Charles E. Bradish, of St. Joe, has filed a suit for $25,175 damages against the Southern Pacific company. Plaintiff alleges that he purchased a ticket for San Francisco and back at St. Joe; at Ogden the ticket was taken from him, leaving him without means to pay the fare to St. Joseph for which he claims $10,000, and also that his baggage was taken from him, which damaged him to the extent of $1,000. His detention here caused him a loss of $300 per day; $10,000 special damages are claimed in the court. He claims $75 for the value of his ticket.

Wattis, agent for Carey Bros., the Ogden contractors, notifying him that the firm has secured a contract at Rawlins, Wyo., for a forty mile canal with a large quantity of flume work, and were prepared to hire teams, carpenters and laborers. A number of men will go from Logan.

The lower portion of the body has been paralyzed since the accident, and he has had no use of his lower limbs.

The time of this gentleman is fully occupied, both summer and winter. He is never found among the loafers who haunt the store or blacksmith's shop during the winter, and the secret of his success lies in the habits of industry and brains, and in a diversity of products.

On Monday morning at 7 a. m., a fire occurred in a shed in the Second ward. The prompt arrival of the engine and firemen prevented an extensive conflagration, as it was surrounded by houses and barns, and the wind blew hard shortly afterward.

Elder Aaron M. Cannon addressed the congregation at the tabernacle on Sunday afternoon.

The city council has decided to levy a tax of six mills for city purposes.

Louis A. Merrill, who was a guest at the class of '95 in the university at the A. C. of U., has gone to Nevada to accept a position in the Sterling Gold Mining Co.

Star and Matrimony.

The young lad is with that "only and dearest enemy in May." They had written, then if the marriage did take place the result would be a good enough, and children born of the marriage—if it was not hopelessly ruined barring by her clipping the fires in the furnace—would be defamed or infantile. With some like that in prospect, it is not much wonder that the learned and sanctimonious tabor May marriages, but there is no crime yet for the discourtesy of chiding people—at least, so credible one.

Twice now a firm failure in the assignment and said that no widow or young girl could spare money in May unless she wished to invite the displeasure of the gods, and that the incredulent woman who based their truth would 22 on Friday, June 21, proceed to Goth to pay Jupiter the birth month of June, when he got ready to launch his daughter on the matrimonial sea to dashed the stars and all the superstitious to make sure that he would not run afoul Neptune by stealing off Cheapside.

Jupiter is a good one, but he forgot to find Mars. Mars appeared and kept the wedding bell ringing.

After the ceremony Mars and Venus departed for the east and hope to be back in the south.

Better One Way.

In North Carolina, lately a case was tried in which the defendant's character for having been impaired, it was sought to induce it by showing he had reformed and joined the church. The witness, who had brought to the same church, testified that in the declaration she saw a Christian man of course his character was better. Counsel asked him, "Then he did not use to be so bad before did?" The witness, who was ordered and evidently confused by the inquiry, slowly raised his eyes and said with much deliberation, "I think he did, but he cutted it more better."—San Francisco Argonaut.
