FOR GOD AND HOME AND EVERY LAND.

CHICAGO, Ill., October 15, 1893.

All lovers of humanity will rejoice at the successful efforts of the World's Woman's Christian Temperance Union, of which Miss Frances Willard and Lady Henry Somerset are President and Vice-President, who, with their splendid force of "White Ribboners" and their millions of friends, are carrying an philanthropies which must make all heaven glad. Mrs. Mary Clement Leavitt, honorary president, was the dear sweet "mountain week" missionary who, in seven years of loneliness and hardship, planted our work in every land. Miss Jessie Ackerman, the sweet California girl; Dr. Kate Bushnell, Elizabeth Wheeler Andrew, and Alice Palmer have followed in her footsteps and will now go crowing reports to the second World's and Twentieth National W. C. T. U. Convention at Chicago, October 18-25.

Among the most interesting exhibits at the World's Fair will be that of the W. C. T. U., under the able supervision of Mrs. Josephine R. Nichols, Madam Demorest—whose unbroken record begins in the Demorest office as compositor—and Mrs. F. M. Pierce, who are trying all to have brought our organization before the world. Under the charge of Mrs. Alice Briggs there is the immense petition to all the governments of the world pleading for the prohibition of the traffic in liquor and opium, signed by over 4,000,000 people, circulated eight years to more than 350 countries and estimated to be fifteen miles long. Miss Willard and Lady Henry Somerset will, it is hoped, lead a large delegation of W. C. T. U. women and present it to every ruler in the world, when it will take its place in the British museum as the largest petition known in all history. Mrs. Mary H. Hunt, World's W. C. T. U. Supt. of Scientific Temperance Instruction, in her fine exhibit, shows the splendid endorsements of the law in forty states requiring that children be taught in the public schools the evil effects of liquor, opium and tobacco. This entire display will probably be taken to the California Mid-winter Fair and will be viewed by thousands more who seek the sunset clime where flowers are in perennial bloom.

The World's W. C. T. U. was well represented in the Columbian congress under the supervision of Judge B. C. Comey and Mr. Clarence Young. Mrs. Esther Palmer, and Mrs. Charles Henrotin were ably seconded by Mary A. Woodridge, Mrs. Clara H. Dunn, Mary T. Lathrop, Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens, Mrs Belle Kearney, Rev. Anna Shaw representing our cause. Social purity was represented by Anna Powell, Mrs. L. B. Gregory, Anna Bishop Ireland, Mrs. Lydia A. Trescott and "Mother" Prindle of the Florence Crittenden Missions. Judge Comey says that all friends of temperance wishing to have congressmen requesting them to have published by the United States government the valuable papers presented at these world's congresses, which will be an encyclopedia on all subjects. Among the many enterprises home has given the W. C. T. U. such a monument standing as the magnificent temple in Chicago founded by that center of homes, Mrs. Matilda B. Carse. The building cost $1,200,000. The rent roll, when all offices are occupied, will amount to $250,000 annually. The rentals are now $170,000, which gives a large surplus above expenses. When the building is free the rentals alone will pay for it in a few years and then the society will have the splendid income to be used in pushing the forty lines of work against the liquor traffic. The financial plan has been approved by such thorough business men as George M. Pullman, P. D. Armour and Thomas B. Bryan, vice president of the Columbian Exposition. The press, the pulpit and our great leaders are in every way. All wishing to help this work, or any other, can send contributions to the World's treasurer, Mrs. Ella F. M. Williams.

The association does an annual business of $125,000, doing a vast deal of book publishing for churches of all denominations who thus help the W. C. T. U. It also publishes the Union Signal and World's White Ribbon official organ, a large sixteen page paper, with its subscription list of 80,000, thus reaching over 400,000 people every week. Its editors are Frances E. Willard, Lady Henry Somerset, Margaret A. Poldoth, Harriet B. Kelly and Ada M. Melville, Twoodie editors, Mary Allen West and Julia Ames, have heard the message "Come up higher." The W. T. P. A. also publishes the famous literary magazine Our Day, edited by Joseph Cook; the Oak and Ivy Leaf, edited by Jennie A. Bowser, the Young Crusader and Advance Guard, by Alice M. Guernsey and other books and publications.

