

SIGNS OF SINNER IN POLITICAL POT

Evidences of Early Activity Among Prospective Candidates Are Numerous.

MANY LIGHTNING RODS UP.

Boonlets Not Confined to Capital, But Are Sprung Up in Various Parts of State.

For the owner of a full grown political aspiration now is the time for rapid and conclusive action, for the political lightning rods are going up and the underground wires are being laid, especially in the Republican party.

From the mass of early activity it is more than probable that the boomlet launched a month from now will find the prospective candidate passing himself into the hands of his friends, only to find them pledged and double pledged, and this especially if they are political workers.

From the county building it is well known that many political waves radiate, as there one prospective candidate can whisper his hopes so easily to the other, and receive a return confidence with mutual promises that "if you will work for me in your ward I will work for you in mine."

Just such a situation as that is growing up in relation to the prospective county offices. Job Lyon has been on a long still hunt for a district attorneyship, and now candidates for sheriff are beginning to show on the surface.

FOR THE SHRIEVALTY.

So far Sheriff Emery has not announced himself for re-election. This means that the deputies in the office are busy grooming themselves, and one of them, Joseph Sharp, has decided candidatorial symptoms. Another, Jos.
Burbridge, the long time caller of the county jail, and a brother of Police Captain Burbridge, is also named as a likely incumbent. Marshal Mike Maus of Murray, who last year brought the outside county delegation solid to the convention for him, threatens to do it again this year, while P. Condie has friends who are willing to take him in hand for the running.

SECRETARY OF STATE.

This year there is certainly an open field for the office of secretary of state.
Logan has a candidate, Ogden has another, or maybe two of them. Richfield is in the same situation, and Salt Lake has any number who would not hesitate to come forward for the honor.
Ogden has a pretty light on her own hands, and is not without allies and abetting from the rest of the state prior to convention time. David Mattson, Ogden's candidate, is a state treasurer, George Halvorsen of Ogden wanting to be attorney general, and Conroy of Ogden is publicly being boomed for secretary of state, all of these booms taking the shape of contests for place on the Republican ticket.

But Weber county has learned in previous state conventions that the "4" to land a good office for Weber county is to work for one office with a concentrated effort, and that the first, last and all the time. This means that Mr. Halvorsen, Mr. Mattson, and Dr. Conroy, will have a little matter to settle in a county caucus preceding the convention, and, that only one of them will emerge into the convention itself to fight for place.

UP IN CACHE COUNTY.

Logan's aspirations depend upon one public official, already in Congress.
Should Joseph Howell run again for any office it would mean that other Logan aspirants would receive scant courtesy from the convention, as sectional demands would be pressed with such a claim that Logan already had enough.
However, E. W. Robinson, once mayor of Ogden, like Dr. Conroy, once mayor of Ogden, would accept the nomination for secretary of state.

IN THE LEGISLATURE.

That the legislative problem this year is to the Republicans not the easy walk-over of previous years is conceded by all the thinking politicians. Those who take into account how caucuses from one section precede the open voting, tell of candidates who are candidates landed majorities through the control originally of only 18 votes, and that Salt Lake county has 15 of these votes to start with, without counting outside counties that will return Democratic majorities, pursuant to an ancient custom. That the Republicans will jealously guard their majorities in Salt Lake is a certainty from the earnestness with which they now are at work.

DEMOCRATS BUSY.

While their activity has not yet taken the form of a scramble for positions on the ticket, the Utah Democrats are preparing for a spring opening in politics. State Chairman Lyman R. Martineau, who has announced himself a candidate for governor, has called a meeting of the state committee for 2 p. m. Tuesday, March 10, at the law offices of James H. Moyle. The national convention and the election of delegates to the national convention will be discussed at that time.

DEMOCRATS BUSY.

The Democrats will choose six men to go to Denver, at a convention to be called about the time of the district judicial convention. They will also determine this spring upon the date for the state convention and probably upon the date for the county convention.

"AMERICANS" TO CONTEST.

The national convention situation is complicated through the announced determination of the "American" party

FUNERAL OF JOSIAH LEES.

The funeral of Josiah Lees was held yesterday afternoon, from the Twenty-eighth ward chapel which was so crowded that many friends and mourners could not get inside the building.
The casket was covered with flowers, and music was furnished by the ward choir, Horace Ensign and a quartet consisting of Messrs. Winters, Toulton, Bessley and Rich, with prayer from George R. Emery, Bishop McMillan, George C. Lambert, and J. Y. Smith, were the speakers and benediction by William Spicer. Interment was at the city cemetery.

FAIR DIRECTORS MEET.

Decide to Enlarge Swine Classifications for Coming Exhibition.

The directors of the State Fair association met last evening, when it was arranged for an enlargement of class 8 on the premium list, viz: swine, from five to 11 classifications. It was also decided to have all prize ribbons gold lettered, and special stationery was ordered, with a lithograph at the top of three trotting horses just coming under the wire, and with appropriate inscriptions, such as "The Fair, a Greater Utah." "Remember, Entries Close Sept. 30." "Salt Lake City, Oct. 5 to 11; Tell Everybody." The complete classification for all divisions in class 8 department C, for swine, follows:

Class.	1st.	2nd.
Boar, 2 years old and over.	$10	$5

WITHDRAWN FROM ENTRY.

Fourteen Townships in Kane and Washington Counties Affected.

The local land office received word from Washington last evening, of an order withdrawing from coal entry 14 townships in Kane and Washington counties. The reason is that the price per acre under the present scale is too low, and because the lands have been improperly classified. The townships are: 28, range 6, E. 1, 12, 13, town-
