WESTERN NEWS ITEMS.

A Young Lady Brutally Attacked by a Highway Robber.

AN ENGINEER'S SAD MISHAP.

A Chinaman's Mean Trick.—Fr Stable Sugar Beet Raising.—Strike of Coal Miners in New Mexico, Etc.

Tucson, Arizona, is overrun with tramps.

Mesa City, A. T., is to have another bank with a capital of $50,000.

Excitement is still rampant in Beaver over the gold find.

Hog raising has become quite an extensive business in Ephraim.

The next Nevada legislature will continue in session only forty days.

A system of electric street cars will probably be established at Santa Rosa.

Reno, Nevada, has a corset band made up entirely of local society ladies.

Wyoming has three national banks with a capital of $1,400,000. New Mexico has eight.

There is a good prospect that the glass beds on the Gila, Grant county, New Mexico, will be opened in the near future.

The educational Association of New Mexico will have its sixth annual meeting at Las Vegas, December 27, 28 and 29.

A wildcat escaped from its cage in Valverde, a suburb of Denver, a few evenings and nearly scared the inhabitants to death. Nobody hurt.

An exchange says that a farmer near Spanish Fork claims to have cleared $382.17 from five acres of land raising beets for the sugar factory.

Nebraska residents say that they never saw so much snow, at many points in the state, as now. At Hastings the streets are almost impassable.

The Leadville (Colorado) city council has been sustained by the courts in its attempt to compel the Leadville Water company to make reasonable rates.

Santa Ana district produced this season, without irrigation, a stalk of corn that was nineteen feet high. The cleavage from the ground to the base of the first ear was nearly twelve feet.

T. W. Hine of Phoenix, Arizona, was in Tempe on Thursday in the interest of the proposed electric road which is to be built from Phoenix, through Tempe to Mesa.—Tempe News.

It is now a settled fact that Tempe is to have a street car system. The work of construction will begin early in January and it is expected to have the line in operation within six months.

The new strike in the Dragoon mountains, near Turquoise, A. T., is creating considerable excitement. Much of the rock runs over 500 ounces in silver per ton and the veins are said to be strong.

Joseph Edick, of Helena, Montana, found a live frog recently twenty-three feet below the surface of the earth in a miniature chamber containing apparently no communication with the outside world.

The Virginia and Truckee railroad express train, while en route from Reno to Virginia City, Nevada, on Tuesday, ran over a man walking on the track, cutting his left leg off below the knee.

At Santa Fe, New Mexico, 100 coal miners employed at the Cerrillos mine have gone out on a strike because ordered to work on a tonage basis. They assert that the vein is too narrow for them to make wages at the rate offered.

Drake Morgan at Cheyenne disguised himself as a woman and accompanied by May Reynolds they left for Denver, where they were arrested on account of their suspicious actions. There being no other charge against them they were allowed to go their way.

There are now twenty-four Indian pupils at the Teller institute, Colorado, confined to the house with the la grippe. Out of this number there are seventeen confined to their beds. Their physician, however, does not regard any of them as dangerously ill.

Lann, an Indian, was killed on Tuesday morning at Hawksnest, Montana, by another Indian named Maximilian. Maximilian shot Lann with a pistol, the ball entering the abdomen. Maximilian claims that Lann was pursuing him with a knife, intending to kill him.

On Thursday George Davis of Wales was taken before Judge Johnson of Spring City on a warrant sworn out by Carl Hansen of that town charging Davis with obtaining money under false pretenses by disposing of personal property on which a mortgage was held by Hansen. Davis was found guilty and sentence was set for Saturday.—Ephraim Enterprise.

The Tempe News, speaking of a certain individual of Phoenix, Arizona, describes him in the following flowery language: "He has just been re-elected to the office of grand worthy chief Bar in the society of Unadulterated Prevaricators, of Phoenix, a position which he has ably filled ever since the organization of the society!"

An assay was made last week by a reliable assayer of Colorado Springs of a piece of mineral that was found in the vicinity of the Spanish Peaks. The assay was made for a man named Bacon, and the first test ran $75,700 a ton, while the second was $12,767 a ton. Bacon refused to give any hint of the locality where the mineral was found.

A dispatch to the Chicago Leader from Rawlins, Wyo., says: "Engineer P. M. Byrne met with a peculiar accident at 11:00 last night at Black Butte. He was looking out his cab window as the fast mail rushed past and his cabin or stationary crane struck him on the right side of the head, nearly tearing off the entire scalp.

When Mr. Amos Ivie, who was sent to the asylum for the insane at Provo the other day, arrived at the building, says the Richfield Advocate, he suddenly became as rational as ever, and remained the condition to the infinite astonishment of the people in the institution. The boys hardly had the heart to have him locked up, but it was thought that the melancholy would soon return, as he was left to receive medical treatment.

