DESERET EVENING NEWS.

Wednesday, August 2, 1893.

FRAGMENTS.

THERE will be another session of the Third district court until Saturday next.

THE county clerk this morning issued a marriage license to John J. Spencer, 41, and Mary Ann Hammond, 44, both of Salt Lake City.

CHIEF JUSTICE ZANE went to Ogden this morning for the purpose of holding court, Judge Miner not having yet returned from the East.

The members of the Nineteenth ward and Sunday school are enjoying themselves at Garfield beach today. A fine program has been arranged.

THE Springville Milling company filed its articles of incorporation with Territorial Secretary Roberts last evening. The capital stock is $15,000 and the object of the organization is to construct and operate flour mills and conduct a general flouring business at Springville. The officers and directors are D. D. Home, Provo, president; Isaac Liddle, Manti, vice president; W. H. King, Provo, secretary and treasurer; Alonzo Hatch, Heber, and S. R. Thornton, Provo.

AMUSEMENTS.

The arrangement of the repertory for the engagement of Daniel Frohman's Lyceum Theater company next week will be as follows: Tuesday, the opening night, the play will be Americanus Amous, by Victorien Sardou, the success of the season just passed with this company. Wednesday night the popular play The Charity Ball. Thursday night Boucicault's old comedy Old Heads and Young Hearts, with the costumes of 1833. Friday night, The Wife, the first of the Lyceum company's successes here. Saturday night, farewell performance and first time here of the comedy The Grey Mare, preceded by a curtain raiser, White Roses. The utmost attractiveness has been given to this engagement by a nightly change of bill with no repetitions, two new comedies being offered. There will be hardly a single performance which any friend of this company will feel can be omitted. The company includes all the favorites of the last visit and a few new faces which have already been received elsewhere as worthy members of this admirable organization.

Today's Probate Court.

Estate of John W. Carr, deceased. The matter was continued till August 23rd.

Estate of Frank Crocker, deceased. Hearing on citation to file account continued till the 9th inst.

Estate of Charles A. Johnson, deceased. Tuesday, August 22nd, set for hearing account of administrator.

Bowman Bounced.

It was 6:30 o'clock last night when the members of the joint city and county building committee emerged from Mayor Baskin's office after a long and interesting session.

The following resolution was adopted:

Be it, therefore, resolved, Three days having expired since the service of said notice, that the employment of the said Jackson Bowman as the joint city and county building be and the same is hereby terminated and that the city and county shall forthwith, as provided in said notice of said contract, enter upon the premises and take possession of said building and of materials therefor, and employ another person or persons to finish the work and to provide materials therefor, under the terms and conditions specified in said notice, and that the clerk of this committee serve J. H. Bowman with a copy of this resolution.

COPPER PLANT RAILROAD.

The Streets Upon Which Messrs. Stallman and Estes Want to Build and Operate.

The amended application of Otto Stallman and Stephen A. Estes for a resolution granting a franchise for the operation of a street railway, electric or cable, will probably come before the City Council at the meeting on Friday night next. The franchise is asked for under the usual restrictions and the first part of it is as follows:

Be it resolved by the City Council of Salt Lake City, that Otto Stallman and Stephen A. Estes, their successors and assigns, have the authority and consent of the City Council, and the permission is hereby granted them, to construct and operate by electric or cable motive power a single or double track street railway, together with all the necessary switches for the accommodation of said road, on the following streets of said city, namely:

First—Commencing at the Warm Springs, and running thence southwesterly along the county road to the intersection of the county road with Ninth North street; thence running west along Ninth North street to the intersection of Ninth North street with Marion Boulevard; thence north along Marion Boulevard to the intersection of Marion Boulevard with Everett street; thence west along Everett street the west line of the Kinney & Gourley improved city plat; thence west along the proposed continuation of Everett street, to be dedicated to the public as a street, to the intersection of the proposed Amos avenue, also to be dedicated to the public as a street, with Everett street; thence north along the proposed Amos avenue to Amos avenue as now on record in Kinney's Copper Plant subdivision No. 2; thence north along Amos avenue to the intersection of Amos avenue with Bleecker street; thence west along Bleecker street to the west line of Kinney's Copper Plant subdivision No. 1.

Second—Commencing at the intersection of Third West street and Fourth North street, thence running west along Fourth North street to the intersection of Ninth West and Fourth North street; thence along Ninth West street and Ninth North street.

TO CONDEMN LAND FOR SEWAGE.

Resolution Providing That City Warrants be Accepted in Payment of Licenses and Taxes.

Last night's meeting of the City Council was a typical retrenchment session. It was twenty minutes to nine o'clock when enough members arrived to make a quorum for the transaction of business. At that time, on motion of Rich, Mimnoff was called to the chair, President Lorenzo being absent. The members who responded to roll call were: Rich, Folland, Hardy, Mason, Horn, Rose, Bassmann, Evans.

