The prosecution are taking the necessary steps to secure the attendance of their witness. California witness sent Saturday when the case will again come up before Commissioner Greenman.

THE EUREKA TOWNSITE INQUIRY.

Mr. M. L. Powers Recalled on Behalf of the Protestants.

The hearing of the Eureka townsite case was resumed at the United States land office this morning. Mr. M. L. Powers, who occupied the stand nearly the whole of yesterday, was recalled in the part of the protestants. After answering a few supplementary questions by Major Iliff, he was cross-examined by Judge Sutherland.

The witness was asked to certain samples taken from the Diable tunnel and assayed, why he did not preserve a part of them and exhibit here in connection with his testimony. He replied that he could get carloads of the same kind of stuff by going back to where those samples were taken from.

Judge Sutherland asked Mr. Powers whether he would bring a sample of ten carloads taken up him and given to the assayers, and the result of that assay when shown by the assayer, was all that the protestants need to do, or to incur the expense of presenting.

Witness, replying to Judge Sutherland, said—Yes, sir, I will go down and get all the samples you want, if you will pay my expenses there.

Q.—You live in Denver, do you not?

A.—I live in Salt Lake every winter. I have been living here now nearly four months.

Judge Sutherland asked the witness whether he would, after Saturday's adjournment of this case, go out to Eureka, on his expenses being paid, with some person representing the townsite, and show him where he found the samples he spoke of.

Witness said he could not having made arrangements to go to Beaver County on Saturday, but he was willing to do so at some time after his return; he would not, however, promise when.

Cross-examination continued, Mr. Powers indicated on the townsite map the openings of the three shafts on the Diable mine. The tunnels referred to in his evidence in chief were first started in 1887.

Q.—Where did you start?

Witness pointed to the western terminus of the tunnel on the "Robert E. Lee." That tunnel, he said, was run in 1887 and 1888 between 300 and 400 feet. Prior to the middle of August, 1889, it had been run between 250 and 275 feet. The most westerly shaft was sunk in 1887 and the central in 1888. In 1887 witness had a cribbin where the Diable was located now. He ran a tunnel on that site for water and in doing so struck a vein of mineral. Afterwards he located it as a mining claim—in August, 1888. He located the Diable in August, 1889.

Q.—How far had the work in this tunnel progressed at the time the Diable was located?

A.—There was a tunnel on this ledge at that time 125 or 175 feet long. This was the tunnel he had spoken of when he commencing on the "Robert E. Lee," and running towards the central shaft.

The name of the mill site in question, witness further answered, it he remembered aright, was the "Rising Star." It was located on the west side of the Diable claim and ran east and took in the central discovery. Witness located the millsite, and recorded a notice of that location. It was supposed to take in an area of five acres. The name of the millsite was the "Wide West."

Q.—Was not that millsite located to utilize water?

A.—Yes, it was located in connection with some prospects I had there.

Q.—Did the water come into the tunnel very copiously?

Witness answered that it did, and said there had been several hole made put into the tunnel and taken out again, on account of the water backing in there. All the hole-heads were put in the same place, but at times there is one at any one time. There was a two inch water pipe in the west tunnel. It entered the ground thirty or forty feet inside the tunnel's mouth.

HE THOUGHT BETTER OF IT.

Mr. George Olsen, a "Liberal" Candidate for Councilmen, Withdraws from the Ticket.

George F. Olsen, one of the "Liberal" candidates for councilman from the First Precinct, has, since the expose of his connection with the Newman bond affair, concluded to withdraw from the race. As a result, the following notice has been posted at the "Liberal" headquarters:

SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 5, 1896.

To the Hon. J. J. Greenwald, Chairman First Precinct Liberal Committee:

My Dear Sir—While keenly realizing that the success of the Liberal party is the success of the people of Salt Lake City, but not the whole Territory of Utah, but feeling in the midst of my enjoyment of the success of the Liberal Council ticket of my precinct, I hereby tender my resignation as councilman. Who nominated it is a matter of no compliment not only to myself, but to the fellow citizens of my nationality, and the only regret I have is that the Swedish-American element might not have the opportunity on the Liberal ticket to which it is entitled because of numbers and because of its fealty to the party.

