FAMILY QUARRELS.

More of Them Aired Before the Courts Today.

SEVERAL DIVORCES ARE GRANTED.

The Sharkey, Lee, and McKibben Cases Up—Sale of Davis Stock by the Receiver Extended.

The chief topic in both branches of the Third district court today was family troubles, resulting in divorce suits, which are becoming abnormally frequent in this part of the country.

BEFORE JUDGE MERRITT.

Judge Merritt's branch opened business with a divorce suit of Maria Lee vs. James M. Lee. Mrs. Lee testified that she had been separate from her husband because he did not provide for her. In May last, said Mrs. Lee, her husband had drawn a revolver on her, and a few days later had knocked her down and kicked her. Her mother testified that Mrs. Lee was badly beaten, and that witness was also beaten by the defendant. The court granted a decree of divorce.

Following this, the receiver in the case of Geo. W. Ludlow et al vs Benj. Davis et al, W. H. Lott, reported having sold the store fixtures for $180, and having received bids for the stock of goods. The highest bid was that of J. W. Fox, for $1,430.25. The receiver asked that this be accepted. This was opposed by attorneys for creditors who would not get anything if this bid were taken, and who urged that higher bids could be obtained to the extent of $1,[illegible] or $1,[illegible]. The court extended the time for further bids until next Wednesday, at 6 p.m.

A. J. Pendleton et al vs E. E. Cassidy et al, judgment for plaintiffs.

BEFORE JUDGE BARTCH.

Judge Bartch's first rulings was on the warmly contested Sharkey divorce suit. The judge awarded Mrs. Sharkey a decree on the ground of desertion and failure to provide. He recommended the attorneys of the respective parties to come to an agreement as to property division, and gave them opportunity to consult over the matter. If they fail to reach a harmonious conclusion, the judge will settle the business himself.

Orders were then made in the following cases:

James M. Eardley vs Girda M. Anderson; order appointing Charles W. Moore referee.

Deseret National Bank vs Burton-Gardner company etal; set for hearing on Saturday next.

E. P. Dodge Manufacturing company vs Ben Davis; default and judgment.

Next came the dispute between C. L. McKibben and Isabella McKibben. The husband sues for divorce and custody of child. He alleges that his wife committed adultery with one H. E. McNeeley, and other persons.

Mrs. McKibben denies the charge of adultery, and says that her husband treated her in a cruel manner, striking her and threatening to take her life. She says he has threatened to commit suicide, and that she was obliged to leave home to prevent her husband killing her. She therefore asks for a divorce, for the custody of the child, and alimony.

Witnesses then testified for the plaintiff. It was said that Mrs. McKibben stated that McNeeley had proposed that she leave her husband and he would provide for her, if she would live with him, although he had a wife; but that she had rejected this proposition, as she was innocent of the charges made against her. She was crying some of the time when making these statements, because of the trouble with her husband. There were many suggestions of improper conduct, but no direct statements. It was said that the defendant used language which was far from being choice.

The case was still in progress this afternoon.

"How shall the cross the people's rights maintain?" Never better than by advertising Dr. Price's Baking Powder.

The Contributor.

The July number of the Contributor is an exceedingly interesting publication, as may be gathered from the following list of contents:

Brimhall; Music: Love's Call, John J. McClellan Jr.

The Eisteddfod.

Preparations for the great Eisteddfod to be given under the auspices of the Cambrian association of Utah and adjoining states and territories, and the Tabernacle choir, at the Tabernacle on Thursday and Friday, October 3d and 4th next, are being pushed vigorously, and indications are that it will be the grandest musical event ever held west of Chicago. A number of choirs, military bands, soloists and others have already entered the competitive list. Mr. H. J. Thomas of this city leaves next week for Wyoming, Idaho and Colorado as advance representative to see that these points are properly and well represented.

Police Court Items.

The afternoon session was the only session of the police court held today.

Jim Carlisle was fined $5 for being drunk.

John Doe, arraigned for the same offense, was discharged.

T. Graves, another drunk, was fined $7 or seven days.

John Doe and H. Bybee each left $2 for violating the bicycle ordinance. L. Pratt was fined $2 for the same offense.

John O'Neil, Frank Williams, Frank Carson, A. B. Moore and Louis Doe were each fined $2 or two days for stealing a ride.

Laura Decker was charged with soliciting prostitution. Attorney Stephens was counsel for the defense. Officers Roberts and Gillespie stated that they followed the defendant last evening, and she with a man finally went into a house on First West, between First and Second South streets, where they found her in an almost nude condition.

The defendant took the stand and stated that the man had accompanied her to her house and had left before the officers arrived, and that she was guilty of no offense.

The court found the defendant guilty and she was fined $10.

SEALSKIN AND BEAVER.

Climate of San Francisco with the Attractions of the Great City.

Notes Regarding Utonians in California—Progress of the Missionaries—The Students.

