President D. H. Wells stated that according to appointment the meeting had come together for the purpose of organizing a branch of the United Order, and he had learnt from the Bishop that some 430 names had been given in to join it. The object of this order, he Yesterday fifteen lads were arrested said, was to promote the kingdom of God, to come to a greater union of action in developing our own resources so as to make us self-sustaining. We left wicked Babylon and came to Zion to serve God and to leave Babylon behind, but instead of that some of us had brought Babylon with us and had progressed in the wrong direction the last few years. It was the object of this Order to turn our energies in the right direction and to devote all our means and interest for the kingdom. We had professed to serve God with full purpose of heart, while many of us had not done so, but sustained the wicked and been slack in keeping the commandments of God. Now the Lord wanted to test us as he had done before; we stood it then, and he was pleased with us,