In taking this action I deny all attacks upon my personal character for integrity and affirm my honesty in all matters in which I have been or from whom I have been associated, as a citizen, in business.

With hope for the success of the Liberal cause, and a wish for the success of the principles of the Liberal party.

I am, respectfully yours,

GEORGE F. OLSEN.

A SECOND MAN WANTED.

The resignation of Mr. Olsen has called for the publication of the following notice by the "Liberal" city committee:

HEADQUARTERS LIBERAL COMMITTEE, Salt Lake City, Feb. 5, 1896.

The "Liberal" Faction Met in This City Today.—Temporary Organization Effected.

Promptly at 12 o'clock today, Judge Powers called the Territorial convention of the "Liberal" faction to order. Delegates from several counties were present.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

The engagement of W. T. Carleton's Opera company should prove a successful one, both financially and artistically. The company this year is said to be larger than ever before, indeed the same new voices who have been favorably mentioned by critics in various places. The engagement at the Theatre opens tonight with "Dolly," which will be repeated at Saturday matinee. The regular matinee is announced for Friday and "Dorothy" for Saturday night. If all that has been said about the pretty scenery and costumes also be realized, and if portrayals by the Two first named pieces, is to be relied on, the public will be treated to rare entertainments during their performance.

BEN HARRIS RECITAL.

Last night and last Tuesday night, as was previously announced yesterday. The evening entertainment was unfortunate in coming to Salt Lake at a time when numerous political gatherings absorb the interest of everybody, but for this circumstance, the performances would have drawn much larger audiences.

A LOCAL BALLET DANCER

Runs Away From Home But Is Intercepted in Her Flight at Pueblo, Colorado.

A young woman whose name appears on the bill boards of the People's Theatre on Commercial street, as Sadie Oakley, suddenly ran away from home on Sunday evening last. Her stepfather and mother are managers of the show house in question. The young woman has for weeks past been employed as ballet dancer with two younger sisters, at the place of amusement. When she left the atelier was put into the hands of Detective Glenn, who telegraphed the chiefs of police of Denver, Grand Junction and Pueblo to be on the lookout for her in the variety shows of their respective cities. Last night it was officially ascertained that the young woman had been arrested at Pueblo. To the officers there she said that her reason for running away was the cruel conduct of her parents whom she alleged compelled her to dance and sing before the public until completely exhausted and that she received no remuneration therefor. The officers have been instructed to keep her in custody until the arrival of her mother, who will leave this city tonight to bring her home.

The girl is under age, being about seventeen years old.

A HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Richard Jones Dreadfully Scalded and Probably Fatally Injured.

Editor Deseret News:

A young man by the name of Richard Jones was seriously and probably fatally injured here, yesterday afternoon, by the pressure of steam which is the boiler at 5:05 p. m. It appears that he left Stockton yesterday morning, intending to return to his home, which is at Lowtown, Tooele Co. When the train was nearing the depot he went on the platform of one of the cars and began warning his friends and the friends who lived here. While talking to the boys he was seated on the ground under the car and was thrown among the wheels, which passed over his legs and mangled them terribly. On being taken up he said he felt the right foot had been severed at the ankle, but before coming to consciousness he had fainted. He was conscious when he was taken up, and suffered a severe fracture, besides other injuries.

The Association was immediately called out, on examination, found it necessary to amputate his right leg and left arm. The surgical operations were performed skillfully and successfully. After the young man's wounds had been dressed, he was removed from the depot to the home of his brother Ed. Jones, who he resides. Very little hope is entertained by the attending physicians and family that he will live. He is perfectly rational, and knows his condition. He is not expected to live. His parents have been sent for from Lowtown and are expected to arrive this afternoon. Mr. Jones is about 20 years of age and is well known among the mail citizens of this city.