Editor Deseret News:

It may be interesting to many of the readers of the News to hear from these parts, to know what we Utonians are doing in this far-famed land of fruits and flowers. To begin with, just now we are having what Franciscans call delightful weather, as there is a heavy fog enveloping the city, and naturally it cools the atmosphere. To us it seems very strange to see people wearing sealskin capes and beaver wraps in July, but such may be seen any day here, while it is a very rare thing to see any one with light colored clothing. Coming to such a warm land, naturally I expected to wear a straw hat, but that particular kind of head gear attracted so much attention on the street that I found it more comfortable to follow the style.

Our party of six left Ephraim, Utah, Wednesday, June 26th, 1895. We stopped in Salt Lake City, two days sight-seeing, when three of the company started for their home in Chicago, and the others came this way. Our stay thus far has been most interesting and pleasant, for to a cosmopolitan seacoast city like this, there is so much that is new and strange to the average Utonian; and to the live student it is as good a school as one can attend for a short while. What with her business and bustle, the foreign air and manner of many of her people, her beautiful bay, with its dozens of steamers and hundreds of sailing craft of all kinds and sizes; her far-famed Sutro Heights with the beautiful Cliff house and the rocks near the shore alive with numberless seals and sea lions, to say nothing of her parks, gardens and countless other attractions, San Francisco is indeed an interesting and attractive city.

One of my first errands after getting located, was hunting up our boys, the missionaries. They, of course, were very pleased to meet someone from home, and had numerous questions to ask of this and that. All of the brethren are in good spirits, and all are well excepting Brother Wollaston, of Layton, Davis county. He has been here but a short while, and has not yet become climatized. He is cheerful and expects to feel all right in a few days.

The California mission, Elder Henry S. Tanner, of Payson, presiding, is in a prosperous condition. There are thirteen Elders and one Sister laboring here now, and the work is growing every day. The Sabbath school and Mutual Improvement associations are doing much good, and are a great factor in sustaining the Elders in their labor.

The splendid spiritual meetings held at Calanthe Hall, 909 Market street, are evidence that the boys are alive to their duties, and energetic in the spreading of truth. Sister Bewcroft, of Ogden, will be a great help to the cause, for with her in charge of the musical exercises of the meetings they will become much more attractive. Brother Hyde, of Ogden, who has just graduated from the medical department of the University of California, is about to return home. He will be greatly missed by the Latter-day Saints here in their gatherings.

The Utah people at Stanford University are doing credit to themselves and their state by their energetic efforts, and the marked progress they are making in their several courses of study. John Swenson, of Pleasant Grove, who is taking the literary course, is now at the city and county hospital, having had a bone tumor removed from his knee. He has been confined about three weeks, but is now nearly well, and will soon resume his studies again. The Elders here invite correspondence of friends at home, and especially from such who have relatives and friends in these parts.

Respectfully,

ENOCH JORGENSEN.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 10, 1895.

In the world of leavening agents Dr. Price's Baking Powder stands alone for perfect purity.

Personal Paragraphs.

Sheriff McKellar, of Tooele Co., is in town. He is here tracking up cattle thieves who have been operating in that section. It is supposed to be the same gang that have been taking in Davis Co. of late.

H. Driffield, of San Francisco, M. Batty, of Chicago, and J. B. French and C. H. Baddeley, of Champaign, Ill., are at the Knutsford.

There are present at the Templeton, Mary C. Lawrence, Edna Wilson, Clara Wilson and Helen Wilson, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Arthur G. Garton and J. W. Rafferty, of New York City; T. T. Crandish, Lansing, Mich., N. A. Gudger, Ashville, N. C., G. L. Carter, Ft. Worth, Texas, and H. I. Howe, Winona, Minn.

J. R. Stephens, of Bingham, and W. W. Howe, of Whitehall, N. Y. are guests at the Walker.

The following are at the Cullen: Cora Peters, Alice Cowper and Elizabeth Gemmell, of Calcutta; Mrs. M. E. Rebohman and the Misses Flaaly, of New York city, V. L. Thomas, of Eureka, and Elijah Farr, of Ogden.

Sheriff Edmington, of Morgan county, is in town. It is surmised that he is here to look into the case of the cattle thieves arrested here about a week ago, in the hopes of landing some of them in jail for depredations committed in that county.

DEMOCRATS GATHER.

Mrs. M. Isabella Horn, F. W. Chappell, Mrs. Eliza Judd, Samuel Francis, Mrs. Electa Bullock, John T. Caine, Mrs. T. A. Whalley, W. N. Dusenbery. John T. Caine moved that all resolutions be referred to the committee on resolutions without debate. H. J. Dininny opposed the proposition and moved to lay it on the table. Carried.

A recess was here taken until 2 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Platform of Principles Adopted Unanimously—Silver and Suffrage Sentiments.

