THE GAME IN TURKEY

Russian Representations Influenced Abdul Hamid.

DIVIDED OPINIONS OF SAID PASHA.

New Reports of Atrocities—Armenians Said to Have Been Burned Alive.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 12, via Sofia, Bulgaria, Dec. 11.—(Copyrighted by the Associated Press.)—The two incidents which have constituted the center of sensational interest, viz., the refuge of Kutchuk Said Pasha, ex-grand vizier, in the British embassy, and the refusal of the sultan to grant the firmans for the passage through the Dardanelles of the additional guardships demanded by the powers, are practically relegated to history through their settlement by the return of Said Pasha to his home, and by the granting of the firmans by the sultan. How unimportant these firms are in themselves is indicated by the fact that the tense condition of the public mind is not abated and the watchful game of diplomacy is said to go on [illegible].

It has developed that M. Nelidoff assured the sultan that unless the firmans for the guardships were granted the powers would present an ultimatum on the subject to the Porte. M. Nelidoff appealed to him in behalf of the czar to obviate the necessity of such a step by granting the firmans. The talk from Russia evidently convinced the sultan that his game of [illegible] was up.

Said's return to his own home was made in the carriage of Sir Phillip Currie, the British ambassador, accompanied by the chief dragoman of the embassy. On the same evening that he returned the secret police who had been watching the embassy were withdrawn.

Said Pasha wrote Sir Phillip Currie a letter of thanks, in which he said that after forty-three years of public service and five in the position of grand vizier, his health was broken and he was unable again to accept the office of grand vizier.

ARMENIANS BURNED ALIVE.

LONDON, Dec. 11.—A dispatch to the Times from Urumiah, Persia, says: It is now certain that the Hamidieh cavalry have destroyed 200 villages in the territory of Van. Fifty thousand homeless people are flocking into the city of Van and the government is doing nothing to prevent further outrages.

A Vienna dispatch to the Times says: News was received from Trebizond today of fresh atrocities. The bishop and five ecclesiastics were burned alive while seeking refuge in a building. Fresh outrages have occurred in other parts of Asia Minor.

The Standard's Constantinople correspondent says: The Porte is absolutely deserted by the ministers, who bide day and night at the palace, where confusion reigns supreme.

A Dispatch to the Daily News from Constantinople reports the arrest by palace officials and the subsequent liberation of the chief messenger of the British postoffice, who is an Armenian.

The Chronicle has a dispatch from Constantinople which says: It is rumored that the sultan swore on the Koran to protect Said Pasha's life and give him a large sum of money down, and a pension of £225 per month.

The sultan seems to have had a fit of generosity towards those he suspected, and has presented to Kiamil Pasha a snuff box worth £2,000, and has increased his salary to £5,000 yearly. It is the general opinion that Said Pasha has acted foolishly, while others consider that he is playing a deep game.

The Waller Trial.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The Kansas Congressional delegation held a meeting today to discuss the Waller case, at which Paul Bray, the ex-consul's nephew, related the history of the trial. Bray asserts the stenographer's report of the testimony given at the trial was incorrect. He says that if the government was ever successful in securing the report of the trial which has been asked for, his own testimony will be found misigned, as he refused to sign it, because the report of it was wrong. Bray speaks French fluently, and he declares the official interpreter of the trial wilfully misinterpreted parts of the testimony.

For a Uniform Bankruptcy System.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 11.—Senator George (Dem., Miss.) today introduced a bill to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy. The bill is practically the same reported by Mr. George from the committee on judiciary at the last session as a substitute for the Bailey bill, which passed the House.

Appointments in the House.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 11.—The following House appointments were made today: E. Hempstead, Pennsylvania, newspaper clerk, at $2,000, clerk's office of the House.

Edward Hatchett of Missouri bookkeeper in the sergeant-at-arms office, and Winthrop C. Jones of Detroit deputy sergeant-at-arms.

F. H. [illegible] of Michigan, tally [illegible].

Reed's Unexpected Difficulties.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 11.—There seems to be no possibility now that the committees of the House will be announced this week. Speaker Reed has experienced more difficulty than was anticipated in making up the membership of the committees, owing to his lack of personal acquaintance with the new members, of whom there are 160. From a source close to the Speaker the information is given out today that the committees will probably not be announced until the latter part of next week, just before the Christmas recess.

CASES OF GRAVE ROBBING.

Students of a Medical College Steal Bodies.

TOPEKA, Kan., Dec. 11.—Three cases of grave-robbing at the Rochester cemetery have been traced to students of the Kansas Medical college in the past three days, and popular indignation reached a crisis in North Topeka tonight, and it is feared that an effort will be made before morning to either burn or otherwise damage the college.

