LOCAL SPORTS AND SCHOOL ATHLETICS.

S. L. HIGH SCHOOL CLASS SCHEDULE

Games on Gridiron So Arranged They Will be Played After Drill Practise.

At a meeting of the various class team managers of the high school held recently the following schedule was decided upon:

Thursday, Oct. 29—Sophomores vs. Freshmen.

Wednesday, Nov. 3—Seniors vs. Freshmen.

Friday, Nov. 5—Juniors vs. Sophomores.

Wednesday, Nov. 10—Seniors vs. Sophomores.

Friday, Nov. 12—Juniors vs. Freshmen.

Wednesday, Nov. 18—Seniors vs. Juniors.

In case of tie one game will be played to decide the championship. The games were scheduled so it will be necessary to play after drill practise.

At the sixth period each day, several junior and senior boys have accepted the invitation of Dad Conville, who has charge of the freshmen-sophomore assembly, to come over and teach the lower classmen the yells and several new songs. This is to make them more enthusiastic on account of the game with Ogden next Saturday morning. The football squad is working hard to defeat the old rivals, Ogden.

Coach Conville is working the team hard each night. With the exception of a few bruises every man is feeling fine after the Saturday game with the Catholics. It is thought that Olson, the same half back, will again be in the game with Ogden.

OGDEN MEETING BEGINS SATURDAY

Manager W. M. Murray of the Ogden race meeting, which starts Saturday, has announced the officials for the meeting. A. J. Blum will be presiding judge, Earl McQuad, associate judge and secretary. John Fennessy will be assistant secretary; W. D. Rishel of Salt Lake, paddock judge and timer, and Mr. Murray will be manager and starter. He is regarded as one of the best starters in the United States and knows how to get the horses away from the barrier in a manner to give all an equal chance.

Arrangements have been made with the Bamberger line for special trains between Salt Lake and Ogden and plenty of cars will be provided so horses may be shipped to the Junction City.

GRANITE VS. ALL HALLOWS.

The Granite high school teams meets All Hallows Friday afternoon. Tuesday afternoon the Granite boys smothered the Occidental Giants by a score of 28 to 6. The colored boys did not have a chance though having an advantage in weight.

STILL THEY WIN.

The Stars took another game Tuesday, defeating the Eagles again by a score of 17 to 6. The line-up:

Stars.		Eagles.
Peterson	L.E.	Cook-Rawson
McCalley	L.T.	Fink-Greene
Shums	L.G.	Robinson
Casey-Bills	C.	Bassett
Sevier	R.T.	Trunell
Carroll	R.G.	Hughes-Blake
Olsen-Rayner	R.E.	Weiner
Harris	Q.B.	Mayde-Houston
Brinkley	L.H.B.	Fluharty
Romney	R.H.B.	Fourkes
Meahan-Tracey	F.B.	Best-Rombach

The Star team will play a practise game on the Bonneville grounds tomorrow afternoon with the Bonneville team.

FRY FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY.

Fish and Game Commissioner Chambers shipped Monday night 50,000 trout fry to Enterprise in Washington county. This is the first shipment of the kind to be made into that section of the state, and it is the policy of the commissioner to supply streams throughout the state that have hitherto been neglected or overlooked in this matter.

MISS MILLER WINS FROM MRS. GEMMELL

The women's golf championship of the Country club was won Tuesday afternoon by Miss Marge Miller who defeated Mrs. R. C. Gemmell, 5 to 4, winning the match 1 up in 19 holes. The play was close and highly interesting.

HARRIMAN HAS OAR.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 26.—The annual fall regatta of Yale will be held Saturday and among those who will be in the first freshman boat is William Averill Harriman, son of the late E. H. Harriman.

Young Harriman went out for the crew along with 50 other freshmen when college opened. The keen eye of Coach Kennedy fixed upon him as being one of the best oarsmen in the new class. Harriman is a stocky lad, 5 feet 10 inches tall, weighing 185 pounds.