Councilmen Bell, Wandland, Lawson, Kelly and Loofbourow came later.

Absent—Kathan.

THE PROCEEDINGS.

Rich moved that the rules be suspended and that the retrenchment report be taken up. Lost on a vote of seven to three.

Mary S. J. Auer asked for a reduction on sprinkling tax on account of inability to pay. Committee on sprinkling.

Orson Pratt et al asked that the laying of the sewer along Sixth East street from South Temple to First South street be deferred for one year owing to scarcity of money. Committee on sewerage.

Sarah Pearson asked for the release of certain property sold by the city for unpaid taxes. City attorney.

William Armstrong made a similar request. Same reference.

Hall M. Jones sent in a communication announcing the acceptance of his electrical power franchise. Filed.

E. Bingley and others asked for a larger flume on Eighth South and State street. Committee on irrigation.

D. C. Watt and others asked permission to connect their waterpipes on Paxton avenue with those of the city. Committee on waterworks.

MONSON'S MANY LICENSES.

Frank Monson represented that his Bijou hotel, merchants' and amusement licenses would expire on midnight of the present year; that on July 29th all of the places of business where those licenses said good were closed and would remain unopened until September 11. He asked that they be suspended until that time. Committee on license.

SEWER LAND PROPOSITION.

C. J. and W. A. Thomson sent in a communication offering the city 200 acres of ground for a sewer farm on the banks of the Jordan near the outlet of the gravity system. The price asked is $27.50 per acre. Special sewer committee.

THE BOND BID WITHDRAWAL.

The communication sent into the council by Bondmyer Devitt on the 20th inst. withdrawing the bid of N. W. Harris & Co. for the city bonds, was read and ordered filed.

ALSO WANT MORE TIME.

James M. Wardrope and others asked that the laying of sewer mains on Second South between Third and Fifth East streets be postponed until some time in 1894, at which time they hoped to be better able to pay the assessment, a thing they claimed they could not do at present. Committee on sewerage.

GALEY'S LAST REPORT.

Deputy Dog Tax Collector Galleazzi sent in his last report as follows for the month of July: Number of dogs registered, 141; males and 17 females. Taxes, $705; number of dogs destroyed, 159, $47.50.

On motion, $250 was appropriated to Mr. Galleazzi.

JOHNSON, HIS SUCCESSOR.

The recorder sent in a communication announcing his appointment of Bruce Johnson as deputy dog tax collector to succeed Sam Galleazzi, resigned. Mr. Johnson was give police powers. Committee on police.

WATERMAINS EXTENSION.

The superintendent of waterworks recommended that the watermains extension asked for by F. Rosser and others be made on the north and south sides of the canal so that the mains are. Committee on waterworks.

SEWER EXTENSION.

Superintendent of Sewers Shelton handed in a statement of the cost of sewer extension No. 18 on the east side of Second East, between Third and Fourth South streets, at $[illegible]. Length of extension, 322 feet; cost per foot, $[illegible]; actual cost per linear foot, $2.93; also Temple block extension on the east side of West Temple street, between South Temple street and North Temple street, at $[illegible]. Length of extension, 261 linear feet; actual cost per linear foot, $1.58. Laid over one week.

SEWER CLOSETS.

City Engineer Downess submitted a communication from Architect Dalton in relation to the superiority of the Melvey water closets. Committee on sewers.

EXTENSION DECLARED.

The mayor gave notice that sewer intention No. 52, for the extension of sewers on the north side of Second South street, between Fifth and Ninth East, had been published, and that a protest sufficient to defeat the intention had been received. Filed.

AFTER THE STREET RAILWAY.

City Engineer Downess represented that in with the neglect of the City Railway company to pave that portion of the streets occupied by its tracks, the cross walks of the various street intersections are left in a dangerous condition, in view of which he advised that authority be given the board of public works and the engineer to have all such walks completed at once by the contractors for other portions of the work, and that the bill of cost for the same be presented to the railway company for payment. Board of public works.

A NEW STREET SWEEPER.

Frank Hines, street superintendent, asked for an additional street sweeping machine. Committee on streets.

PETITION DENIED.

The city attorney reported adversely on the petition of Brigitte Williams, who asked that the collection of the sidewalk tax be deferred for one year. Adopted.

GRAND YARD HARBORS ROBBERS.

City Sexton Offenbach sent in the following: "The cemetery department is in need of one double harness, some person having stolen the set from the barn the evening." Committee on cemetery.

NOT IN FAVOR OF RICE.

