THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

The Great Country Paper of the West.

Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Van Wagoner Convalescent—Game Warden George Van Wagoner of Wasatch county is convalescent from appendicitis at the Groves L. D. S. hospital.

Painter Falls From Scaffold—Henry Barnett, a painter, fell from a scaffold yesterday afternoon in the Christian Science church, receiving several severe cuts about his head.

Friday Evening Service—The Congregation Montefiore will have an English sermon, congregational singing and a children's choir at the Friday evening services. Tonight's sermon will be on "An Ancient Story Viewed in a New Light." Services will begin at 8 o'clock p. m. All are welcome.

Sheep Held up in Ogden—The government inspectors held up a train load of sheep at Ogden in transit east from Ely, Nev., as some of the animals were found suffering from the leg and lip disease. The shipment was allowed to proceed after the affected animals had been cut out of the bunch.

A Heavy Lead—A correspondent from the flourishing little town of Holden, Millard county, writes The News as follows: "The good work The Deseret News is doing is certainly appreciated here. At the present time The News has 50 subscribers in Holden, and not a single issue of any other paper is taken here."

Sheepmen Neglectful—The state veterinarian very much regrets the lack of interest among local sheepmen in the leg and lip disease among sheep, which is becoming a serious matter. He says he has also found among owners a regrettable ignorance as to methods of procedure at such times as this, particularly in the matter of notifying the authorities.

Dies After Long Illness—Miss Beulah E. daughter of E. F. Mills of 208 north State street, died yesterday, aged 19, from the effects of an operation some years ago, from which she never fully recovered. The family has been unfortunate, in that Mrs. Mills died last spring, and now a second member has been called away. The funeral was held at 2 p. m. today from the residence, with interment at Mt. Olivet.

Poultrymen to Have Fine Show—At last night's meeting of the Utah Poultry association, it was claimed that the next annual exhibition of the association will be the best ever held. An effort will be made to make of the coming show a school for judges. It is said that $3,000,000 is paid each year for imported poultry products for the Salt Lake market; but the Utah association will endeavor to increase the home output, so that such importing need not be resorted to.

Funeral of Mrs. F. W. Gardiner—Mrs. F. W. Gardiner was buried yesterday afternoon in city cemetery amid a profusion of flowers. The funeral was held from the family residence, with Bishop Robert Morris in charge, and Judge LeGrande Young as the principal speaker. Fred Graham's quartet sang two selections, and a trio composed of Mrs. Clarence Ebaugh, Dr. Wesley Davis and Mrs. A. S. Peters sang "It is Well with my Soul." The pallbearers were Charles and Jesse Little, Feramorz and Bradley Clawson, Will Horne and John Rensimer.

Goes After Restaurants—City Pure Food Inspector Walter J. Frazier has been pounding up the restaurants of the city with the idea of finding out how many were violating the law in regard to maintaining the sanitary conditions in their kitchens. He found deplorable conditions in some of the places, their kitchens, ranges and ice boxes being in filthy condition. Mr. Frazier notified the offending restaurant keepers that he would be around again in a few days and if the conditions have not been remedied he would prosecute the proprietors for violating the pure food ordinance.

COUNCIL DEFERS DEFINITE ACTION

Petitioners for Annexation Must Submit Plats of the Territory Under Consideration.

HOGS AND SHEEP IN STREETS

Complaint Received From Residents In Northwestern Section Of the City.

The petition of residents of Waterloo and Sugar House for annexation to the city of Salt Lake were heard before the joint council committee on municipal laws and improvements at a meeting held Thursday evening, but owing to the fact that no maps had been prepared and submitted with the petitions no action could be taken by the committees, and the petitions were referred back for attendment before they are considered further.

Charles Buckle, Dr. Brown, George Grey, C. L. Evans and John Green appeared before the committee in behalf of the residents of Waterloo, 175 of whom had signed the petition for annexation. The portion desired to be annexed by these petitioners lies between Third East and Fifth East, and from Eleventh South to Twelfth South streets.

Charles Smith and Albert Freeman appeared in behalf of the residents of Sugar House. They ask to have the territory bounded by Seventh East and Eleventh East, and running from the present city limits to Twelfth South street, annexed to the city.

The firm of Kimball & Richards asked the council to annex a strip of land lying east of the Westminster Heights property running to Fourteenth East and between Twelfth and Thirteenth South streets. The firm guarantees 100 homes will be started within a year after the strip has been taken in by the city.

All the applicants had failed to prepare maps and plats and when this preliminary has been attended to the petitioners may return with the assurance of action by the council committees.

SHEEP AND HOG NUISANCE.

The markets committee listened to the complaints of a number of residents of the northwestern portion of the city, who are imposed upon by the sheep and hogs of neighboring slaughter houses tramping down and devouring the vegetation of the neighborhood. The places complained of are located near Eighth West and Seventh North street, and are known as the Papworth and Hepworth slaughter houses. The residents claimed that the pigs and sheep from these places run at large through their yards, destroying their property. Protests to the owners of the houses have been of no avail, it is claimed, and some of the property owners have even gone so far as to shoot some of the trespassing animals. It was claimed that bands of sheep of from 300 to 400 have been turned loose for a week or more at a time, and that the nuisance had become unbearable. Complaints have been unavailing in all departments, and the injured residents finally appealed to the council committee. They were assured the matter would be called to the attention of the police department, with instructions that the law relating to animals runnings at large be enforced.

The engineering and sewage committee took favorable action on the petition to connect with the city sewers from Caroline avenue, which runs east and west between Ninth and Tenth South streets. The same committee released Louis A. Geisler from his contract for the building of the gas producer plant at the Ninth North street pumping plant. The petition for sidewalks on Grant avenue, between Sixth West and Seventh West streets was acted upon favorably.

Well Known Hotel Keeper Uses and Recommends Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"I take pleasure in saying that I have kept Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in my family medicine chest for about fifteen years, and have always had satisfactory results from its use. I have administered it to a great many traveling men who were suffering from troubles for which it is recommended, and have never failed to relieve them," says J. C. Jenkins of Glasgow, Ky. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.