AGAIN BOUNCED.

St. Mark's Church Door Were Pleasured by Sisters.

Early last evening St. Mark's church was again broken into. A pane of glass was removed from a rear window and through the opening thus made entrance was effected. The apartment in which the sexton's clothing hung was ransacked by crooks. The only articles stolen, so far as known, however, are a brown mellon overcoat and a pair of horse gloves which were stolen from the sexton.

The robbery was discovered about 10 o'clock and immediately reported at police headquarters. Officer Lynch was given to pursue this afternoon the thief or thieves and not been apprehended.

It will be remembered that the sacramental silverware service of the same church was taken some time ago and that the guilty Bonds were never captured.

LUMAN vs. KARRICK.

Judge Powers, Chairman of the Liberal Municipal Committee, was met at noon to-day by a News representative, who put to him the following question: "Can you tell me, Judge Powers, why the Salt Lake Tribune dropped the name of L. C. Karrick from the Liberal City ticket?"

"Yes. Immediately on the arrival of Pat Lannan from the east, the other day, a meeting was called. Lannan insisted that the name of Mr. Karrick be taken from the ticket, saying, at the same time, that the Tribune would not support him. That is how the name came to be left off."

UTAH LEGISLATURE.

COUNCIL.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

After the couplets had invoked the divine blessing on the labors of this the twenty-sixth day's proceedings, Kenyon, in behalf of the judicial committee, reported that C. P. 55, relating to the payment of jurors, witnesses and stenographic reporters, has been amended, and recommended that the bill be put upon its passage. Report adopted and the bill filed for second reading.

FIRST READING OF BILLS.

Lund introduced the following memorial of the Governor and Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah:

To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled:

Your memorialists pray: That by your enactment the United States shall grant to the Territory of Utah the ground and building in Salt Lake City known as the "Industrial Home" for the following uses:

To keep the same as a site for the accommodation of its school of deaf mutes, for the period of not to exceed three years, and thereafter to perpetually hold the same for the use and benefit of the common school system of Salt Lake City, Utah, or to convey to the same, and for the first use for three years to the Board of Education of Salt Lake City, aforesaid, to a party of the second part, and the common school system of said city.

And your memorialists respectfully pray that the said ruins should be granted to the regents of the University of Utah; that the grounds and contents of the latter are now inadequate, and that in regard of the responsibility of the two institutions and the original grant of school grounds and contents for the University, it is necessary to at once provide for the same school system. That the Territory has no means with which to endow the school can be provided, and it will take two or three years to provide a site and buildings.

Then there remains one way in the common schools are wholly inadequate and unsatisfactory, that the benefits of the "Industrial Home" have been enjoyed by some little section, and therefore it will be not little sorrow for purposes of the school system, and the institution would be greatly enlarged in extending it to the purposes above.

And your memorialists will every pray.

Name A. 300 for so well in amount and C. regard Taxes. Committee on penalty.

Sorrell: A bill for an act to repeal Sec. 2324 of the Compiled laws of Utah of land relating to horses. Committee judiciary.

Sorrell: Joint memorial accepting from Congress the grant of school sections of the public domain in Utah, and providing for the disposition of the school lands. Committee on university and agricultural colleges.

A communication was received from the Homestead Gas Co. H. F. 39, providing for the payment of office gas, was taken up and amended with amendment and been approved by the Governor.

Also H. F. 40, amending Sec. 4052 Compiled Laws of Utah.

C. P. 65, providing for the payment of jurors, witnesses and stenographic reporters, and creating and defining the duties of a stenographer, was taken the second order for tomorrow.

On motion the rule was made suspended by the House and proceeded to the third reading.

Melville, by request, introduced a claim of Wm. Nayler for jury service in 1893, amounting to $76. Committee on claims.

Council adjourned at 3:05 p. m.

