

mended that the petition of the deputy watermasters for increased pay be denied. Adopted.

ANOTHER POLICEMAN.

The committee on police recommended the appointment of an additional policeman to be stationed in the vicinity of the Utah and Nevada depot. Adopted.

ONE TRACK IS ENOUGH.

In the matter of the application of T. H. Bowman and Welby, asking for a franchise for a railroad on Eighth South street, the street committee recommended that in order that the contractor of the joint city and county building may not be delayed it is necessary that proper railroad switching facilities shall be provided, that no action be taken on the petition at present and that the city attorney be requested to notify Contractor Bowman that the track constructed by him on Second East street must be used so as to facilitate and not obstruct traffic; and to notify the Utah Central Railway Company that its road must be put in condition immediately and switching charges made reasonable to accommodate the transfer of traffic to and from other railroads so as to render an additional railroad track on Eighth South street unnecessary. Adopted.

FOR PICNIC PURPOSES.

The Evangelical Sunday schools were granted the use of Liberty Park for picnic purposes.

TO REDEEM SOLD PROPERTY.

Cotess and Corum were allowed to redeem certain property which had been sold for taxes.

WATER MAIN EXTENSION.

The petition of John Snyder and others, asking the extension of water mains on First North and Third West, was granted.

FIRE INSPECTOR'S SALARY.

The committee on finance recommended that the salary of the fire inspector be placed at $600 per year.

Loofbourow moved that action be postponed until the ordinance fixing the salaries of city officers should be passed. Carried.

POVERTY STRICKEN SALOON KEEPERS.

Collier & McAfreys request for a refund of their liquor license was granted on account of poverty.

AUDITOR'S REPORT.

City Auditor Raybould submitted the following financial statement for April:

RECEIPTS.

Liquor License.....	$ 9,150 00
Part payment 1891 bonds.....	7,500 00
Street paving.....	7,073 38
Sewer tax.....	5,949 32
Watermain extension tax.....	3,961 33
General license.....	3,439 05
Sidewalk tax.....	1,477 10
Fines.....	1,362 05
Carbing and guttering.....	765 24
Cemetery.....	671 30
Dog tax.....	486 01
Tax sales.....	445 60
Water rates.....	429 75
Waterworks.....	263 16
Engineering department.....	214 70
Sewerage.....	182 15
Rent.....	100 00
Poll tax.....	77 20
Streets.....	25 00
Interest.....	20 98
Sprinkling tax.....	9 90

Total.....$44,610 71

DISBURSEMENTS

Waterworks department.....	$ 18,894 48
Fire department.....	6,134 21
Street department.....	5,582 59

Police department.....	4,514 93
City and County building.....	4,309 61
Salaries.....	4,101 13
Parley conduit.....	3,117 24
Street lighting.....	2,567 60
Health department.....	1,999 30
Engineering department.....	1,935 10
Cemetery.....	1,883 47
Jordan canal.....	1,300 25
Watermaster.....	1,266 60
Assessor and Collector office.....	1,024 00
Sewerage department.....	1,023 49
Prison department.....	555 62
Expense department.....	559 27
Legal expense.....	500 00
Surplus canal.....	299 82
Liberty Park.....	292 30
Printing and advertising.....	264 30
Hospital.....	259 53
Sidewalks.....	231 03
Rent.....	160 00
Gas.....	152 00
Dog tax.....	108 50
Claims.....	103 20
Parley canal.....	55 75
Expense.....	30 30
Fines.....	27 60
Estray pound.....	5 70

Total.....$63,122 73

SUMMARY.

Balance in treasury April 1, 1892.....	$18,639 03
Additional receipts.....	44,610 71
Total.....	$63,254 71
Deduct disbursements.....	63,122 72
Balance in treasury May 2, 1892.....	$130,116 02

Received and filed.

CONTINGENT FUND.

A resolution was offered by Messrs. Bell, Heiss and Wantland appropriating $500 out of the general fund which is to be expended by the Mayor for "the best general good of the city, in such cases of emergency as may arise and may, in the judgment of the Mayor require immediate expenditure of money. Adopted.

FIXING THE SALARIES OF CITY OFFICERS.

