...ed States Peremptory Possession of Manila and Entry Into Spanish Citizens Ok.

Washington, Aug. 5.—When the Presidential message was sent today to the senate and house of representatives, it was generally understood that the Spanish commissioners would be given to understand that the American commissioners would not be willing to enter into a long discussion of the Philippine question, and that the President would be willing to accept or reject the terms of the protocol as a whole or not at all.

It is believed herein to be better that the commissioners not have to wait for the stage of negotiations that would be reached if a point was first made of modifications of the protocol, and then the question of modifications of other clauses should be raised. It is thought that the Spanish commissioners will be given to understand that the United States government is willing to discuss the question of the Philippines, but that it is not willing to be drawn into a long discussion of the question of the Philippines