THE HOUSE.

The clerk in the House part of the day routine department is one of more repute, and by this means it was some time past 2 when the speaker rapped the House to order. Prayer was offered by a rather inelegant expression, the "Liberals," excepting Pierce, Sandford and Calder being absent. The chaplain offered the prayer and the House work went ahead with the usual reading of yesterday's minutes. He seemed tired and more tongue-tied than usual, perhaps on account of a party with which hundreds he met last night rapidly into milk, he did not occupy himself coming on into which he was treated and the minutes were approved.

Fred Johns (Sevier), introduced a resolution calling for the appointment of a committee on the legislature of physicians.

A petition from the County court of Cache County was referred to committee on judiciary.

A communication was received from the Council announcing that it has passed C. P. 55, S. F. 3, relating to the payment of jurors, witnesses and stenographers, and asking for concurrence. Also C. P. 65, providing for the payment of office gas, and H. F. 40, relating to the Compiled Laws of Utah, and asking for concurrence.

On motion of Smith, the rules were suspended and the memorial was put upon its passage, Sarah Sol Jones addressed the House.

J. B. Irvine called attention to the alleged incompetency of the Democratic House committee, and moved that the House proceed to consider the rules, when Collins raised the point of order that the business before the House was the adoption of the memorial. A motion was made to lay the point of order on the table. Lively parliamentary skirmishing followed, Irvine being cut off. Irvine then proceeded and claimed that the Democrats were slower to take up the rules, and proceeded to state the question as it was put to them yesterday. When he concluded the Speaker put and lay on the passage of the memorial was taken, resulting, yeas 16, nay 5, absent 5.

A communication was received from the Council announcing that it had passed C. P. 38, to provide for assessing and collecting taxes in incorporated cities. On motion of Carter, read the first time by title and returned to the Council with the usual notice.

A communication was received from the Council announcing that it had received a message from the Governor stating that he had approved C. P. 7, to amend certain portions of the Compiled Laws.

The committee on counties reported back House bill 11, to change the boundary line between Grand and Emery counties, recommending its repeal. On motion of Sargent, report adopted.

LATEST TELEGRAMS.

THE FRENCH IN AFRICA.

Major de Bonnier's Difficulties and Wise Policy.

PARIS, Feb. 5.—A dispatch has been received here from Major de Bonnier, the well known French explorer, who is in command of the Chari and Lake Tchad expedition to Africa. He says, he finds it the wisest plan not to carry out the mission to punish the hostile tribes which attacked Fontenan's expedition, which set out last year to explore the valley of Bangi-Shangha, central Soudan, and the French Congo, but he would confine himself to establishing friendly relations with the implacable chiefs with a view to opening a direct caravan route from the coast to Lake Tchad. Such a course, he adds, would be a great aid to the extension of French influence in that part of Africa. Fontenan's expedition three mentioned was attacked by natives in August last, six men of its numbers were killed and thirty-one wounded. All merchandise and many rifles were captured by the natives, and the expedition was compelled to retreat, being followed for a few days and constantly harassed by the enemy.

BANKS CLOSED.

DENVER, N. M., Feb. 5.—Under orders from the comptroller of currency the First National Bank of Silver City and the First National Bank of Lake City, both under peculiarly the same management, are closed. A strong feeling of confidence among the business men exists that the back here will pay all creditors in full. The assets are considerable and the affiliations to the business. The capitalization of the Silver City bank is $50,000, and that of Silver City, $50,000.

The financial director of the company stated that it was different to give at present an estimate for the quarter ending January 31, 1896, but felt safe in stating that the profits would be sufficient to pay the entire annual dividend of $600,000 on preferred stock, and a quarterly dividend of $225,000 on common, and have a large surplus.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—The great iron trade pool, comprising nine-tenths of pig iron trade firms of the country, has collapsed owing to internal differences and outside competition. The result will be a drop in prices for a time and a general shake up in the market.