JACK JOHNSON SUED.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—Suit was filed in the municipal court here today against Jack Johnson, heavyweight pugilist, for $200 on behalf of "Yank" Kenny, formerly Johnson's trainer.

Kenny alleges the money is due him for training fees and for breach of contract.

Kenny's attorney declares that Johnson hired his client in New York, April 24, agreeing to pay him $50 a week for one year to act in the capacity of trainer and that he deserted him at Cedar Lake, Ind., last August, having paid him but $250.

Johnson expects to leave for New York tomorrow and up to late tonight court bailiffs had been unable to find him to serve him with papers.

CONVILL PLAYS FOR U. OF U. ON SATURDAY

Line-up Will be Strengthened for Coming Game With the Soldiers Of Fort Douglas.

Conville will appear for the university in the game against Fort Douglas Saturday. This was decided at the conference held between officials, Coach Maddock and Capt. Tillie Olsson of the U. team. Conville will probably play in the line and not in his old position in the back field.

This arrangement will give the varsity eleven a decided advantage and a distinctly tight game is anticipated.

At the meeting the choice of goals was tossed for and Tillie guessed right the very first time, a circumstance that makes the U. aggregation feel even more joyful.

It was decided to play 25 and 20-minute halves, with the following officials to run things: Fred Bennion, referee, D. A. Callahan, umpire; McNeese, field judge, and Dick Oglesby, head linesman.

Joe Maddock's football men on the east bench realize they are going up against a hard proposition when they line up against the Fort Douglas soldiers next Saturday afternoon on Cummings field, and they are working hard to get into the best possible condition for the fray. The boys were out again this afternoon, limbering up, and working out the sore spots caused by the game with the miners.

The soldiers continue to put in hard licks and are rounding to fine form. They are determined to beat the U. and there are many who think Uncle Sam's boys will succeed. That the game will be hotly contested there can be no doubt.

HOW ADAMS BEAT THE DETROIT TEAM

Charles "Babe" Adams, in a statement issued a few days ago in Pittsburg, explains how he defeated Detroit three times in the world's series:

"My success in pitching can be attributed to the slow drop ball. I discovered in the first game that Detroit could not hit that kind of ball to any extent. When they would connect it would be a short hit to the infield and Pittsburg has an infield which can take care of such hits.

"The slow drop I alternated, first out and then in. It went to the outside of the plate, beyond the reach of the batter, but if these batsmen were within the hitting distance the ball was low and its slowness caused a false estimate of the strength required from the batter. In such a quick feat as batting a false estimate is a dangerous thing for the batting side. The ball which went inside the plate and dropped at the same time was the most effective I used. Detroit could do nothing with that at all.

"But I did not overwork the drop ball. To do so would have been to lack control. Gibson sized up the batters and we knew when it was safe to put them straight over the plate. Detroit has a good hitting aggregation and it was necessary to take every precaution with them. The tigers' rallies in several games demonstrated this. To lose control during one of these rallies would have meant the loss of the game. The most trying time while I was pitching was when Detroit showed one of those famous spurts of strength at bat. I worked harder than ever and was fortunate enough to hold control. The balls that went straight over the plate were generally hit by Detroit. Occasionally one was walloped to good effect, but in the main we knew when there was to be a hit and the infield and outfield acted accordingly."

COAST LEAGUE.

Los Angeles	1	7	2
Portland	9	14	1

Batteries—Nagle and Orendorff; Carson and Fisher.

Sacramento, Oct. 26.—Heister, the young ex-outlaw, who plays every position on the diamond, occupied the box for Sacramento today and beat Jimmy Wiggs, 3 to 0. Sacramento took every advantage of hits in the fourth, making three runs.

Score:	R.	H.	E
Oakland	0	4	0
Sacramento	3	2	0

Batteries—Wiggs and Lewis; Heister and La Longe.

