UTAH'S FINE OMAHA EXHIBITS

Three Car Loads of Them Brought Home for Their Respective Owners.

Plate over a Gold Medal for Its Superb Mineral Display—Other Medals, Diplomas and Awards.

Superintendent Whitaker and Secretary Burton, who have had charge of the Utah exhibit at the Transmississippi exposition, which was held at Omaha throughout the summer and which came to a successful and glorious ending on Nov. 15, returned to their homes in Ogden yesterday, bringing with them the exhibits of the Utah State. These will be seen in their different owners as speedily as practicable, just going to the University of Utah, some to the Agricultural College, and the remainder to various other kindly loaned them for the display.

As was manifestly expected by those who were informed more the matter than the other, when the people of Utah, the State earned off a number of honors crowning Mount Whitaker and Secretary Burton upon their return home of the awarding of five gold medals, seven silver, eleven bronze, and thirty-one diplomas. All of these were won in competition with the various states whose exhibits were on display.

In addition to these awards they brought with them letters of endorsement from the exposition officers commendatory of the Utah exhibit, and acknowledging the superiority of the exhibit, and saying also that Utah had contributed largely to the success of the exposition. Copies of letters of endorsement were extended by the exposition officials to those of Utah, especially to President Wheeler, General Manager Clarkson and a number of others. They gave special praise to Mr. J. W. Sheridan, who was chairman of the Utah commission, for the work that he was energetic and wide awake in all that he did, and that was a great deal.

It is interesting to note the fact that one of the Omaha newspapers claims that the Utah Day exercises were the most pleasant and instructive of the one hundred and more held during the existence of the exposition. This was largely due to the fine music, which occupied more time the affair by reason of the presence of so many Utah Pioneers, who, in connection with those who came to the religious faith made the Mormon Zion, their living—not so much the greatest, but the most remarkable march in Utah more than half a century ago.

Superintendent Whitaker brought home with him, but five of the gold medals, the award of the silver and bronze medals not yet having been delivered out. The gold medals are those that they will be not later than Thursday next.

The gold medals are, one to the State of Utah, for its mining exhibit, one for its agricultural exhibits, one for the Mormon Mining company's exhibit of the vegetable and fruit exhibit, one to Gilmette company for exhibits of carbonaceous formation. Mr. Whitaker was also given a gold medal and diplomas for the design of decorations.

CAME DOWN TO DISTRIBUTE.

Messrs. Whitaker and Burton Arrive in Salt Lake for That Purpose.

Messrs. F. T. Whitaker and Heber P. Burton, superintendent and secretary respectively of the Utah Omaha exhibit came down from their homes in the Junction City this morning over the Rio Grande Western for the purpose of distributing the two cars of exhibits that had already preceded them. This work will take several days during which time the cases and minerals and various other interesting collections loaned by the Mormon Mining Co. and the Deseret Museum will be unpacked and delivered to those institutions. The third car will arrive within the next day or two and from the third a goodly portion of a car load of exhibits will be made up and sent to the Agricultural College at Logan, which also furnished a fine contribution for the display made by the State.

Messrs Whitaker and Burton expressed themselves in the "News" today as being highly satisfied with the treatment received by the chief officials of the exposition who did everything in their power to make it pleasant for them and for Utah people generally. The glowing reports that have been brought home and published from time to time of the state of proportions which attained to the exposition have not in any particular been over-drawn.
