HOME WEDDINGS LAST NIGHT.

Two Happy Couple Commence Married Life Under Auspicious Circumstances.

The handsome residence of Captain and Mrs. Joseph R. Coles presented a pretty picture last night on the occasion of the marriage of Miss Cleo R. Hooper to Mr. Ernest R. Eldredge. The ceremony was performed by Chief Justice Zane and was witnessed only by immediate relatives and friends. Mr. Eldredge is the son of the late H. B. Eldredge, while his bride is the daughter of the late Hon. W. H. Hooper, one of Utah's representatives in Congress. Mr. and Mrs. Eldredge start on their journey with bright prospects for the future, and that their fondest anticipations may be realized is the hope of a host of friends.

THOMAS LAWRENCE.

Bishop H. A. Woolley of the Twenty-third ward officiated in the ceremony that bound Mr. E. Thomas to Miss Kate Lawrence together as man and wife. The wedding occurred at the residence of the groom's parents on Ninth street and was followed by a most agreeable reception and supper. Guests were present to the number of about 125 and all joined hearts in congratulating them on the threshold of the matrimonial state which it is hoped will not smoothly and happily over a sea of troubled bliss and prosperity. The groom is well known as an active and enterprising young man while the bride is one of Denver's prettiest and accomplished daughters who has wisely thought Salt Lake the prettiest and most desirable of all home cities. The wedding guests dispersed at midnight after an enchanting serenade by the famous K. of P. band.

Compliments to the S. P.

Lehi, Oct. 27, 1897.

To the Editor:

Being a comment on the Southern or Central Pacific Railroad company paying back money to the Jubilee commission, and speaking about many harsh things being said about the company, I wish to state that while on my mission to the state of California I had occasion to travel much, both on the main line and also side branches, and must say our Elders are treated very courteously by the officials, from the head office in San Francisco to every conductor or agent on the line. Shortly after Elder Nye took charge of the mission permits were issued to us at half fare to go anywhere our duty called us, and for the treatment I received, especially from the employees of the Southern Pacific, where I had my headquarters most of the time, I shall always speak well of the road, and I believe as will all the Mormon Elders.

Yours for fair play,
T. F. TIANE.

Returned from the South.

Elder W. L. Openshaw of Santaquin, Utah county, was in the city today and called at the "News" office. He returned on Oct. 20 from a mission to the Southern States, on which he started on Dec. 2, 1895. His labors were in the Mississippi conference, and he was kindly received by the people and met with good success as a missionary. He reports the work there as progressing quite favorably, and with bright prospects. Elder Openshaw was released a short time earlier than is the usual rule, owing to sickness in his family. Two of his children died during his absence, the last one of them being a victim to typhoid fever, and being buried one week before he reached home. Sister Openshaw is now severely ill, but it is hoped that she will speedily recover.

More Happy Parents.

Alfred O. Pollard of the "News" composing room, and his wife are a happy couple. Today their first-born, a fine baby boy, made his appearance in the household. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

GARDEN CITY GLEANINGS.

A Splendid Wedding Reception—Bishop's Counselors Selected.

Garden City, Rich Co., Utah, October 24, 1897.

To the Editor:

The marriage of George Calder to Miss Treebie Hoth last week in the Logan Temple, as announced in your issue of Friday last, was made a splendid affair after their return home last Thursday. Invitations were issued to a host of friends of the young and happy couple to attend the wedding reception given in honor of the occasion at the home of the groom's father, Brother Robert Calder, and on Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock, about eighty people sat down to the immense tables which fairly groaned under the bavarian spread prepared for the guests. The bride and groom sat at the head of one of the large tables, and to a stranger it presented a lovely picture to see expressing it very nicely. The wedding cake was a magnificent piece of cookery and reflected great credit upon its makers. The presents received by the happy couple were many and varied and will give them a good start in housekeeping. The attendance at the supper was well attended and most all seemed to enjoy it very much. Many were the congratulations and good wishes bestowed upon the young as recently made one. Miss Annie Fox, a cousin of the bride, from Pocatello, Idaho, was present at the occasion.

On Tuesday the people of the city were favored with a visit from the president of the stake. They came up to complete the organization of the subpastor of the ward which was begun last May by installing a new bishop. He has been acting without counselors until now and this meeting was for the purpose of choosing the necessary two. Bishop Wright, with James H. Hart of the presidency was the first speaker and gave some good, sound counsel. Elder Wm. L. Rich followed by Elder Wm. L. Rich. Then came a discourse from Elder Wm. Budge, who spoke of the duties of the bishop and counselors, and how if these brethren would be much appreciated by the people.

The business of the meeting was then announced and George A. Whittaker was established as the first and Elder Byron Cook, who recently returned from a three years' mission to New Zealand, now continued as second counselor to Bishop Weston, which leaves the ward now born is a fully organized unit. The Garden City people are most universal satisfaction among the people.

The weather has been very cool and stormy for nearly a month past. Threatening snow and has compelled owing to the bad condition of the roads.

The health of the people is generally good. Only a few cases of chills and fever the past week.

Bishop Weston and wife expect to move in a few days to Logan, where his relatives in Logan if the weather does not turn too severe.

Sister Josephine Dyer is slowly improving from her recent severe illness. This will be good news to her many friends.

Brother John Nogus and his estimable wife and family are expected home after a year's absence in Plain city, Utah. E. VATERLAUS.
