DESERET EVENING NEWS

TO-DAY'S WEATHER REPORT.

Observations taken at 6 a. m., mountain time.

Salt Lake City—Barometer, 25.97 inches; thermometer, 72 degrees; relative humidity, 44 per cent; wind, southwest; rain since previous report, 0.00 inch; weather clear.

SYNOPSIS.

An area of low barometric pressure still hangs over Southern Arizona and the pressure is also low over the northwestern portion of the United States. A ridge of comparatively high pressure extends from Portland, Oregon, to Southern Idaho, and thence southward over the Great Basin. The temperatures at 5 a. m. throughout the United States east of the Rocky Mountains ranged from 54 deg. at Sun Prairie, Col., and Leadville, Colo., to 84 deg. at Florida, Ark., and Gainesville, Tex. The city records of Salt Lake City and Salt Lake City received .01 inch, Boise .02 inch, Lander and Medicine Bow .04 inch, Cheyenne .06 inch, Northern Montana and the Dakotas .10 inch south of South Dakota.

Forecast for Utah: Fair weather at San Francisco for 36 hours ending Tuesday morning.

Cloudy weather and Tuesday, the primary temperature.

Local forecast for Salt Lake City and vicinity for 36 hours ending Tuesday:

Fair tonight and Tuesday; no change in temperature.

L. H. MCADIE,
Section Director, Weather Bureau.

No Metal Quotations Today.

SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

The actual, bona fide circulation of the Semi-Weekly edition of the News, (separate and apart from the daily) was, on the last issue,

12,515 COPIES

The largest circulation of any paper between Denver and the coast. Books open to advertisers.

The following figures give the number of the Semi-Weekly News printed on the first and fifteenth of each month since the paper changed hands on January 1, 1899:

January 1, 1899	10,200
January 15, 1899	10,775
February 1, 1899	10,425
February 15, 1899	10,600
March 1, 1899	10,750
March 15, 1899	10,850
April 1, 1899	11,325
April 15, 1899	11,850
May 1, 1899	11,950
May 15, 1899	12,050
June 1, 1899	12,300
June 15, 1899	12,525

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The "News" will celebrate the Fourth of July.

There will be no issue of the "News" on Tuesday, but we again Wednesday.

The regular meeting of Volunteer Firemen's association will be held this evening.

M. Justice Pendleton of New England was a caller in the courts in the joint city and county building yesterday afternoon to see his way to Virginia.

MRS. T. M. GOODE of Pocahontas, Arkansas, mother of Assistant County Attorney W. M. Goode, is in the city visiting her son. The lady is seventy years of age and is remarkably good health.

Josephine Violet, the two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Harmonson died yesterday at the family residence, 1 Ivy place, of cholera infantum. The cause of her demise was especially sad.

T. G. Gimpel, a wealthy Utah banker and sheep owner, came to Lower yesterday, accompanied by his wife. They visited Saltair and spent the day in this city. They leave tomorrow with their daughter, Rev. A. J. Stone, 237 Marion street.

E. F. Sigler, who is connected in Professional Work with the Deseret Gym, is in the city, and meets with praise that he has been a steady subscriber of the "News" since the first issue. At the time he has been our agent for the paper.

The first recommendation of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy by the Druggist-Journal Publishing Co., Cleveland, Ohio, Eric Taylor of Buck, Grant county, and Henry Fox of Pomeroy, Morgan county.

It is reported that Hon. James Wilson, secretary of agriculture, is now on his way to Utah. He will be here about the 20th, shortly after he returns from a tour of President McKinley's cabinet. At that time he will visit the Utah experiment farm and inspect other parts of the western farm and irrigation system for his Department. While here he will probably visit the Lehi experiment farm. That, it is said, will be the object of his next trip.

The Mutual Life Association of Utah is about to publish a pamphlet containing a special schedule for the accommodation of the United Order Companies. The pamphlet will be ready for delivery in a few days. It will be sent free to any address. There will be more than 400 U. O. organizations, and we will have every one supplied with the pamphlet. Address Mutual Life Association of Utah, Salt Lake City.

Dr. Dorr was summoned yesterday afternoon to attend the infant child of Mr. Fallon, who was the victim of a serious runaway accident. Mr. Fallon recovered with a broken leg, and was taken to his residence, 20 Pierpont avenue, for his wife to care for him. While conveyed home from the hospital Mrs. Fallon took sick and the case became so critical that Dr. Dorr was called in. The child died at 8 o'clock. Mr. Fallon was taken home on Friday, since the accident. The child was about three months old.

The remains of Mrs. Anna E. Steele Rock, formerly a prominent lady of this city, reached here yesterday by the Union Pacific from Denver. The funeral will take place from the residence of her father, Robert Rock, 1 Ivy place, this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The deceased died at Denver on Friday morning, after a long illness. The cause of her death was a cancerous growth. The deceased was married to Mr. Steele in this city about two years ago. Her husband survives her. The deceased was a sister of Mrs. Dr. Dorr, Mrs. Dr. Ellis, Mrs. Dr. Ellis, Mrs. Dr. Ellis