The finance committee submitted the following ordinance fixing the salaries of city officers and employees:

Mayor, $2,500; recorder, $2,400; treasurer, $2,400; Assessor and collector (to be fixed each year on his making return of assessment roll); assessor and collector's chief clerk, $1,800; assistant clerk, (if necessary), $100 per month; city councilmen, each, $250 per annum, and $5 additional for each special meeting; auditor, $1,800; deputy recorder, $1,200; recorder's clerk, $1,000; typewriter and office boy for recorder, $600 per annum; collector of licenses, $1,500 per annum; license inspector, $600; assessor and collector of water rates, $1,500 per annum; collector of dog tax, half of collections; city attorney, $2,500 per annum; assistant city attorney, $1,500 per annum; marshal and chief of police $2,400 per annum; captain of police, $120 per month; sergeant, $110 per month; patrolmen; first year $1,080, second year $1,200, supervisor of streets, $2,000 per annum; collector of poll tax, $3.00 per day; superintendent of poll tax, $3.50 per day; teamsters, $1.75 per day; guards of chain gang, when required, $4 per day; assistant guards, when required, $2.50 per day; cart men, $1.75 per day; watermaster, $2,000 per annum; deputy watermaster, $2,000 per annum; park superintendent, $2.50 per day; workmen, $2 per day; superintendent of sewers, $2,000 per annum; city sexton, $1,200 per annum and commission on sale of lots as provided by ordinance; superintendent of waterworks, $2,000 per year; foreman, $3 per day; valve men, $2 per day; valve masons, $3 per day; reservoir keeper, $2 per day; reservoir guard, if necessary, $2 per day; chief of the fire department, $2,000 per annum; city engineer, $3,000; sealer of weights and measures, fees as provided by law; pound keepers, ditto; justice of the police court, $1,500; clerk of said court, $1,200; inspector of buildings, fees as provided by ordinance.

Section 2. Such salaries shall be paid in equal monthly installments and shall remain as the salaries of such officers and employees until changed by the City Council.

Under a suspension of the rules the ordinance was passed to the third reading.

Wantland moved that the salary of the assistant city attorney be reduced from $1,500 to $1,200 per annum. Lost.

On motion of Loofbourow the ordinance was referred to the committee on municipal laws.

Before the above motion was carried Rich suggestively and ironically said he thought it would be a good idea to have printed copies stricken off and furnished to all of the councilmen inasmuch as he had not had the privilege of perusing it as some other members had. So ordered.

GLENN'S CLAIM.

Ex-Detective Glenn sent in the following, which went to the committee on claims:

SALT LAKE CITY, May 3, 1892.

To the Hon. Mayor and City Council:

Gentlemen—Your petitioner respectfully represents that he was appointed by the Mayor and City Council on the 20th day of May, 1890, to the office of mounted policeman, at a salary of $110 per month; that he received said salary until the first day of April, 1891; that he was ordered by the chief of police to report for detective duty on the fifth day of April, 1891, which he did, and that his pay was reduced to $100 per month from that time to the present; that my appointment as mounted policeman has never been revoked by the City Council, neither was any action by them reducing my salary; that there is now due me from the city the sum of $126.33 1-3 on account of said unwarranted reduction by the chief of police, and the further sum of $40.31 2-3 being balance due for month of April, 1892, making a total due me of $166.65.

HIS RESIGNATION.

The same gentleman submitted the following:

To the Hon. Mayor and City Council:

Gentlemen—I hereby respectfully beg leave to tender you my resignation as mounted policeman, to take effect on the 20th inst.

Thanking you for the many courtesies extended to me, I remain, respectfully yours.

Trusting that your honorable body will take steps to settle this claim, your petitioner will ever pray. Respectfully yours.

Committee on police.

THE NEW BONDING ORDINANCE.

The ordinance authorizing the issuance of an additional $600,000 came up on its third reading and was referred to the committee on municipal laws.

WENT OVER AGAIN.

The Colonel Murray Deep Creek Railway franchise came up again and was referred to the committee on municipal laws.

City Attorney Hoge reported that he had had the judgment of John R. Wilson satisfied. Received and filed. Also, that in his judgment the city engineer be empowered to employ a sufficient force to survey the land in actual cultivation by Allred and others who have brought