. 10.—The city health authorities have inaugurated preparations for the culture and distribution of the new anti-diphtheria serum, under the direction of Captain H. C. Ewing, surgeon of the United States army, Health Commissioner George Homan de Arnaut Rivalz, bacteriologist of the medical department of Washington university and the superintendent of quarantine, Dr. Joseph Hardy. Four horses have been inoculated with toxine and within four months are expected to be inoculated, when distribution of the serum will begin. In addition test tubes and Loffiers serum are to be distributed at accessible points so that physicians in doubt as to throat cases under their care can place germs therein promptly and forward them to the city chemist who will then put them in a propagate and study the germs as they grow and determine their character.

Signed by the Emperor.

BUDA PESTH, Dec. 10.—Emperor Francis Joseph today sanctioned the secularization bills.

NOW FOR PEKIN.

An Early Advance Contemplated by the Japs.

YOKOHAMA, Dec. 10.—The victories won by the Japanese armies were celebrated with great enthusiasm in Tokio yesterday.

One hundred and fifty Japanese who were wounded in the battle at Port Arthur have arrived at Hiroshima. It is expected that an attack will be made on Foo Chow shortly. The second army will make an early advance towards Pekin. The government is contracting for a force of 8,000 coolies to accompany the troops on the march to Pekin.

SALVINI EXPLAINS.

He is Charged with Assault But Denies the Story.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 10.—Alexander Salvini, who is now playing an engagement in this city, says that the sensational stories from the East regarding a pretended assault by him upon Louise Starr, a member of his company, is outrageously false. Miss Starr sued him to recover $10,000 damages for personal injuries inflicted by a wine glass, which she charged Salvini threw in her face with intent to injure her. The suit was filed in the United States district court at St. Paul, Minn., where the injuries were inflicted, during the actor's appearance there last October. It has been commenced on the grounds that the complainant, who brought the action in her own person, is a minor.

Salvini believes, however, that a new complaint will be filed. He says the throwing of the wine glass is a part of "The Three Musketeers," but that the breaking of the glass and cutting of Miss Starr's face was purely accidental. Salvini gave her $50 as a douceur and received her receipt in full for all claims. Louise Starr is a fictitious name assumed by this St. Paul girl, who was a theatrical substitute.

INFERIOR OIL.

Complaint in Germany as to the Quality of the Standard Product.

BERLIN, Dec. 10.—The government has instructed the Hamburg chamber of commerce to inquire into the complaint of inferior quality of the recent importations of petroleum by the Standard Oil company. It is stated the Pennsylvania oil fields are exhausted and the oil recently imported came from Indiana and Ohio.

In the Interest of Bondholders.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—George H. Sheldon, Robert McLay, Charles T. Barney and Simon Wormser have agreed to act as a committee under an agreement filed with the Knickerbocker Trust company, to protect the interests of the Northern Pacific and Montana bondholders.

OIL AND SUGAR.

The Standard People Said to Control the Sugar Stocks.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—A story is told here that the Standard Oil people have practically bought the control of the sugar stock and that this influenced the retention of the 5 per cent dividend last week and prevented the publication of the statement intended to be given out by the directors.

German Minister Resigns.

BERLIN, Dec. 10.—Freiherr Von Berlepsch, minister of commerce, has tendered his resignation, owing to the fact that the ministry rejected the bills he drafted.

THE CAPTAIN'S FAULT.

Loss of a Steamship and Many Lives Thereby Believed.

AUCKLAND, N. Z., Dec. 10.—The report is largely but found that the steamship Waitapu, bound from Sydney, N. S. W., to this port, and which was wrecked on the night of October 28 on Great Barrier Island, with a loss of over eighty lives, was lost through the fault of Captain McLeod, who was among the dead. The court found that the lead drill on board the steamship was a farce and the crew failed to do all which might have been expected of seamen in such an emergency.

"One Mary's" Baby.

LONDON, Dec. 10.—Mrs. Mary Anderson Navarro, the well known American actress, was delivered of a son last Friday. The child died the same day.

WILL BE CONTESTED.

An Error in the Sorrepting Provision of the Appropriation Bill.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Representative Wilson, of Washington, which state is most seriously injured by a clerical error in the surrepting provision of the sundry appropriation bill last session, has obtained from Chairman Bayne a promise that the error will be corrected in the next bill. Several western states are interested in the surveys affected by the error.

Loaded in Jail.

NEVADA, Cal., Dec. 10.—Bill Gray, alias George Lamy, the notorious outlaw and the man wanted by the Meagher county, Montana, authorities for the murder of William Haider and James Mackey in May, 1893, has been safely landed in jail by sheriff Hostetough, of Mojave county, Arizona.

The Worst Storm in Years.

CARSON, Nev., Dec. 10.—Snow, sleet and wind have caused the worst storm in years. The snow is badly drifted on the Virginia and Truckee railroad and wires are down. Two score poles were derailed and all wires are down.

Will Contest Budd's Election.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 10.—The Republicans have definitely decided to contest the election of James H. Budd for governor. The Supreme court will be asked today to grant a writ of mandate compelling the election commissioners to ignore the contested returns without considering these disputed figures upon which Budd's majority depends, and in connection with which the Republican state central committee alleges fraud. This is the first time in the history of California that even preliminary steps have been taken for an attack upon the official returns in the gubernatorial race.

Miss Mary Wommack.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 10.—Miss Mary Wommack, whose strange escapade in scattering coin on the streets of New York, resulted in her arrest, is well known in San Francisco. Her career here was brief but brilliant. She had many friends among club men, and there was much scandal in connection with her name. Miss Wommack gave up her flat to take apartments in the Pleasanton family hotel of the best standing. Finally the proprietor of the Pleasanton informed Miss Wommack that her rooms had been rented. The clothing widow then went to Los Angeles and soon afterwards to San Diego. She left California to attend the World's Fair. She did not return, but was seen by her Frisco friends at Newport and New York.