The grand jury at Florence, Arizona, have returned an indictment for murder against Frank Kirby for the killing of young Ward Porter last summer. He was arraigned and plead not guilty. An application for change of venue was made, and the court gave the defendant two weeks in which to prepare affidavits. Kirby is a brother of Judge Kirby of the Supreme bench and was a long while clerk of the court. His excuse for the killing is that Porter was unduly intimate with his wife. Much feeling is manifested on both sides.

James Watson, a few mornings ago at his house in San Francisco, was found dead. He was sitting in a rocking chair before the kitchen stove and was fully dressed. The supposition is that he died the previous night after the rest of his people in the house had gone to bed. Deceased was seventy years old, and was once a well known merchant of San Francisco. The autopsy showed that he died of Bright's disease. In his pocket was a bank book showing $16,000 to his credit in Mother's bank.

Some rascal is endeavoring to make a living in this community, and is succeeding pretty well, too, by shelling pecans so they will draw a larger amount than originally intended. During the race here last October one of the 'Ziz' boys, of Phoenix, had a payoke to bearer for $50, found its way into the pool box, where it was cashed for $60, having been raised to that amount. Yesterday Mr. A. Pitcairn had himself victimized, having in his possession a check on which a change had been changed from $25 to $250.—Tucson Citizen (Nevada) Times-Review.

An Assiniboine Indian named Big Mouth has been shot and killed near Great Falls, Montana, by a young buck of the same tribe whose name is not known. The murder gathered his friends and friends named to a log cabin near Sgt. Ayers' ranch and was notified and proceeded to the seat of the trouble with a posse. Advancing upon the cabin they were fired upon by the occupants. One of the posse was killed and Reynolds was wounded in the leg. While medicine men were dancing around the cabin the Indians were besieging the cabin. The Indians, a dozen in all, say they will not be captured.

Miss Hattie Winn left her father's home, ten miles below Grass Valley, to visit a neighbor. She was on her way back and when near Indian Springs a masked man stepped out of the brush and demanded money from her. She said she had none, when the robber drew a sharp knife and seizing Miss Winn cut her hair off close to the scalp. She had a splendid head of hair. A wagon coming on the scene frightened the scoundrel and he ran off without taking the hair with him. The neighbors are searching for him, and if found he will get roughly treated.

Wong Ah Dare has been arrested for vagrancy in San Francisco, he having tried to extort $250 from the keeper of a Chinese house. Wong Ah Dare, he asked for the money it was seized him, the keeper resisting that highbinders' societies are on the wane. Dare then said he would remain until he obtained the money, and as the keeper was quite willing that he stay providing he did so quicker, he waited for several hours. He then took off his clothes, threw them into the street and said he would swear the keeper had robbed him, whereupon the owner of the house had him arrested for vagrancy.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Estate of Enos J. Funk, deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN BY THE undersigned, Angus J. Cannon, administrator in the estate of Enos J. Funk, deceased, to the creditors of said deceased, to exhibit their claims against the said deceased, to the said administrator, with the vouchers thereof, within six months after the first publication of this notice, at the office of said administrator, at No. 15 South Temple street, in Salt Lake City, in the county of Salt Lake, Utah Territory.

Dated November 16, 1892.

ANGUS J. CANNON,
Administrator of the Estate of Enos J. Funk, deceased.

JOHN H. CANNON,
Attorney for Administrator. F10

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Estate of Owen Roberts, Deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN BY THE undersigned, Executrix of the estate of Owen Roberts, deceased, to the creditors of said all persons having claims against the said deceased, to exhibit the same with the necessary vouchers, within six months after the first publication of this notice, to the said executrix, at the law office of T. D. Lewis, Esq., rooms 12 and 13 Commercial Building, 74 S. West Temple, Salt Lake City, in the county of Salt Lake.

Dated November 16th, 1892.

ELIZABETH ROBERTS,
Executrix of the last will and testament of Owen Roberts, deceased. 47

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Estate of David H. Cannon, deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN BY THE undersigned, John H. Cannon, administrator of the estate of David H. Cannon, deceased, to the creditors of and to persons having claims against the said deceased, to exhibit them, with the necessary vouchers, within four months after the first publication of this notice, to the said administrator, at the law office of Messrs. Dickson & Hoge, Dooly Building, Salt Lake City, Salt Lake County, Utah Territory.

Dated this 9th day of December, 1892.

JOHN H. CANNON,
Administrator of the estate of David H. Cannon, deceased. 47

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Estate of Mary Goldberg, deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN BY THE undersigned, administrator of the estate of Mary Goldberg, deceased, to the creditors of and all persons having claims against the said deceased, to exhibit them, with the necessary vouchers, within four months after the first publication of this notice, to the said administrator, at the law office of Welden & Adams, attorneys-at-law, Rooms 12 and 13 Commercial Block, First South street, Salt Lake City, in the county of Salt Lake.

Dated November 9th, 1892.

