

MURRAY SWEARS TO COMPLAINTS

They Charge F. B. Signor With Forgeries Aggregating Nearly One Million Dollars.

THE DEFENDANT SURRENDERS

In Confession to the Police Admits The Papers Were Signed by Him—He Gained Nothing.

Oakland, Cal., Jan. 7.—F. B. Signor, real estate promoter and mining broker of this city, was arrested tonight on complaints sworn to by James H. Murray, a multi-millionaire banker and mining man of Montana, Salt Lake and Seattle, but more recently of Monterey, Cal., charging Signor with forgeries aggregating nearly $1,000,000. Signor is alleged to have forged Murray's name to four notes of $100,000 each, as well as to numerous other negotiable documents.

Murray arrived here from Monterey more than two weeks ago to begin an investigation of the forgery of his name to the notes. He found that President William G. Henshaw of the Union Savings bank of this city held four notes drawn on a Kansas City bank in Henshaw's favor and purporting to be signed by Murray, the notes totaling $400,000.

PRONOUNCED FORGERIES.

Murray at once pronounced these notes forgeries, declaring that he had not put his name to any note whatever in the last 24 years. He began an investigation, which at once disclosed the fact that Signor, who was formerly manager of the Interurban Motor Express company, had given the notes to Henshaw in connection with the financing of a deal involving a cement plant in southern California, in which Signor was interested with Tyler S. Henshaw, brother of the local banker. Henshaw turned the notes over to Murray, who also discovered a number of other papers bearing forgeries of his signature in circulation both here and in San Francisco, the total amount being $500,000.

Murray presented the whole matter to Dist. Atty. Donohue today and a warrant for the arrest of Signor was issued. As soon as he heard of it Signor surrendered himself to the authorities and to Chief of Police Wilson and Chief of Detectives Peterson he made a full confession, reiterating his statement of several days ago to the effect that he had forged Murray's name.

Besides the four $100,000 notes mentioned, the forgeries include eight checks for $400,000, $50,000 and $10,000. Banker Henshaw declared that Signor had not profited a dollar by the forgeries.

HOUSE RESENTS PRESIDENT'S WORDS

that a majority of this body were in fear that their acts might be investigated and their crimes discovered, the respect of the people which it is important for the republic that Congress should possess, would be impaired, if not destroyed.

"It is dangerous to the republic that a large portion of our people should have their confidence shaken in the judges who interpret the laws; equally dangerous that their confidence should be impaired in those who enact the laws, and it is for this reason that the duty devolves upon the law makers not to allow the integrity of their motives to be lightly questioned. We may be sure that no legislative body will be respected by the people, unless it respects itself. We are jealous of the honor of the nation; we should be equally jealous of the honor of our institutions.

UNFIT MEMBERS.

"Doubtless in the Congress are sometimes found unfit and dishonest men, but I believe that with few exceptions the body is composed of men of integrity, whose vote is determined not by fear of the police, but by an honest regard for the public service. If the time should ever come when a majority of the chosen representatives of the American people were so unfit for their trust, that their votes were controlled by a craven fear of the detection of their crimes, then surely the republic will have come upon evil days and the failure of popular government will be demonstrated.

"The people of the country have sent their representatives to the Congress. Many of them have for long years been re-elected at the polls or by the legislatures. We do not believe that popular government and universal suffrage are such lamentable failures that dishonest, cowardly or unfit men are chosen to continue in office. In this matter we stand not only for ourselves but for those who sent us here. The impeachment of those who are chosen is the impeachment of those who choose.

"The president says that no one holds the dignity of the Congress of the United States in higher regard than he does. It would, therefore, be a fitting to be deplored, as a result of any unfortunate inadvertence of language, any untoward combination of words, expressions should remain in his message which might be interpreted by the people as lessening the dignity and thereby weakening the authority of the Congress.

PROSECUTION OF CRIMINALS.

"It is said in the message that criminals should be prosecuted if found in the legislative branch of the government and with this we wholly agree. But the president adds, 'If this is not considered desirable, a special exception could be made in the law prohibiting the use of secret service officers in investigating members of Congress.' In other words, it is suggested that we pass a law which will facilitate the exposure of other criminals but will protect ourselves. If a majority of the Congress stand in favor of the exposure of their own misdeeds, they would be ready to vote for such a law, but such is not the case, and against it we must protest. If Congress listens tamely and timidly to reflections upon character of its members and its honesty of purpose, it will deserve and it will certainly receive the contempt of the public. We feel that the suggestions in the president's message, the Congress should refuse to merely receive and mildly consider it.