THE BURGLER WELPS.

Blair, Having Confessed, Says He is Anxious to Die.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 10.—Claus A. Blair, the confessed murderer of Catherine Gieg, is a pitiable object today. He weeps continually and says he wants to die. He says Harry Hayward controlled him, as he did Alice Gieg, by hypnotic power. A large crowd assembled in front of the municipal court today, expecting Blair to be arraigned, and numerous mutterings were heard. It was decided that Blair be taken directly before the grand jury. After reading Blair's confession in today's paper, Hayward said the story was a tissue concocted by some new hoax.

LABOR CONVENTION.

Delegates of Workingmen Meet at Denver.

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 10.—The fourteenth annual convention of the Colorado Workmen's Federation of Labor was called to order by President Gompers at 10 o'clock today. There were 125 delegates present. President Rhody Kelcher, of the Denver Trades assembly, delivered an address of welcome, to which Gompers briefly responded.

Gompers spoke feelingly of the almost desperate condition of labor at the present time. Referring to the innovation of holding this convention so far west as Denver, he suggested that within a decade the westward movement of industry might take the convention of association to the Golden gate.

John Burns, English labor leader, entered the hall and was greeted with a storm of applause.

Thomas M. Patterson, of Denver, delivered an address on "Labor's rough and noble struggle." His discussion of industrial conditions past and present was received with frequent applause. One of the examples in the situation from the past he attributed to the increase of corporations. He said, while the individual employer might feel sympathy for his employes, a corporation could entertain no such sentiment. The action of the Pullman company in the Pullman strike was denounced as tyranny. The General Managers' association, he said, should have been held responsible for the delays of the mails. Capital controlled the legislature, either by influencing the elections or by purchasing the members of the national and state legislatures.

The convention adjourned till 2 o'clock.

ANXIETY IN CONSTANTINOPLE.

Diplomatic Relations Suspended on Account of the Armenian Trouble.

VIENNA, Dec. 10.—All foreign diplomatic relations at Constantinople have been suspended on account of the exchange of views between the representatives of Great Britain and other powers now proceeding with a view of taking joint action on the Armenian question. The Porte is very anxious at this turn of affairs. The Turkish ministry sources by Kiamil Bey and Cheikh pasha, met unanimously from noon on Saturday until noon yesterday.

PANIC AT ST. JOHNS.

A Bank Fails and Several Houses are Crippled.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Dec. 10.—The Commercial Bank of New Foundland, having headquarters in this city, suspended payment this morning, owing to the failure of several of the largest fish exporting houses to remount to the liabilities of the bank. This has severed other banks and has crippled some of the largest creditors here. Four have closed their premises and others will close tomorrow. Small depositors are demanding gold from notes and savings banks and the gold reserve is being steadily drained. If they are able to meet the run everything is safe, but the chief danger is the difficulty in getting more gold into the country. At present people are very peaceful and seem hardly to appreciate the gravity of the situation. Business men are trying to effect an arrangement with London bankers and with Canadian creditors, which will be signed to relieve business in this center.

The New Parliament.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—A special to the Herald from Buenos Ayres says: An influential personal source the Herald correspondent today said the expected surprises to the American lineage would be completed within the next three days and was likely to be published about the end of the year.

Burned on Fire.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., Dec. 10.—The Bonnie Kate, one of the leading boats of the city, is on fire and will be a total loss. The Kate was coming up the landing of a gas order. There were seventy-five passengers, all of whom escaped. The sailing cost $15,000; partly insured. O. S. Todd, ticket agent of the Southern railway, was perhaps fatally burned.

THE HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Today being the second Monday in the month and the rules the House revised the time to consideration of the District of Columbia business.

On motion of Heard (Missouri) chairman of the District of Columbia committee, the House went into committee of the whole.

BENEMELIN WILLMOT.

Did It Was Not the Supposed Murderer After All.

TOPEKA, KAS., Dec. 10.—W. W. Nimon, of Jefferson county, who knew Hillmon intimately and accompanied the party to Arizona, has returned. He said to a reporter: "We got to Tombstone last Thursday. The man supposed to be Hillmon was brought in the sheriff's office and I said to Lake that: 'That is not the man.'" He bears some resemblance to Hillmon. He had the same crossed nose, but on his hands and his features were very much the same. He had good teeth and Hillmon had not. Then he was not more than 30 or 32 and Hillmon would be 47. He wore a beard just as Hillmon used to.

Battle With Bootlers.

OTTUMWA, Iowa, Dec. 10.—Burglars robbed Burlington depot at Batavia last night and taking a handcart started toward Ottumwa. Detective Harrison and other officers pursued on an engine. A battle was fought and one burglar was killed. Two escaped. Harrison received a flesh wound.

AXYIOUS FOR WAR.

Mexicans Excited on Account of Reported Skirmishes.

OAXACA, MEXICO, Dec. 10.—Reports have been received here of a number of skirmishes between Guatemalans and Mexican troops on the border, and people are aroused to the highest pitch of excitement. Mexican troops are anxious for the war to begin, as they are confident of easy victory over the Guatemalan forces. Volunteer troops of this state are being drilled and are ready to march to the front.

Suspected Train Robbers Arrested.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS, Dec. 10.—Four men in custody in the Buckhanan train robbery by the confession of Sam Evans, a member of Captain Sam Evans, the city, are now in jail here and can officials claim to have a case against them all. The four prisoners are Sam Evans, this city, who is highly connected; John Ward, Walter Sullivan, and Walter Gardner, all young men who live within a mile of where the robbery was committed. Evans claims his share of the plunder was large enough to fix him all right after he got through with the trouble.
