PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, Sept. 24, 1894.

The Missing Boy.

In Friday's NEWS there appeared an article relating to the boy who was a short time ago found dead in Millard county, and who was at first supposed to be Martin Peck, of Provo. The article stated that the dead boy came from Provo but that it was not his home. This is an error. Mart. Peck was born here about 14 years ago and has lived here most of the time since then. His mother died, and his father, E. M. Peck Jr., married again and is now living in Richmond, Cache county. Since his father moved away the little lad has been living with relatives here. His father's parents live in Provo and his mother's parents at Provo bench.

For some time before he left Provo he had been making his home with an aunt, Mrs. Ed. Carter. He was seen by a Mr. Chossley who, it is understood, is interested with Mr. Parkin in the sheep business in Millard county, to go south and herd sheep, and left in company with Mr. Chossley for that purpose. The relatives of the boy, strange to say, have not been notified by Mr. Chossley of his death, and all their information on the matter has been received through the public press. They, however, think the dead boy is Martin Peck, and that Mr. Howes is mistaken in thinking it is his missing brother.

Notes.

Haverley's minstrels will appear at the opera house tomorrow (Tuesday) evening.

Adelbert Roundy, 22, and Josephine Twisselt, 18, both of Springville, have received a license to wed.

The slogan of the C. E. Loose Republican marching club is not "Harrison is your sompanion but it, not Carnitie, but "Clamon."

The Primary associations of this city will hold a fair in Thompson's building, on Center street, commencing Tuesday, September 25th.

Phil Speakert had a cart and harness stolen from his barn in the Fourth ward Friday night. At the same time two horses were taken from James Smith's barn north of town. No trace of the thieves has been found so far.

Albert Fisher and Aaron Fisher, partners as A. Fisher Brewing co., have commenced suit against J. L. Taylor & Co., of this city, for $101, with interest from January 1, 1893. The amount claimed is for goods, wares and merchandise sold defendants. Thurman & Wedgwood are attorneys for plaintiff.

Jos. Olsen, charged by his father-in-law, Sotrine A. Clausen, with battery, came before Justice Wedgwood Saturday. The testimony showed that the old gentleman had used some bad language in regard to Olsen. Olsen had taken hold of Clausen and asked him what he meant, and a scuffle had ensued. Justice Wedgwood considered it such a case of family jars as should never be brought to court, gave the parties a straight talk in regard to their future behavior, and dismissed the case.

TERRITORIAL PARAGRAPHS.

According to the Millard Progress, the Wheal in that vicinity is reported to be badly sprouted.

Coalville Times: Allen Jacobs the other evening succeeded in murdering another chicken that had been playing hide-and-seek in his hennery for several nights. He sighed him on the hillside with a fat owl in his grasp, and securing a rifle pumped him full of lead. The thief proved to be another wildcat. This is the second one that has been killed in this neighborhood during the past couple of weeks.

Payson City Times: A miners' meeting was held here last Friday evening. The organization of the Payson mining district was effected and by-laws accepted. A meeting of the organization will be held Monday evening to further the cause.

The benefits of spraying orchards can be seen in Payson at harvest time. In some places where trees were sprayed only once there is a lack of codlin moth. Where sprayed four times no worms can be found. Next season every man owning an orchard will spray it thoroughly.

Eureka (Utah) Democrat: We are reliably informed that the management of the Keystone are seriously contemplating the placing of a mill on that property. There is already sufficient milling ore in sight to keep a mill grinding for many years, and the claim is comparatively young, with lots of virgin ground to be prospected.

V. L. Thomas and Chief Hogan are grading the road to the Alice and are preparing for the new 80 horse power engine. An air compressor is to be a part of the new plant. Sinking will be commenced soon and prosecuted as rapidly as money and well directed labor can do it.

Johnny Davis brought in some slow looking specimens of gold ore from the Emerprise group, which lies near the Utah tunnel in North Tintic, and owned by Bennett and Schmidt Bros.

Manti Sentinel: Two little boys, Charles Tuttrow and Jesse Cundell, were riding a horse a few days ago belonging to Nephi Johnson, when they got to into a bull from going away, when the vicious animal turned and gored the horse to death. The boys escaped unhurt. The hide was secured.