"During long centuries our English-speaking ancestors struggled and bled that a representative government might be established among English people. Our revolutionary forefathers, more than a century ago, struggled and bled that our government should be a representative government; that the laws of the American people should be passed by the representatives chosen by the American people. The Congress of the United States today exists as a result of centuries of struggle for popular government. Every man who is a member of it votes on this question in the manner which seems to him most worthy of the traditions of which we are the heirs, of the institutions of which we are the protectors, and of the people of whom we are the representatives."

As was the case when he first spoke on the question before the holidays, Mr. Perkins was frequently interrupted by applause. Upon the conclusion of his remarks he submitted the committee report, which, after quoting from the president's message, was as follows:

A REFLECTION ON HOUSE.

"Understanding this language to be a reflection on the integrity of its membership and aware of its own constitutional duty as to its membership, the house in respectful terms called on the president for any information that would justify the language of the message or assist it in its constitutional duty to purge the house of the implied charge of corruption.

"The president in his message of Jan. 4 denied that the paragraph of the annual message cast reflections on the integrity of the house; attributes to the house an entire failure to understand my message; declares that he has made no charge of corruption against any members of this house and by implication states that he has no proof of corruption of any member of this house.

"Whether the house in its resolution of Dec. 17, 1908, correctly interpreted the meaning of the words used by the president in his annual message or whether it misunderstood that language as the president implies, will be judged now and in the future according to the accepted interpretations of the English language. The house, charged only with its responsibility to the people of the United States and its obligation to transmit unimpaired to the future the representative institutions inherited from the past and to preserve its own dignity must insist on its own capacity to understand the import of the president's language. We consider the language of the president in his message of Dec. 8, 1908, unjustified and without basis of fact, and that it constitutes a breach of the privileges of the house; therefore, be it

RESOLUTIONS.

"Resolved, That the house in the exercise of its constitutional prerogatives declines to consider any communication from any source which is not in its own judgment respectful; and be it further,

"Resolved, That the special committee and the committee of the whole house on the state of the Union be discharged from any consideration of so much of the president's annual message as relates to the secret service and is above set forth and that the said portion of the message be laid on the table; and, be it further,

"Resolved, That the message of the president, sent to the house, on Jan. 4, 1909, being unresponsive to the inquiry of the house and constituting an invasion of the privileges of this house by questioning the motives and intelligence of members in the exercise of their constitutional rights and functions, be laid on the table."

CAUGHT IN THE RAIN.

Then a cold and a cough—let it run on—get pneumonia or consumption that's all. No matter how you get your cough don't neglect it—take Ballard's Mucilage and you'll be over it in no time. MONEY ORDERS RECOVERED.

The postoffice money orders stolen a few days ago from the Bellingham, Wash., postoffice have been recovered, that being the word received by Inspector C. D. Lowe. The missing blanks were found upon the person of a burglar, and he had also the stamp with which he might have successfully passed the orders. None of the coupons had been used. The stolen book contained the numbers from 1,401 to 1,600.

WILL ENFORCE ORDINANCE.

Chief of Police Barlow has instructed his men to enforce the ordinance relative to hacks and express wagons displaying the numbers on each vehicle and also to see to it that the law with reference to a lawful charge for hack hire be enforced. Of late there have been many complaints about hack drivers charging excessive fares.

CHAIRMAN OF BIG COMMITTEE.

Senator George Sutherland is now chairman of the committee on industrial expositions, he having been appointed to this new committee and relieved from the chairmanship of the committee to investigate complaints on Indian lands. Senator Sutherland's chief work in Washington is upon the U. S. criminal code, which is being revised by a special committee of which he is a member.

GOOD HOME MADE RHEUMATISM CURE

Prescription for Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble Easily Prepared.

GIVES RELIEF PROMPTLY.

Get the Ingredients from the Drug Store and Mix Them at Home—

Relieves Nearly Every Person who Takes It.

The following prescription for the cure of rheumatism and kidney and bladder troubles has no doubt been filled millions of times, viz: Fluid Extra Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. These simple, harmless ingredients can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy at little cost and are mixed by shaking well in a bottle.

The dose for adults is a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime, drinking a full tumbler of water after each dose. It is stated that this prescription is a positive remedy for kidney trouble and lame back, weak bladder and urinary difficulties, especially of the elderly people, and one of the best things to be used in rheumatic affections, relieving the aches and pains and reducing swellings.

A well-known authority states that this mixture acts directly upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys; cleanses these sponge-like organs and gives them power to sift and strain the poisonous waste matter and uric acid from the blood which is the cause of Rheumatism.

If your back or sides ache and you suspect kidney trouble it would be wise to try this for a few days.

