LADIES' ARE INVITED.

Bankers Would Like to Have Them Visit the Pit on Saturday.

LUNCH CAME NEARLY BEING PROVIDED.

The Great Payne Mine Has Millions in Sight—Lower Mammoth's Condition—Two Companies Incorporated.

Ladies, you are invited to attend the call of mining stocks on Saturday afternoon. The invitation came from the brokers who sent up a message to that effect from Pete W. H. Tibbals. You would have had lunch provided for you too, but Henry Perry, El Monte and others had their way, but the motion to supersede lunc for their purpose was finally voted down, although it is no probable that those who expressed their generosity this morning, may carry out their plans despite the opposition of their brothers. If it is not provided, it would perhaps be well for the lady speculator to carry her lunch along, as the call will likely be a heavy one, and dinner time often means hard and strenuous work. It is desired that the ladies take advantage of the opportunity afforded, that on Saturday Lady day, they go down to Lady's Pit in honor of the occasion.

The trading today opened in a little dull, but business was brisk from noon to finish. Four Aces led on with sales at from 27 to 27½ cents and seemed to good demand on those terms. Dalie was a seller at 7½ cents and had a ready buyer right up to the price. Lower Mammoth was traded to the extent of 1,000 shares at 9