MARGUS GOLDBERG,
Executor of the last will and testament of Mary Goldberg, deceased.
Welden & Adams, Attorneys for estate.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Estate of Alexander Hoffman, deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN BY THE undersigned, administrator of the will annexed of the estate of Alexander Hoffman, deceased, to the creditors of and all persons having claims against the said deceased, to exhibit the same with the necessary vouchers, within four months after the first publication of this notice, to the said administrator, at the office of the undersigned, in the Templeton Building, First South street, Salt Lake City, in the county of Salt Lake.

Dated November 9th, 1892.

MARGUS GOLDBERG,
Administrator with the will annexed of the estate of Alexander Hoffman, deceased.
Welden & Adams, Attorneys for estate.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Estate of Jennette A. Cannon, deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN BY THE undersigned, administrator of the estate of Jennette A. Cannon, deceased, to the creditors of and all persons having claims against the said deceased, to exhibit the same with the necessary vouchers, within four months after the first publication of this notice, to the said administrator, at the office of Messrs. Dickson & Hoge, Dooly Building, Salt Lake City, in the county of Salt Lake, Utah Territory.

Dated November 9th, 1892.

PETER O. CANNON,
Administrator of the estate of Jennette A. Cannon, deceased.
Welden & Adams, attorneys for estate. d

NOTICE OF SALE OF TRUST DEED.

WHEREAS A. S. WILLIAMS, ON THE [illegible] day of March, 1891, executed and delivered to the State of Deseret Loan and Trust company a certain trust deed to secure the payment of one note of even date therewith and thirty days thereafter, for the sum of $1,000 and interest thereon at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from date, payable quarterly, and to secure the payment of said note according to its tenor and effect the said A. S. Williams and wife conveyed to S. P. Walker and S. P. Fields, Jr., trustees, all lots 1 and 2 in block 10, Kelsey's addition to Salt Lake City, Utah, according to the official plat of said city on file in the Salt Lake County Recorder's office, and the said S. P. Walker and S. P. Fields, Jr., in trust for the following described purposes, situate in Salt Lake County, Utah, to wit:

Lots four (4), six (6), eleven (11) and twelve (12), in block twenty (20), and lots one (1) and twenty-two (22) in block twenty-one (21), in Kelsey's addition to Salt Lake City, according to the official plat of said city on file in the Salt Lake County Recorder's office, and the said note and trust deed provided for the payment of said note according to its tenor and effect, and the said trustees were duly notified of the request of said note and trust deed to sell the property in said trust deed, and the said note and trust deed provided that the said trustees should give notice of the time, place and terms of sale of said property by advertisement in some newspaper printed and published in Salt Lake County, Utah; and

WHEREAS, said Andrew S. Williams and Sarah H. Williams, his wife, have utterly failed and refused to pay the interest due on said note, according to the terms thereof and the said trust deed, and default has been made in the payment of said note and interest, and the said trustees have duly received from the said legal holder of said note and trust deed a request to sell said property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the principal and interest owing on the said note, with costs and expenses of sale, and the said trustees have given notice of the time, place and terms of said sale by advertisement in the Salt Lake Herald, a newspaper printed and published in Salt Lake County, Utah, and

WHEREAS, the said Andrew S. Williams and Sarah H. Williams, his wife, have utterly failed and refused to pay the interest due on said note, according to the terms thereof and the said trust deed, and default has been made in the payment of said note and interest, and the said trustees have duly received from the said legal holder of said note and trust deed a request to sell said property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the principal and interest owing on the said note, with costs and expenses of sale, and the said trustees have given notice of the time, place and terms of said sale by advertisement in the Salt Lake Herald, a newspaper printed and published in Salt Lake County, Utah; and

WHEREAS, the said Alfred F. Graves and Isabella H. Graves, his wife, have utterly failed and refused to pay the interest due on said note, according to the terms thereof and the said trust deed, and default has been made in the payment of said note and interest, and the said trustees have duly received from the said legal holder of said note and trust deed a request to sell said property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the principal and interest owing on the said note, with costs and expenses of sale, and the said trustees have given notice of the time, place and terms of said sale by advertisement in the Salt Lake Herald, a newspaper printed and published in Salt Lake County, Utah; and

WHEREAS, said Dorr B. Lee, the legal holder of said note, has requested the said trustees to sell the property under the power contained upon said trust deed, for the purpose of satisfying said note;

NOW, therefore, pursuant to the power in said trust deed contained, we, the undersigned trustees, will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash in hand, at the hour of 11 o'clock a. m. of the day of December, 1892, at the south door of the Salt Lake County Court House of Salt Lake County, Utah, all the following described real estate, situate in Salt Lake County, Utah, to wit:

Lots four (4), six (6), eleven (11) and twelve (12), in block twenty (20), and lots one (1) and twenty-two (22) in block twenty-one (21), in Kelsey's addition to Salt Lake City, according to the official plat of said city on file in the Salt Lake County Recorder's office, and the said note and trust deed provided for the payment of said note according to its tenor and effect, and the said trustees were duly notified of the request of said note and trust deed