Now realize the power of the press more than these were written are Miss Irene Fockler, Associate Superintendent Press for the World's W. C. T. U. and Miss Lodi Bird of the National issues the publishing of temperance items in lots of thousands of newspapers, for which they wish to publicly thank "the editors."

Among the many books published in the interest of temperance none are more helpful to the cause than Francis E. Willard's Glimpses of Fifty Years—her autobiography; U. W. Hoxie's valuable work—Women of the Century, containing biographical sketch of the noblest Christian Ethnic—Mrs. Lettie Yoemans, historian; President Carnahan, W. C. T. U., Joint Patron—A. M. Barnes, World's Grange—Eva Griffith Sec., Number One Hall—John G. Woolley and all in the first lines in society and Dolly in Girls, and Florence Gilmore, Missions—Mr. Chas. N. Crittenden, and shows as the millionaire evangelist, who gives all his time freely to evangelistic work and for years to honoring Fraternal Crittenden employments are sent to the assembly, and thirteen of these mission for the rescue of erring girls, five under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., in whose behalf Mrs. Emily Pitt Stevens, the "Temperance Joan of Arc," Mr. Crittenden, his distinguished, as before, the two shining heads, "Around the World with Jesus" and "Traffic in Souls," will both be sold for the benefit of the mission. The latter is a thrilling picture of the life of Jesus and white slaves and their rescue through the Florence Crittenden missions. In spite of the large crowd of the United States the W. C. T. U. will largely be represented in house hold, Miss Frances Ellen Watkins Harper, Miss Willard, the "Queen of the Ind wings," "Woman's Woman's work enjoy." The Mary Bible Institute of Chicago is doing a marvelous work for women by training students of young people by aggressive work for the home. The female forum, Miss Susan B. Anthony superintendent, sends out more of speakers who are making a mighty temperance work. One of the most simple which is to be given World's W. C. T. U. Convention in the most fitting is to begin will be the presentation to the city of Chicago of the beautiful Grant Wilson bronzes purchased with the last cent placed in the exchequer of the "Loyal Temperance Legion" of which Miss Anna Gordon is world's superintendent. It will be placed at the entrance of Willard hall, The Temple, where some prayer meetings are held, that preaching "the gospel of peace."

Reports on all the very line of work will be given and to show the Ark jubilee will be packed with the three cents that said to know "what the W. C. T. U. is doing anyway."

SEE WHAT IT HAS DONE FOR ME.

I am happy to say that I am now free from the dead. A few months ago I had given myself up to die, and for more than 2 years of Milton Geneva Mineral Water, from Hiller's, New York, I died at the Wood House in Portland, Oregon. I felt the agent I had been afflicted for many years with, what is called Cirrhosis, or hardening of the liver, also diabetes, that I had lost fifty pounds in weight in 3 months. I felt that I would soon pass from this sphere. I have spent thousands of dollars on doctors and medicine, and all to no avail. I was so bad or worse at that time that I never had hope, and was sorely troubled at the end of the last six years. Well, to make a long story short, by the time I have used five gallons of the Geneva Water I had almost forgotten I was sick, and felt so well about it that I had to tell everybody I met, and say to him while using I have used fifteen gallons of the mineral water, and of a truth can say that I am completely well. Before using the Geneva Water I had to take morphine to get any sleep at all, and now certainly the mineral water I can sleep as well as I ever did. Oh, friend, all you that are afflicted and suffering with Urinary Troubles or Stomach Affections of any kind, the Geneva Mineral Water will cure you. It has cured me.

Come and see me and judge for yourself, and I will tell you all you want to know about the Geneva Mineral Water. It is for sale at my address: 109 Pacific Ave., Salt Lake City. Don't forget that it is for male and female.
