NEWS OF THE WEST.

A Boy Killed by the Caving in of a Sand Bank.

EXPENSES OF A SHERIFF.

Colorado Springs Has a Scheme on Hand.—The Fast Winter in Arizona.—Other Items.

Canyon City, Col., cattle are already reported in a grand circumlocution upon in the hill.

There are about a million young fish in the sloughs of the Lorraine, Wyoming, which will soon be distributed.

The Star Tunnel is mining the Horseshoe of all vulture in the Gunnison valley, and supplies the people are valuably thankful to commodity goods.

Articles of incorporation of the town of Fruita, in Mesa county, Colo., have been filed with the secretary of state, signed by over 100 citizens.

The North Platte, in Wyoming, is on a rest. One day last week, according to the Saratoga Sun, the river was a red rolling flat stream and was filled with old ice, stack and yellow mud.

The Dunlap, N. M., Land and Water company are putting down the fire hydrants, and will be ready at any time to furnish water for fire purposes whenever the town is in a position to outlay for the same.

Many of the sheep men in the southern portion of the Rio Grande, in Texas and New Mexico, have sold their flocks of stock and are waiting for a turn in the tide of wool and mutton to stock up with better breeds.

Colorado Springs is discussing the subject of erecting a big auditorium capable of seating from 4,000 to 5,000 people, which would no doubt be a great assistance in inducing state and national conventions to meet in that city.

There is not little of the old crop of grain left in the Salt river valley, Arizona, now selling for 70 cents a hundred, is expected to rapidly appreciate in price, for the market quotation in Los Angeles has risen to nearly $1.00 already.

Both horticulture and agriculture are experiencing a large and rapid growth in the Espanola portion of the Rio Grande valley, just south of the Colorado line. New orchards are being built and the people are busy setting out fruit trees and putting in crops.

The past winter has been marked by little fall of more than the average amount of rain and snow in Arizona. The amount of snow which fell in the mountains has probably not been equalled in several years. The streams in general apparently contain sufficient water for irrigation.

A strong coal company has been formed, principally in Mexico, to work the magnificent coal beds now cropping near Lake Chapala. They have seven feet of solid coal in the vessel of their tunnel. The coal is of good to a fine quality, and the mouth of the tunnel is within a mile's drive of the Rio Grande Southern railroad.

Judge Hallstack has received an opinion at Monte Vista, Colo., in which he holds that the county has no right to charge fillments for his traveling expenses in addition to his regular salary. The sheriff of the county has been charging fillments for trips here and hotel bills, in addition to his regular fees, and the matter was brought up on a motion to tax costs in a certain case.

Mr. George Arnell, who lives three miles west of Greeley, Col., met with a serious accident going into town. While coming the railroad track on seventy steel his wagon was struck by the pay car which was going to overtake Gall station. The tracks were filled with rain which hid the approaching train from view. Mr. Arnell received two severe scalp wounds, a cross fracture on the left shoulder and one rib was broken. His wagon was carried nearly a block by the engine.

Samuel Ball, aged 12 years, son of a farmer living in the eastern part of Hayden county, Colo., was killed on Wednesday by the caving in of a sand bank. He and his brother, some two years older, had gone to an old sand bank, 200 or 300 yards from the railroad, which caved, and while in the pit, he was but five feet in depth, the bank caved upon the brothers, partially covering the elder and burying the younger one under three feet of earth. He was dug out in five minutes, some three or twenty minutes after wards.

The amount of hay, says the Phoenix, Ariz., Gazette, shipped over the Atlantic and Pacific road in 1893 was 20 to Marion for which $3,000 tons, of which was intended for points along the line. Of this amount, 2,753 tons came by the way of Mojave, 14 tons originated in California by way of Mojave, and 2,625 tons by way of Albuquerque. Over half of this hay amount will be taken from the Salt River valley upon the completion of the Santa Fe, Prescott and Phoenix railroad.

Word has just been received at Denver of the finding of the remains of an unknown man near Creek's mountain, in the county line between Weld and Larimer, are about five miles south of Bonus postoffice. The discovery was made by Eli Stuart, postmaster of the above mentioned place, and indications point to the man had been dead two or three years. There were found with him a shotgun, a shotgun, which was loaded, and a dynamiter, two chambers of which were empty, one to one of the pockets of the clothing a $10 gold piece and $3 in silver. No clue has been discovered as to his identity, and no one is known to be missing from that section. The coroner has left for the scene of the discovery to make an investigation.

James Hammer was shot at Boulder, Colo., at 10 o'clock on Tuesday night by Mrs. Cyrus Dearcoff and cut two bullet wounds. Hammer, with Mrs. Dearcoff, were out taking in the news. Calling at Mrs. Dearcoff's home, which has rather a shady reputation, they were refused admittance. After parleying a while, Hammer attempted to force an entrance, and was met at the door by Mrs. Dearcoff, who fired one shot. Hammer fell and was carried away by his associates. The examination is was found that the bullet had pierced the brain, near the right eye, and could not be extracted. Mrs. Dearcoff was arrested at once. She states that she has frequently been annoyed by Hammer. Hammer leaves a wife. The prisoner's boy informed a reporter declaring that Mrs. Dearcoff did not know who shooting intended.

On Tuesday, George Hammond, who is serving a sixty-day sentence and a fine for his in the county jail, at Denver, did well to also have his lower 8 months to pay a $500 fine, or be kept in jail for life, in default of payment. Word has been received from Chicago that the photograph of the prisoner was there in demand. Four days ago, an article was sent to Chicago, and an article was sent to Denver, in several state papers, about L. Dell, to get a pass in Julio for longer. Parents or friends are he not see the notice were in the Kansas papers. Mr. Dell is a son of Mr. Dell, of Denver, nothing chance about a month ago. Hence her father's action for the wing Kansas will be to go to Denver to secure a pass in order to prevent the disgrace of his son's arrest.