San Francisco, Oct. 26.—Vernon and San Francisco played a tie game today the score standing 4 to 4, when the game was called on account of darkness in the ninth inning.

ALL NATIONALS LOSE.

Batteries—Morgan and Donahue; Curtis, Myers and Bliss.

THOMPSON HURT: FIGHT POSTPONED

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 27.—Owing to a sprained ankle, which Cyclone Johnny Thompson suffered while training in Chicago yesterday, his bout with Packey McFarland, scheduled to take place here Nov. 1, has been indefinitely postponed. The fight was to have been for 10 rounds.

PITCHER "BABE" ADAMS, THE HERO OF THE WORLD'S BASEBALL SERIES.

Great honors are being showered on "Babe" Adams, the Pittsburg Nationals' sterling young twirler, whose star pitching enabled the pirates to capture the world's championship. Adams is the hero of the series. This youngster, who won his spurs with the Pittsburg club only this season, pitched three games for Clarke's squad and won them all. He began the clash by winning the first game played and ended it fittingly by shutting the tigers out in the final contest. No pitcher ever displayed better form than Adams did in the last game. He was never in trouble. He kept the tigers' six hits so well scattered that Jennings's men were greatly discouraged, and, although they fought gamely to the end, they were unable to accomplish anything. Pittsburg obtained Adams from the Louisville club of the American association last fall, where he had made a splendid record. In the first game he pitched for the pirates early last June he held the Chicago cubs down to two hits, shutting them out. While he may not be a Christy Mathewson as yet, still Manager Clarke thinks he will come pretty near leading the majority of the slab artists in the National league next season. In the reception tendered the club in Pittsburg by the fans Adams was the center of attraction. In addition to receiving his share from the world's series, he was presented with a purse of $1,263 which admiring rooters and members of his team contributed to him.

MORE SURPRISES AT BUENA VISTA

One Comes When Charley Clow's Tavora Captures Mile Event—Chalum Beaten by Bright Skies.

Hereafter, Furnace and Salpearl were the three winning favorites at Buena Vista Tuesday afternoon but in the other races outsiders fooled the talent and the books had the best of the day. The "wise" money was gathered in by the books in the second race when Chalum failed to do as he was expected. Bright Skies was fairly well played but there was a distinct surprise when the little animal romped home under the weight given her.

There was another upset in the third when Royal River and Huapala received heavy play and Charley Clow's Tavora beat out the field. Tavora was given hardly a chance, but the winner of the Utah handicap at the fair grounds proved equal to the occasion and made Clow happy by nosing out at the finish.

Furnace, an odds-on favorite, took the fourth race with ease, Aquiline placing and Eudora getting show after a fine finish. Another upset came in the fifth when Prometheus was badly beaten by Yankee Tourist, a 15 to 1 shot.

The last race of the day was a good one. Salpearl lasted to the finish and came in winner after a hard drive to keep ahead of Lady Alicia.

The fourth race was scratched because of the illness of Wander. Today there are seven races on the card.

JEFFRIES THINKS SOMEBODY GOT WIRES CROSSED

New York, Oct. 27.—The report telegraphed from California last night that N. S. Needham of Coalinga, Cal., had offered $100,000 for the Jeffries-Johnson bout has not been confirmed. At the Jeffries headquarters Sam Berger was inclined to doubt the story, while Jeffries himself laughed at it and said:

"Perhaps the wires got crossed."

Jeffries was out early this morning and took a brisk walk through Central park and up Riverside drive.

This afternoon he is to pay a second visit to the surgeon, who removed a growth in the right nostril yesterday. His left nostril is to be cleared in similar fashion.

Berger would not comment on Johnson's telegram asking for an appointment with Jeffries here tomorrow, further than to say the two men would probably meet tomorrow night.