Nephi Courier: The other night an outdoor concert was started in the W. J. Nicholls property, occupied by Miss Grace McKune and Miss Lettie Blomquist, caused by the lace curtains catching fire from a match. The flames spread to a dressing case and did considerable damage, destroying nothing but jewelry. Miss Blomquist was severely burned on the arms. The lace was extinguished without any further damage. The loss amounts to about $100.

Manti Messenger: Dr. W. J. Hoggan was called to Fayette last Saturday night. Antonio, son of John C. Mellor, fell through a wind, breaking his leg and thigh. The boy is now getting along as well as can be expected.

The Manti football team will play a match game with the Salt Lake club at the Fair grounds in Salt Lake City during the Gentiles' Fair week.

It is understood that Joseph Judd has been recommended by the Democratic party of Sanpete for the position of Probate judge.

George Huggan has the misfortune to break his right arm while sparring in the canyon. He was acting when a falling tree struck him. After getting from under the tree he walked to Manti and sent a message sent to Dr. Oakes at Spring ville. The arm was set on Friday, and the patient will soon be all right.

Mount Pleasant Pyramid: Seventy-five sacks of sheep and cattle have been shipped from points on this branch this month, twenty-eight of which were loaded at this station.

H. Whitaker has returned from an extensive trip through southern Utah in the interest of the Mt. Pleasant Wool and Live Stock Commission Co. He says there will be a large shipment of stock from that section this fall, and he expects the company here to transact more of it. Sheep men have had a splendid season.

Thomas Dring states the honor of raising the largest beet in Sanpete county is his. He pulled up a beet the other day that measured 17½ inches in length, 42 inches with the top. A portion broke off and remained in the ground, which would have added several inches to the length of the vegetable. The beet measured 22 inches at its greatest circumference, and 11 inches at the small end.

Payson Daily Times: Mr. Simmons while returning from Spanish Fork yesterday, met with a severe accident. His team was running the city the king bolt of the buggy broke and let the running gears separate, the tongue part falling to the ground. The lady was thrown from the buggy to the ground, and she was more or less bruised and bruised about the face.

Leni Dancer: The canning factory of James L. Keenan leased here was not longer the summer on Monday last. The purchaser was the company which owns a town in Mr. Keenan some time ago. This has placed the entire control in the hands of this company, who are all Lehi men. It is not intended to operate the plant this season. A move will be made to start it up next. The company did a wise thing in making a purchase of the plant, and can be congratulated for its foresight.

The oldest son of Mr. Geo. Zimmerman while in the West canyon the other day, cut his foot across the instep with an ax. The cut is a very severe and painful one.

The sugar factory will probably commence cutting beets next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Superintendent Granger will assign the employes to their various places and arrange the day and night shifts. Nearly forty Lehi farmers have been notified to commence delivering their beets, and the weigh-master is busy. A sufficient number of cribbs have been erected to furnish ten car loads a day, and from this on until some time in January there will be no rest at the factory. As we go to press we receive word that the beets that have been taken up so far have a very lovely appearance, and everything is running at the factor.

PUTNAM NAIL CO., Boston, Mass.:
GENTLEMEN: Nothing is now heard of the little black colt, which I had sent the Putnam Nail Co. last winter. Suffice to say, he grew into an honor where I was always sure he would be, and, since the Putnam (Hammer-Pointed) Nail I was presented, White Stockings, which is good, I know what they are, and cannot offer a better recommendation. Very respectfully yours,
Chas. Morrow

The Putnam Nail is the only exclusively Not-Forged and Hammer-Pointed nail.

Look in your smith's choicing box, if the nails have smooth edges for the whole length they are the PUTNAM, for they are Hammer-Pointed and are not smeared.

This shoe picture, from a photo representing Mr. Sonner as he set off leading the colt with a Putnam nail, will be represented in the shoeing of Sunol, will be seen on the turn of a half mile, sec. 4:45, on block, when passed, with who sought, on trough of 2 mile stake for passage, etc.