CHOOSE UTAH DEBATING TEAM.

Burgess, Watson, Young and Carlson Will Represent "U" in Colorado.

In the intercollegiate debate between the University of Utah and the University of Colorado, to be held at Boulder, Colo., in February, Utah will be represented by E. H. Burgess, Edward Watson and Richard W. Young, Jr., with J. M. Carlson as alternate. Such was the decision of the judges in the John R. Park debate last evening at the University. Burgess and Watson were on the winning side, while Mr. Young was numbered among the losers. The same subject, "Resolved, That the Galveston Plan of municipal government," will be discussed in the interstate debate, with the Utah boys on the negative side of the question. The meeting last night was very largely attended, many of the audience being in no way connected with the school. The judges were Prof. Milton Bennett, Judge T. D. Lewis, Prof. Byron Cummings, A. Blaine Robie and Stephen L. Richardson. To decide as to the winners of the debate was not so serious a problem with the judges as was the matter of choosing the team to go to Colorado.

The members of each set of debaters last evening gave a most creditable account of themselves, and the honors were pretty evenly divided on either side. The argument of R. W. Young, Jr., was particularly eloquent and forcible, and as Utah is to have the negative side at Boulder, as stated, he will be a worthy colleague of the men who last night defeated him.

KATE BERNARD SOUNDS WARNING

Tells Kansas Prison Investigators That God is Watching The Kansas Hearings.

QUESTIONS ANGERED HER

Served Notice That if Necessary She Would Meet Committee Before Heaven's Gates.

Leavenworth, Kan., Jan. 8.—Miss Kate Bernard, superintendent of charities of Oklahoma, decided today at the Lansing penitentiary investigation that she was not being treated fairly and warned the Kansas investigators that God was watching the Kansas hearings and would hold them responsible.

It was Miss Bernard's original charges that Oklahoma prisoners were inhumanely treated and brought about an investigation. Today when Senator Reed one of the commissioners appointed by Gov. Hoch of Kansas, was questioning the witness and asking her to be more explicit, Miss Bernard displayed anger and declared she was not being given a fair chance to support her charges. "I warn you gentlemen," she finally declared Miss Bernard, "that God is watching this trial, and that he hears everything that is being said, and you men are responsible to him. I serve notice on you that if necessary I will meet you before the gates of heaven for a fair trial."

CAPT. HALL VISITS GOVERNOR.

Capt. Hall, commander of the troop of cavalry stationed at Fort Duchesne, and for many years Indian agent at Uintah, headed a delegation from that district today who called upon Gov. Fry. The object of their visit was to discuss the matter of irrigation ditches on the Indian allotments, and the protection of water rights appertaining to Indians. Senator Kuchler of Weber county accompanied the delegation. Capt. Hall states that there are now 100 men at Fort Duchesne and that he believes the garrison will be maintained there for many years.

OLIVE OILS ADVANCE.

Local wholesale druggists report olive oil as having advanced 50 cents a gallon on account of the failure of the olive crop in southern Italy, and the general destruction by earthquake and tidal wave in Sicily. Southern California, it is claimed, can not supply over 15 to 20 per cent of the demand in the United States for the oil. However, the Spanish and French olive oils will greatly help out.

AN EXPLANATION.

The reason for the popularity of the Fleur-de-Lis chocolates is that they are absolutely pure and of the very best quality. For sale at Williams Drug Store, Smith Drug Store, Brigham Street Pharmacy and Halliday Drug.

WEATHER REPORT

There is evidently a storm brewing. The barometer is going down hill, and a low area spread heavily over the Pacific slope. The local weather office has been predicting snow for the last two or three days, and the same prediction is being made as a sort of "carried forward" for tomorrow. The skies are threatening, and the mercury has fallen, so that it is no longer asuddy as it was. The storm center conditions over the north Pacific states, causing rain or snow from Los Angeles to British Columbia and eastward from the north Pacific coast to the lake region. At times of report rain was falling at Los Angeles and San Francisco, and snow at Roseburg, Portland, Victoria, Spokane, Havre, Rapid City, St. Paul, Sault Ste. Marie and Boston. High barometric pressure with temperatures zero and below, extends over the Rocky mountain slope, upper Mississippi valley, British northwest territory and Newfoundland.

METEOROLOGICAL REPORT.

Record at the local office, United States weather bureau, for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today: Temperature at 8 a. m., 50; maximum, 52; minimum, 48; mean, 50, which is 2 degrees above normal. Total snow since the first of the month 130 degrees; total precipitation since the first of the month, 28 inch, which is 34 inch above normal. Relative humidity, 33 per cent.