The city attorney reported adversely on the petition of Ephraim Rice for a perpetual license to sell. Same to Kinney & Gourley's improved plat, and for leave to build. Adopted.

JOINT BUILDING REPORT.

The report of the clerk of the joint city and county building committee of a meeting held by that body on the 25th ultimo, as published in the NEWS on the day following, also an account of the proceedings of a meeting held on the 1st inst. were read and discussed pro and con for more than an hour, after which it was referred to the city attorney with instructions to report at the next meeting of the Council.

GRADE STAKES.

The committee on streets reported recommending that the petition of Jedediah Stringfellow and others for grade stakes on South Temple street between State and Third East street be granted. Adopted.

THE SIDEWALK PAVING DIFFICULTY.

The special committee appointed to confer with the city railway officials on the matter contained in a resolution by President Loofbourow reported as follows: After several conferences with the officers of the company we find that the present financial stringency is the principal cause of failure to bring about an amicable settlement of the difficulties in the way of paving between the tracks. As a result of our mutual efforts the company have submitted for the consideration of the Council a proposition looking to an adjustment of the difficulty. We therefore recommend that the Loofbourow resolution be laid over pending the consideration of the proposition submitted by the company and that it be made a special order of business for Friday night next.

The report was lost on a vote of 7 to 5.

THE CITY WILL DO IT.

The Loofbourow resolution was then adopted on a vote of 7 to 5. It provides that the city shall do the paving and charge up the same to the street railway.

STILL AFTER THAT $25,000.

The committee on finance offered the following:

Be it Resolved by the City Council of Salt Lake:

That the finance be and is hereby authorized to deliver to George A. Lowry, Spencer Clawson, J. S. Gibbons, J. J. Gray, C. F. Loofbourow, W. H. Rose and L. C. Kerrich, trustees created by a resolution of the City Council on February 16th, 1893, twenty-five of the coupon city bonds of the issue of July 1st, 1892, of the denomination of $1000 each, upon the return to the city treasury of the $25,000 to be issued in their hands and now held by the said trustees by virtue of said resolution, appertaining thereto as aforesaid, and bonds to take the place of said sum of money.

Adopted.

FAILED TO CARRY.

Committeeman Rich's resolution providing for the drainage of the committee was defeated.

LAND COMMISSIONERS.

Hardy offered the following:

Be it resolved that the City of Salt Lake, through its Mayor, at once take steps to purchase the west half of the west quarter of section 21, township 1 south, range 1 west, belonging to the estate of F. Crocker, deceased, for the use and benefit of the city gravity sewer.

Referred to the special committee on sewerage.

Evans offered the following, which was referred to the committee on finance:

Resolved, That the treasurer and mayor be and they are hereby authorized to receive city warrants in payment for licenses and city taxes.

Adjourned till Friday evening.

Held to the Grand Jury.

It was late yesterday afternoon when the case against Levi Bechtel and John Hoss, the alleged Texas cattle thieves, was submitted to Commissioner Pratt, whose mind was soon made up. He held both defendants to await the grand jury's action, Bechtel in a bond of $1000 and his principal companion in the sum of $500. Being unable to furnish security they were returned to the county jail.

Hangings in England.

During the nine years from 1884 to 1892 inclusive 226 persons were sentenced to death in England and Wales for the crime of murder. Of those 115 were hanged in one county, two were pardoned, in ninety-five cases the sentence was commuted to one of penal servitude for life, eight of the condemned prisoners were adjudged insane after sentence, and seven were let off with minor terms of penal servitude. Thirty of the murderers were of or under the age of 21. In fifty-nine cases the victims were children under the age of 12, and there were twenty-two cases in which young women murdered their illegitimate children.

FREE LECTURES.

The celebrated Oriental Seer has been delighting the people the past week with the most masterly scientific lectures on human life and health ever given here.

His experience on the platform is truly remarkable with rapid rules of age, sex and plan of life; gold and silver medals embossed in massive gold and based with dazzling gems, and enameled jeweled badges of ancient hieroglyphics, whose mystical tellings astonishes everybody with a magnificent stream of diplomas, medals, rubies and other precious stones. He speaks with graceful ease and a magnetic force that fascinates the audience; also brought all hand drawings with colored crayons such as hand descriptions equal interesting and easily comprehended, as well as pleasing work.

His first revelations and miraculous delineations are the powers of ordinary human understanding and farther on the supernatural.

His private lectures to ladies Saturday afternoon was well attended by the ladies of our best circles who speak in high terms of praise of the valuable information derived, and the lecture to gentlemen only, Saturday evening, was a rare treat to every one present and was of inestimable benefit to all as well as young men.

He continues at the old Federal Court Room in the Wasatch Block every night this week, and gives another private lecture to ladies Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock and gentlemen only at 8 p. m. Thursday.