TRYING TO FIND OUT GEBHARDT'S PAST LIFE

New York, Oct. 27.—Efforts of officials of Suffolk county, L. I., to learn whether or not Frederick Gebhardt, the confessed murderer of Anna Luther, had engaged in a series of bigamous marriages were rewarded in a measure today by the finding of a woman who claims that Gebhardt, then known as Otto Mueller, married her in Russia 14 years ago.

The woman, who is now known under the name of Minnie Rosenau, attended the inquest at Islip yesterday, and positively identified Gebhardt as the Mueller who had married her in Russia.

"After gaining possession of a fair dowry which I brought him," she said, "Mueller deserted me and came to America."

The police have also brought into the case another woman who was much in the company of Gebhardt but who disappeared about a year ago.

JEFF ONLY MAN WHO HAS A CHANCE

(By Tad.)

The more Jack Johnson fights, the more sporting men are convinced that Jim Jeffries is the only fighter in the world who has a license to get into the ring with him.

No man in the world had a harder time convincing people that he was a dangerous man than Johnson. Now that he has beaten the most promising big fellows, the sporting world anxiously awaits the picture of Jeff climbing through the ropes with his robes wrapped around him and his fighting face drawn thin.

The Ketchel fight was a poor match to begin with. Stanley Ketchel as a middleweight was a spectacular fighter. He tore through everything put before him excepting Billy Papke, and won for himself a bunch of titles never before held by any fighter. He was "the tiger," "the assassin," "the terror," "the Michigan mauler," "the middleweight cyclone," etc.

His speedy win over Jack O'Brien at Philadelphia made Willie Britt think that "Steve" was the greatest man that ever pulled on a pair of tights, and that idea made him overmatch the great middleweight from Michigan.

At no time in the contest with Johnson did "Steve" have a chance of winning. He was dangerous at all times. He might have landed that terrific slam, but when he faced a bigger and cleverer man than himself his punch was missing.

Peter Maher might have landed his haymaker on Fitz, but he didn't. Young Otto might have landed his on young Josephs, but he didn't. Herrera might have slammed Abe Attell, but he didn't. The clever man has that advantage over the slugger, and always will, unless he becomes careless.

CHRISTMAS DAISY WINS BIG HANDICAP

Newmarket, Eng., Oct. 27.—The last of this year's handicap events, the Cambridgeshire stakes, a handicap of 25 sovereigns each, with 500 sovereigns added, for 3-year-olds and upward, distance one mile and a furlong, was won by Christmas Daisy. Mustapha was second and Louis Winans' Sir Martin, third. Nineteen horses were entered, no less than four being Americans, including J. R. Keene's Ballot; August Belmont's Priscillian, and Charles Carroll's Wheatear. None of these latter secured a place.

Christmas Daisy was a rank outsider.

The ground was sodden and decidedly against such heavily weighted horses as Sir Martin, Ballot and Priscillian.

The winner early took the lead and romped in with the easiest kind of a victory by five lengths. Sir Martin was three lengths behind Mustapha.

The betting on Christmas Daisy was 100 to 7 against, Mustapha 11 to 2 against, and Sir Martin 7 to 1 against.

The maiden 2-year-old race of 200 sovereigns, distance six furlongs, was won by Salbo. Gallantry was second, and Flemington third. Among the 15 starters was August Belmont's Burgman, which finished unplaced.

An all-aged selling plate of 166 sovereigns at five furlongs, was won by Honolulu. Flinders was second and Heckler's Beauty third. August Belmont's Ferule was unplaced.

The new Nursery plate of 400 sovereigns for 2-year-olds, five furlongs, was won by Catrall. Mignonne was second, and Miss Portland third. H. P. Whitney's Newcastle II and Charles Carroll's Washoe were starters.

MONTE ATTELL WINS.

Oakland, Cal., Oct. 26.—Monte Attell, bantamweight, was given the decision over Jimmy Carroll in a 10-round fight here this evening. Attell won all the way and in the fifth the bell saved Carroll, who had been knocked down from a knockout. Percy Cove easily defeated Al. Emmick in a 6-round preliminary.