The first robbery was that of the body of Mrs. I. O. Van Fleet. The husband of the dead woman became unaccountably possessed of the belief that the grave had been desecrated, and had an examination made, which disclosed the work of ghouls. The body was found in the dissecting-room of the college.

Further investigation revealed the mutilated remains of Mrs. Dixie, wife of a well-known citizen, and at 8 o'clock tonight Mr. F. H. Little identified the third body at the college as that of his mother, who died recently of consumption.

The police learned this afternoon that there was a move on foot to assemble a mob to sack the medical college, located at the corner of Twelfth and Tyler streets. This evening the faculty of the college called on the police for protection.

Great indignation prevails throughout the city that the authorities at the college should permit the robbing of graves when they could secure all the bodies they need from the cities by paying expressage. The United Workmen resolved not to employ any of the physicians connected with the college, and denounced Governor Morrill for calling out the militia. The mob, on advice of the officials, has dispersed.

Rochester cemetery, from which the bodies were stolen, is used by the poorer classes of the city, and it is in a secluded nook, where the grave robber can operate unmolested. Many persons whose relatives have been buried there recently went out today to open the graves and satisfy themselves that the bodies had not been disturbed.

FIRE IN THE CINCINNATI.

The New Cruiser Narrowly Escapes a Fearful Disaster.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—A dispatch to the Herald from Key West, Fla., says:

Particulars have just been received on shore of what nearly caused the destruction of the United States cruiser Cincinnati and the loss of 300 lives. A gale of wind blew all yesterday afternoon and through the night, interrupting communication with vessels in the harbor, and delaying the news.

It was reported to the officer of the deck of the Cincinnati about 2:30 in the afternoon that some smoke had made its appearance in the dynamo room and all about the neighborhood of the forward magazines. The fire-bell was rung at once and the pumps were started. The smoke in the compartments adjoining and above the magazines was so thick that the first officer to arrive on the scene gave orders to flood the ammunition at once. The hatches were opened and streams of water from the deck hose were added to those from the flooding system. The circumstances were too critical to admit of hesitation, and water was poured in till the ammunition compartments were filled. The smoke had by this time considerably abated and it was evident the water had risen above the fire.

Capt. Johnson, who, with Lieut.-Commander Everett, had taken personal charge, directed all ammunition not under water to be passed on deck. This was done with almost incredible rapidity. Men work fast on a magazine that they suspect of being afire. The forward five-inch magazines were next emptied, and it was found that several of the boxes containing the fixed ammunition were charred nearly through. A little delay in flooding the magazines would have caused a catastrophe.

The fire was right abreast of the auxiliary boilers, in a coal-bunker partially filled with soft coal. The heat from the boilers had caused the coal to smoulder and this in turn had charred the shell-boxes through the separate bulkheads. It is thought no damage was done, unless it be found that the ammunition was injured by water. The officers say the men worked with the same presence of mind and disregard of danger as though the magazines were empty. The Cincinnati is here to prevent filibustering and to enforce the neutrality laws. Her crew are engaged in retubing her boilers, replacing the steel tubes, which have not proved satisfactory, with wrought-iron tubes. One boiler has been completed and the other five will be finished about the middle of February.

Miss Aub Retracts Again.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—Barbara Aub, according to a statement made by her attorney has retracted the confession on the strength of which W. H. B. Langerman was allowed to go free, after he had been convicted of criminal assault in the first degree. Miss Aub now claims, it is said, that the confession was forced from her by some of the attaches of Hope Mission.

American Federation of Labor.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—So slowly has the work of the American Federation of Labor progressed that instead of adjournment being reached on Friday or by Saturday noon, at the latest, which was the original program, it is not likely that the election of officers will be reached before Monday or Tuesday of next week. The main obstruction is the contested seats in the convention, a matter which is usually disposed of on the first day of the convention.

RUSSIAN PILGRIMS.

Prevented from Visiting the Holy Land at Present.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 11.—The issuing of passports to pilgrims to Palestine has been suspended in consequence of the disturbances there.

In this city, between November 30th and December 7th, there were seventy-three cases of cholera and forty-six deaths from that disease.

In the government of Volhynia, from November 17th to 23rd, there were 259 cases of cholera and ninety-four deaths.

In the government of Kiev during the same period there were 151 cases of cholera and thirty-four deaths.

