NEWS OF THE WEST.

Shocking Murder and Suicide After a Drunken Spree.

AFTER SAN JOSE MILK SELLERS.

Encouraging Stock Report From Wyoming—A Suicide Kills a Chinaman, etc.

There are now just six even hundred prisoners in the Lansdale (Wyo.) penitentiary.

San Diego, Cal., is rustling for the establishment of a Chinese north and south road to do city. They say they subscribe $50,000.

Cattle and sheep men of Wyoming and surrounding states are seen to be extremely merry at present. Cattle are in better shape this spring than for a number of years, while sheep have wintered exceptionally well and are in the condition to be driven on the spring ranges.

During a row at Oroville, Cal., between a Greek and some Chinese fishermen, the Greek shot one of the Chinese in the stomach, inflicting a fatal injury. The Greek escaped, and the Chinese are now searching for him. Some of the Chinese of stealing a yoke of oxen from him.

Professor L. C. Hill, of the electrical department of the School of Mines, at Golden, Colorado, presented the Eve entertainment on Saturday. The program consisted mostly of new to connection with the arc solidifier was placed in position and trial tests made. The result will, in a short time, furnish the city light.

The Anaconda Company of Montana is said to be completing for a pumping engine that will be capable of raising its capacity weight from a depth of 3,000 feet. It is to be placed on one of the hill properties belonging to the company. The contract for the erection of machinery will not be closed for thirty days yet.

Much of all kinds have wintered exceptionally well so far, the rangers, says the Rawlins (Wyo.) Journal. While nearly 20,000 head of sheep are being grazed in the Red desert, yet the losses of the winter, and sheep will be only normal. The money harvest from these live stock interests will swell the coffers of their owners this coming season.

An ordinance will be submitted to the common council at San Jose, Cal., which gives the entire supervision of the milk business under the control of the board of health. Milk must not contain more than 87 per cent of water and 13 per cent of solids, of which 4 per cent must be butter fat. The sale of milk from cows fed upon distillery superintendent's grains is to be prohibited.

A jury in the circuit court at Helena, on Saturday gave a verdict for $5,000 damages in the suit of W. F. Norris against Liesby for damages sustained by his young son, who was injured by a piece of rock falling on his head. The rock was blown into the air by a blast set off by men making improvements under the direction of the street commissioner. The boy was severely bruised but from the place of the falling.

At a meeting of horsemen of Lonsdale, Cal., it was definitely decided to hold a week of horse-racing this summer. As near as can be ascertained at present date, it will take place about July 4th. Ground was leased and a number of prominent citizens of Lonsdale have raised $5,000, which will be expended at once in the preparation of a horseshoe and grand stand. Efforts are being made to secure entries from over the state.

One day last week, at the Rocky Bottom (Montana) mine, Mr. Wm. Young informed one of the leading workpieces of that valley received an offer of $2.50 per head for a flock of 1,200 two and three year old steers from a Texas party. He replied he thought he can get these steers, and he has only such, would not be had one cent on the $2.50 per head. Just such steers as these sold last year ago in the Big Horn Basin for $1.50 per head.

Cabot (Nev.) News: Hon. H. F. Bartle will soon leave Carson to locate in Salt Lake, where he will practice in partnership. Nevada can ill afford to lose a man, but since his appointment for financial success will be greatly increased by the change, we cannot but wish him success. We are sorry to lose a man of his talent and ability will be appreciated in his new home, and we only much more whether or not Nevada realize how great their loss will be.

The Mountain Home (Idaho) Republican gives the following: "Mike Andler, Wednesday, was called to the old mine commissioners for his acreage. The amount due the county was fixed by the commissioners at $4,750.74, against which he was allowed to a credit of $1,600.00 as salary. Mr. Wheelhouse also issued to Warrants for jury certificates to the amount of $1,000.00, leaving a net balance due the county of $2,150.74, which was paid, and the commissioners assured that he thanks for favors."

On Friday night near Sacramento, in the western part of Montana, A. R. Young shot and killed Charles McCullough, using a shotgun. Time for such a telegraph's home, forty-two a Wednesday, and pulling the trigger with his own foot off. He was wanted by the sheriff for some time past for selling liquor without license. Young had been drinking quite hard, but had not quarrelled. On his way home they stopped at a ranch house, McCullough was wanted to drink and asked Snelling to hitch up and he would stay in the house while the latter was hitching up. Words ensued in angry dwelling and he got in the shot. McCullough leaves a widow and two children.

Even a great whale says the Port Townsend, once which will be a thing of the past in Puget's capital city. The hotel, was so good street was blockaded on each side by cement walks. The law wanted by the ordinance for approximately stated. It possesses the advantage of Rome to enjoy the comforts of good sidewalks, and the municipality have expressed their willingness and anxiety to take the matter advantage of its wise provisions. The method of paying for walks is very usual. Instead of being a tax upon property owners it is entirely real the expense, while the value of the property will be enhanced in general there will cost of the walk. It is also been said are months. The work has decided to take active steps in carrying about the contemplated improvement.