Carroll's work against Attell gained the cheers of the crowd. He was sent to the mat with a well directed right to the jaw but came back gamely in the sixth and managed through clever footwork to evade Attell's rushing, cleverly blocking his leads through the remainder of the bout.

JOHNSON ANXIOUS TO MEET JEFFRIES

In All Probability Meeting of Big Fellows Will Take Place Thursday Night—Stage for Jeff.

New York, Oct. 27.—That Jack Johnson is not trying to avoid the issue with James J. Jeffries is indicated by a telegram from the negro champion to a local sporting man, in which he says:

"Will you please see Mr. Jeffries and learn where he proposes to meet me when I arrive in New York. I am leaving Chicago today (Wednesday) on the Twentieth Century limited and must be back in Chicago early Sunday morning. Have had no word from Mr. Jeffries as to where and when he would meet me, so if you will find out the arrangements for the meeting, I will know what to do when I arrive in New York."

Sam Berger, manager for Jeffries, was shown this telegram and he said that before the day was over, he and Jeffries would announce where and when they would see Johnson. According to the telegram, Johnson will arrive here tomorrow and it is probable that a meeting will be arranged for tomorrow night at which it is expected the final terms for the heavyweight championship battle will be decided upon.

JEFF BREATHES WELL.

After Jeffries had had the obstruction removed from his nasal passages, he drew his first free breath of air through his nose since his first fight, with Bob Fitzsimmons. On that occasion one of Fitz's vicious right swings caved the champion's nose in and since then he has been compelled to breathe mostly through his mouth.

"It feels fine to breathe naturally," said Jeffries, "and the best part of it is that this will stop a lot of talk about my wind being bad."

Since viewing the moving pictures of the Johnson-Ketchel fight, Tom Sharkey has offered his opinion concerning Johnson, and from this statement of the showing the negro made with Ketchel, Sharkey now believes that Jeffries will not have such an easy time with Johnson. Sharkey says that unless Jeffries is absolutely fit, he will be beaten and he doubts that Jeffries can ever again show the condition he displayed in his last fight.

STAGE FOR JIM.

San Francisco, Oct. 27.—It is reported here today that for several months past Sam Berger, manager of James J. Jeffries, and Isidore Golden, one of the justices of the peace in San Francisco, have been collaborating on a play in which the retired heavyweight champion of the world is to appear shortly. The character of the play could not be learned, but it is understood that it is along the lines of "Davy Crockett," in which Jeffries starred during the time that he was champion, still actively engaged in the pugilistic game. It is also said that the production of the two San Franciscans has been submitted to a playwright for criticism and any necessary alterations and that an announcement will soon be made in the east.

It is understood that Jeffries will not wait for a fight with Johnson, but will go on the stage as soon as possible.

BROKEN CARTILEGE PUTS STOP TO FIGHT

Boston, Oct. 27.—The breaking of a cartilage in his right knee caused Bill McKinnon to stop at the end of the fourth round in his bout with Jimmy Gardner at the Armory A. A. last night. At the time it was apparent that McKinnon was a beaten boxer, even had the accident not occurred. His seconds threw up the towel when the gong sounded for the fifth session.

CAPT. HACKETT IN UTAH JOCKEY CLUB

Announcement was made this morning that Capt. Hackett, owner of some of the best horses in the western country, had purchased a fifth interest in the Utah Jockey club. The announcement will give satisfaction to local horsemen generally, as Capt. Hackett is very popular among turfites throughout the country and is known for his square dealing in matters pertaining to the turf.

Capt. Hackett has secured 180 shares of the stock, the par value of the same being $50 per share. But the exact amount he paid for the interest he now has in the association was not made public.

WORK OF SEAL PATROL FLEET IN BERING SEA

Port Townsend, Wash., Oct. 27.—The United States revenue cutter Manning, flagship of the seal patrol in Bering sea, arrived last night from Unalaska. During the season of five months the fleet of five cutters patrolled 80,000 miles of Alaska waters and made two seizures of Japanese poachers. The fleet returned a large party of indigent miners from Nome to Seattle.

Aboard the Manning are four Japanese seal hunters who escaped arrest as poachers by applying for aid as castaways from their schooner, the Tokai Maru, Aug. 24. Their small hunting boat was picked up by the cutter Rush with the occupants suffering from lack of food, after becoming lost in the fog. They will be turned over to immigration officers in Seattle for deportation.

Capt. W. V. Jacobs, commanding the seal patrol, says that without legislation prohibiting or greatly curtailing pelagic sealing, the extinction of the fur seal is to be expected within a few years. The opinion is formed after conferences following an investigation of conditions by Prof. Clarke of Leland Stanford university.

FIRST AMERICAN WOMAN TO FLY IN AEROPLANE

Wilbur Wright Takes Up Mrs. Vandeman, Wife of Capt. Vandeman, Twenty-first Infantry.

College Park, Md., Oct. 27.—A diversion of more than ordinary interest from the daily flights here was furnished today by Wilbur Wright at the government aerodrome.

Having coached his three army officer pupils to the point where they are now able to operate an aeroplane themselves, Mr. Wright had for a passenger a woman aviation enthusiast in the person of Mrs. Vandeman, wife of Capt. Ralph H. Vandeman of the Twenty-first infantry.

The machine circled the aerodrome and was put through some intricate maneuvers, the flight lasting four minutes.

The landing was made without mishap.

Mrs. Vandeman was the first woman to fly in a heavier-than-air machine in the United States. Mr. Wright and his brother, Orville, both have had women as passengers in their aeroplane abroad and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth at Fort Myer recently wished to make a trip in the aeroplane but the Wright brothers refused.

It was only after Mrs. Vandeman had obtained permission from her husband that Mr. Wright consented to take her for a flight. The trip today was made during a calm. Mrs. Vandeman expressed herself as delighted with the sensation.

COLLEGE MEN TO ELEVATE NEW YORK POLITICS

New York, Oct. 27.—With the idea of elevating politics and in an endeavor to eliminate illegal voting, 1,000 college men, representing the Non-Partisan Volunteer Watchers' association, have volunteered to act as watchers at the polls during the coming municipal election. The men have been drawn from among the students at Columbia, New York university, Princeton and Yale.

The Republican county committee will have 2,000 paid watchers also recruited principally from the same colleges.

AUTOMOBILIST TAKES VICTIM TO A HOSPITAL

Chicago, Oct. 27.—For two days the police searched for 19-year-old Joseph Kubik, who had been run down by an automobile Saturday night and spirited way by the occupants of the machine. Yesterday the boy was found in a North Side hospital.

Joseph Leppak, driver of the automobile, was arrested last night and later released on bonds. After the accident he says he put the victim in the automobile and took him to a physician's office. He was told that the injuries might be serious. Instead of notifying the police he carried Kubik to the hospital. The first information received by the police was a request from the parents that a search be made as it was believed the missing boy had been kidnaped or possibly killed.

HEPBURN RAILWAY ACT.

Held to be a Prospective and Not a Retrospective Law.

Anderson, Ind., Oct. 27.—In the superior court Judge Austil decided that the Hepburn railroad act is a prospective and not a retrospective law.

The case of W. B. Boland of this city, who was granted a life-time pass over the lines of the Big Four road several years ago in consideration of a general lease on land he owned between this city and Pendleton, came to trial here.

The railway company had revoked the pass when the Hepburn bill went into effect. Judge Austin holds that the pass is not invalidated by it.

GOV. CURRY WILL RETIRE NEXT SPRING

Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 27.—That he will retire from the office of governor of New Mexico some time in the spring in order to devote his time to private business, is the statement given to the Associated Press by Gov. George Curry last night.

It is rumored that Third Asst. Postmaster General Lawshe will succeed Curry.