This afternoon witnessed another great outpouring of people. From 2 o'clock until 2:30 the consolidated bands of Salt Lake and Ogden filled the Theater with the best of music which at intervals was applauded to the echo.

As the convention was called to order by Judge Henderson J. H. Letcher arose and said he desired to make a motion. The Democracy was growing so fast at the present that it might well be called a bicycle Democracy that would win all prizes handicap obstacles notwithstanding. There was in the audience among the delegates a veteran Democrat of the most pronounced character. He was eighty-four years of age and his name was Hadley D. Johnson (applause). He moved that he be invited to a seat on the stage. Carried.

TWELVE HUNDRED AND ONE.

The committee on credentials submitted the following report which was unanimously adopted:

We, your committee on credentials, beg leave to submit the following report showing the number of delegates entitled to seats in the convention as follows:

Beaver, 2; Box Elder, 39; Cache, 38; Carbon, 6; Davis, 47; Emery, 19; Garfield, 2; Grand, 1; Iron, 5; Juab, 23; Kane, 1; Millard, 3; Morgan, 10; Piute, 2; Rich, 2; San Juan, 1; Salt Lake, 550; Sanpete, 10; Sevier, 11; Summit, 11; Tooele, 13; Uintah, 3; Utah, 140; Wasatch, 19; Washington, 1; Wayne, 2; Weber, 183. Total, 1201.

PLATFORM AND RESOLUTIONS.

The committee on platform and resolutions by its chairman, C. W. Pearce, reported a declaration of principles which, among other things, affirmed undying allegiance to the Democratic party; that the source of power in the United States was in the people; that the Constitution was supreme in its sphere, but that each state was supreme in its own affairs; that taxation was robbery unless levied for legitimate public purposes; that the money of the United States was gold and silver and government paper redeemable in coin; the free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver was a public necessity and should be resumed at the ratio of 16 to 1 without waiting for the consent of any foreign government; that all citizens are equal before the law and have a right to its protection when obedient to its requirements. The elective franchise is the greatest privilege of citizenship. It should be bestowed without discrimination on account of sex. We approve of the action of the Democratic party of Utah in extending to women equal political rights and privileges with men. It is but just that they should be permitted to vote for state officers and for the ratification of the constitution at the election next November, and, if the Enabling Act will permit them to do so, we insist that the right be secured to them. Adopted unanimously.

The following resolution was offered by Mr. Daly:

Whereas, The Democratic party believes in the everlasting principles of righteousness, truth and gratitude as taught by its founder and patron, Thomas Jefferson; and

Whereas, The Democratic society of Utah in convention assembled acting on those principles, deem it meet, just and opportune to show our appreciation to our political leader who by his untiring industry, political sagacity and masterly eloquence has made Statehood possible for us; now

Therefore, be it resolved that we extend to the Hon. Joseph L. Rawlins our most hearty thanks for his successful efforts in obtaining Statehood for Utah.

Adopted.

On motion of Judge Judd the following committee was named on permanent organization: O. W. Powers, David Evans, Martha Hughes Cannon, Geo. W. Thatcher and A. W. Ivins.

On motion of Judge O. W. Powers, Judge Judd was added to the committee by unanimous consent.

On motion Judge W. N. Dusenberry was also added to the committee.

PERMANENT OFFICERS CHOSEN.

The committee on organization reported the following list of persons for permanent officers of the society: H. P. Henderson, president; Zina D. H. Young, first vice president; Moses Thatcher, second vice president; Euretta La Barthe; J. W. Whitehead, secretary; Electa Bullock, treasurer; Governor Caleb W. West, national committeeman. Adopted.

COUNTY VICE PRESIDENTS.

The following county vice presidents were then named:

Beaver, G. H. Fennemore; Box Elder, F. H. Hallan; Cache, William Haslam; Carbon, B. F. Coffy; Davis, T. H. Phillips; Emery, A. B. Wall; Garfield, Joseph Houston; Grand, O. W. Warner; Iron, Charles Adams; Juab, F. W. Chappell; Kane, ——; Millard, Alma Greenwood; Morgan, Andrew Rasmussen; Piute, Samuel L. Ray; Rich, A. C. Call; San Juan, F. A. Hammond; Salt Lake, D. C. Dunbar; Sanpete, Ferdinand Ericksen; Sevier, W. A. Hague; Summit, Frank Wilson; Tooele, A. J. McCuistion; Uintah, Hardin Bennion; Utah, A. J. Evans; Wasatch, W. M. Buys; Washington, Isaac C. McFarlane; Wayne, Ben Pelli; Weber, Joseph H. Perry.

Mrs. Zina D. H. Young, who received a glowing introductory tribute from Judge Judd, was speaking when the News went to press.

It's sheer waste to use low grade baking powders. Dr. Price's is the highest in quality.

Land Office.

The following filings were made in the local land office under date of July 13:
