DESERET EVENING NEWS.

Wednesday, - - February 28, 1894

FRAGMENTS.

Home missionary meeting this evening at 7 o'clock.

Chief Justice Merritt will start in with the hearing of civil jury cases tomorrow.

Patrick T. Tomlinson has appointed a deputy marshal at Ogden for United States Marshal Brigham. He will begin work at once.

The regular monthly meeting of the Twenty-third quorum of seventies will be held in the Seventh ward meeting house tomorrow (Thursday) evening, commencing at 7 o'clock.

At 7 o'clock this evening a special train will leave this city over the Union Pacific railway for Sandy. It will have on board a party of Elk Knights of Pythias. The purpose of the visit is to organize a new lodge at that place, and to attend a banquet.

The Marysvale Reservoir company has filed articles of incorporation with the county clerk. The incorporators are James A. Chute, William M. Hicks, Charles A. Ames, and Willis A. Ames (Salt Lake) and James A. Melville, of Pilmoore. Capital stock $50,000, divided into 50,000 shares of the par value of $1 each. The company intends to establish dams for the storage of water and the reclamation of arid lands, on the east side of the Sevier river, near Marysvale.

Salt Lake Stake Conference.

The semi-annual Conference of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion will convene in the Assembly Hall, Salt Lake City, on Friday, March 2, 1894. Meetings will be held as follows: Friday, Saturday and Sunday at 10 a. m., 2 p. m., and 7:30 p. m. The regular business pertaining to the Priesthood meeting will be attended to on Friday morning.

A general attendance of the Priesthood and people is desired.

The different Stake organizations are particularly requested to have full and complete reports ready in time for the Conference.

Angus M. Cannon,
Joseph E. Taylor,
Charles W. Penrose,
Presidency of Stake.

Notice to Seventies.

The First Council of Seventies are endeavoring to collect all the old Nauvoo, Kirtland and other records pertaining to Seventies, up to 1560 and 1892, and would be pleased to have all persons and quorums in possession of any such records forward the same to our general secretary, Elder John M. Whitaker, No. 324 Constitution building, Salt Lake City, Utah, for filing away for reference and historical purposes.

These records are of value most in the general office, and we hope we may be able to gather all such for filing away in the proper place.

Seymour B. Young,
In behalf of the First Council of Seventies.

MUNICIPAL MATTERS.

The Appointment of Chas. H. Wilcken as Watermaster, Confirmed.

PLUMBING INSPECTOR DISCUSSED.

Resolution by Clawson Regarding the Question of Residing Beyond the 4 Per Cent Limit, Defeated.

The City Council met in regular session last night, President pro tem Young in the chair. All of the members were present except Cohn.

THE SEWER CLEANSING.

Petitions were read and referred to the proper committees as follows:

H. W. Lawrence asked that gas be lighted in his cellar for the payment of taxes.

J. H. Walker protested against the proposed sprinkling around block 4, plat A, giving as a reason that said block is unimproved.

E. D. Swan asked for relief from a tax sale.

Francis Pilloch and others asked that the sewer lateral on the east side of Second South street in District No. 4 be laid, so that they be allowed interest on $241.05 paid by them for that purpose.

William Armstrong asked for relief from a tax sale.

Allen A. Hunt protested against the payment of his sidewalk tax on First South and Eighth East streets, saying that the work was worthless.

James Hughes asked for permission to Respread a cemetery bonding on Second West, between Third and Fourth South streets.

Samuel H. Carlisle asked to be appointed to the office of city sexton.

Mary V. Hempstead asked that her name be erased from a petition recently presented to the Council relative to improving First North street, between First East and West Temple streets, stating that her name was secured by misrepresentation.

A. D. Allen et al represented that certain amounts were due them for work under St. V. Lorimer on the Calmes-Jennings paving contract, and protested against the company being paid unless the said amounts were deducted. The total sum alleged to be due was $274.95, and the petitioners asked that they would hold the city accountable for the same.

Charles Brockett et al asked that the grading of Grant street be proceeded with.

John R. Winder et al asked that the Rapid Transit company be compelled to put their track in the center of North Temple street.

FROM THE CITY ATTORNEY.

On recommendation of the city attorney an order was made requesting the Mayor to execute a quit claim deed to certain property in block 24, plat D, to J. J. Dake.

PETITIONS GRANTED.

The petitions of J. Schenk, Clothilde B. Double and Miss Nellie Wells for relief from tax sales were granted.

BILL HOOKER VANDERCOOK.

Thomas Hull was appointed to succeed J. H. Vandercook as clerk in the office of city engineer.

THE JAIL FOR PROSECUTOR.

A communication from the county clerk accompanied by the jail for prosecutor was received and filed.

ENGINEER'S REPORT.

City Engineer Young sent in a communication in which he asked that he be permitted to employ an assistant engineer, a draughtsman, chief rodman, leveler, inspector of streets, carts, two engineers in sewer jewer, two laborers and such additional help as was necessary to carry on the duties of his office.

SHALLENGER CONFIRMED.

The appointment of John Challenger as chief clerk in the fire department was confirmed.

BUILD A NEW OFFICE.

Chairman Dowdan, of the board of public works, sent in a communication in which he requested that the board be furnished with new office quarters. The board was ordered to move into one of the city offices on Commercial street.

REPORT OF PLUMBING INSPECTOR SHALLENGER.

The office of plumbing inspector was abolished retiring Joe Sagwitz to the walks of private life.

SCHOLES & SPENCER SUE.

Mr. Scholes was appointed a special prosecutor.

WILL NOT ABATE.

The petition of Lydia Turpe for sprinkling the streets was tabled.

THE BOULEVARD QUARRIES.

The committee on sewer recommended that the petition of Thomas Jennings and others relating to the appointment of money on the Boulevard be confined to that portion passing over the city grounds. Adopted.

PRICE PETITIONS.

It was proved that the number of taxpayers at the tax sale back to recommend to sell that the bookkeeper, city patrol, hostler, bookkeeper and his assistant and stenographer be discharged and that a bookkeeper be employed at $75 per month. Adopted.

WILCKEN IS WATERMASTER.

The appointment by the mayor of Charles H. Wilcken as Watermaster was unanimously confirmed.

BOND SALE CONFIRMED.

The ordinance confirming the sale of bonds to Blair & Company was passed.

SOWER WORK.

Frank Monroe, proprietor of the Commercial stock show house succeeded in getting the Sigel Farmer for his entertainment that had been denied him by the mayor. It was granted on the following vote:

Ayes—Banks, Clossmann, Cohen, Daly, Lynn, Morris, Newell, O'Meara, Remington—8.

Nays—Clawson, Hardy, Young, Wilcox—4.

THE SEWERAGE ORDINANCE.

The bolcraft ordinance was laid on the table again for another week.

PRIVATE OFFICE FOR PRATT.

Chief of Police Pratt was granted permission to turn a private office adjoining the quarters occupied by the engineer.

IN GOOD CONDITION.

The resolution providing that steps be taken to improve all of the sewer heating in the Capitol grounds was adopted.

CLAWSON FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

Clawson offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the question of holding back home City for some time, for a period of two or three years, be referred to the registered voters.

The resolution was accompanied by the unpleasant statement of reputation.

[illegible]

Total expenditures for the [illegible]

Where shall a reputable citizen of Salt Lake go to expenditure for entry working city in the month of April?

If new roads are opened to the East, there would be a further saving of $[illegible] thereby increasing our annual contributions to Zion's [illegible]

The capital force on the account and per cent would be:

[illegible]

The subscribers would, on a population of 60,000, pay one of $[illegible] for every man, woman and child, and a church tax city so are [illegible] of the [illegible]

If we merely show time in the [illegible] to go to the [illegible] and to call [illegible] Kimball, Jr. [illegible] and should [illegible] to [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]