NEW YORK PRISON METHODS

Trial of Sheriff Tamsen for Criminal Negligence.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—The trial today of Sheriff Tamsen, charged with criminal negligence in allowing the three postoffice robbers, Russell, Killoran and Allen, to escape from the Ludlow street jail, revealed facts anything but complimentary to the custodians of the prisoners at the jail.

"Old Bill" Vosburg, a notorious confidence man and father-in-law of Russell, was the principal witness. He told how he had been given a pass to the jail which the doorkeeper never took up, and how he had visited the jail as often as five times a week, taking liquor, money and firearms to the prisoners. He was never searched. Six days before the escape he carried in three revolvers, which he gave to the prisoners in the jail yard. A keeper stood near by in the doorway at the time.

On cross-examination Vosburg admitted the part he recently played in swindling Farmer Clofel of Nebraska, who paid $500 for $5,000 worth of green goods. Vosburg explained that he did not sell Clofel counterfeit money, but as he explained, "only a box full of green paper with two $1 bills on top." He admitted that his purpose was to swindle the westerner out of his $500.

John Allshan, who was a prisoner at Ludlow street in June last, explained that pinochle and poker were favorite games among the warden and the "star" prisoners. The keepers also took part. This closed the case for the prosecution.

General Tracy for the defense at once raised the question of the state court's jurisdiction over Federal prisoners. He moved to dismiss the case against Sheriff Tamsen. Judge Aitken decided to hear arguments on that point tomorrow.

Trial of Dr. Hearne.

BOWLING GREEN, Mo., Dec. 11.—The actual trial of Dr. J. C. Hearne for the murder of Amos J. Stillwell, the millionaire porker, who was so mysteriously killed seven years ago at Hannibal, Mo., began today. It will be a struggle of unusual bitterness, involving as it does the mysteries and passions of seven years' standing. Each side is confident of victory, but the state has seemingly been weakened by the severance of the cases of Dr. Hearne and his wife.

Col. Nat C. Dryden, of St. Louis, is leading counsel for the defense, and with him is associated David A. Ball. The state's case is in the hands of "Reuf" Pearson, prosecuting attorney of Pike county, assisted by H. Clay Heather and ex-Congressman Champ Clark.

The jury was secured and sworn today. Of the twelve men nine are farmers, and all are among the best people in the county.

A Pretty Immigrant Missing.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—Superintendent Frederick Alexander of the Soldiers' Home, called upon Deputy Commissioner Sweeney at the Immigration department today in regard to the case of a pretty immigrant girl named Lottie Langelm[illegible], who, he claimed, had been abducted somewhere between New York and San Francisco. Lottie, he said, is 18 years old, a Swede, and well educated. She arrived here in November, and gave her destination as the home of her relative, Miss Johnson, No. 34 Sacramento street, San Francisco. As the young woman had money, friends in the West and a ticket for San Francisco, the Ellis island officials passed her and she started on her journey West. Before going she telegraphed that she was about to start. This is the last that has been heard of her for three weeks.

The Populist Program.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 11.—The Populist senators held a final caucus today and decided to place a full ticket in the field for Senate officers, for whom they will vote and will then step out and allow the Republicans to proceed with the organization.

Durrant's Death Warrant.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11.—The attorneys for Theodore Durrant today moved for a writ of probable cause for error to prevent the prisoner's removal from the county jail to the state prison at San Quentin. The court denied the motion, and subsequently signed Durrant's death warrant, fixing Friday, February 21st, as the date of the execution.

In Our Great Grandfather's Time,

big bulky pills were in general use. Like the "blunderbuss" of that decade they were big and clumsy, but ineffective. In this century of enlightenment, we have Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which cure all liver, stomach and bowel derangements in the most effective way.

Assist Nature a little now and then, with a gentle, cleansing laxative, thereby removing offending matter from the stomach and bowels, toning up and invigorating the liver and quickening its tardy action, and you thereby remove the cause of a multitude of distressing diseases, such as headaches, indigestion, or dyspepsia, biliousness, pimples, blotches, eruptions, boils, constipation, piles, fistulas and maladies too numerous to mention.

If people would pay more attention to properly regulating the action of their bowels, they would have less frequent occasion to call for their doctor's services to subdue attacks of dangerous diseases.

That, of all known agents to accomplish this purpose, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are unequaled, is proven by the fact that once used, they are always in favor. Their secondary effect is to keep the bowels open and regular, not to further constipate, as is the case with other pills. Hence, their great popularity, with sufferers from habitual constipation, piles and indigestion.

A free sample of the "Pellets" (4 to 7 doses) on trial, is mailed to any address, post-paid, on receipt of name and address on postal card.
