GENERAL WELLS'S BIRTHDAY.

In Accordance with a Family Custom It Was Reverentially Commemorated Last Night.

The anniversary of the birth of the late General Daniel H. Wells, in accordance with a family custom, was appropriately celebrated last night at the residence of one of his daughters, Mrs. Belle Sears, in Waterloo addition.

The actual date of the anniversary was on the 27th of October, but its observance was postponed until last night to admit of the attendance of some members of the family who were unable to be here at that time. Altogether last night's commemoration was a most pleasant and successful affair and as such will long be remembered by the wives, families and other relatives of the general who had the good fortune to be present. Four sons were absent, one being in the United States army, one on a mission in England—from both of these appropriate letters were received and read—one being in Idaho on business and the other in a distant point in this Territory. The gathering was characterized by many pleasant and cheerful expressions which were highly appreciated by the happy and gleesome throng. A particularly interesting feature was the reading of addresses on various aspects of the general's life by different members of the family. Others, the last few days contributed a commemoration of his memory by performing Temple work for him a report of which was made at the gathering. During the evening musical selections were rendered in a manner that added materially to the pleasure of the occasion. Refreshments were also served.

At 5 o'clock a special chartered street car bore a party of relatives down to the home of Mrs. Sears and brought them back last midnight when the festivities terminated.

Joseph W. Lee, of Tooele, Hurt.

Tooele Transcript, November 2: On Tuesday Joseph W. Lee, a well known young man of Tooele, met with a serious accident at Bingham, by which his right hip was injured and he was otherwise bruised. Joe and Rob M. Lawrence were taking a trolley car, loaded with lumber, to the Lead mill, and it being top heavy, overturned with the above result. It appears that Rob and Joe both jumped when they saw the danger, but while the former managed to get clear of the boards, the latter fell in a prospect hole in which lucky circumstance he probably owes his life. The hole was just deep enough for the lumber to catch him on the hip as he landed over the side, and so severely cracking the bone as to necessitate his being taken to St. Mark's hospital in Salt Lake, where he is receiving every attention. Joe's many friends hope for his speedy recovery.

Pure strength of Price's Cream Baking Powder makes it the most economical.

The Students' Society.

Last evening the regular session of the Society of the Latter-day Saints' College was called to order by President Brigham Perkins. The choir sang: "Come Listen to a Prophet's Voice." William Durrant opened by prayer.

The Cuban struggle for liberty was very ably discussed by Joseph Hoagland. He first spoke of the discovery of Cuba by Columbus in 1492. The inhabitants were then happy. After the island was colonized from Spain, however, the natives were soon abused and their rights taken from them. Many thousands were slain. Slaves were then imported from Africa to assist in the paying of the large revenue to Spain. In the middle of the 18th century the burdens upon the Cubans became almost unbearable and they fought for a commission, which they finally obtained, and became independent when it was destroyed by a tyrant ruler early in the seventeenth century. When the Cubans understood that their desire for a representation in the affairs of the government was ignored, they were aroused to great malice against Spain, and rebelled in that frame of mind today. After this event many rebellions took place, the most noted being between 1868 and 1878; and those who survived the great struggle are willing now to lay down their lives for their liberty. The taxes imposed upon the Cubans are more oppressive than those upon any other people in the world. The sentiments of war are against Cuba and in favor of the Spaniards. The population of Cuba today is about sixteen millions, and over one-half of this number are in the garrisons, under the control of Spain. Mexico and the United States are much in sympathy with Cuba, and are doing a great deal to restore freedom to the natives. At the present time Cuba is in a very critical condition. She may in the near future gain her liberty by being annexed to Mexico, Texas or Florida, or she may become an independent government.

Miss Mabel Cooper then sang a beautiful selection.

What is a Flower? was then spoken upon by Mr. Walter Durrant. This is a very simple question; nevertheless there are but few who are able to answer intelligently without some research upon the subject. The most attractive portions of a flower are seldom the most important; however, every portion has its office. Mr. Durrant spoke of the different parts of a perfect flower, and their relation one to another. He also discussed at some length the subject of reproduction of flowers.

A duet was then rendered by Misses Pitt and Sinnott. The choir sang: "Guide us O Thou great Jehovah." Mr. J. L. Workman offered the benediction.

LeRoi C. Snow,
R. Cornist.

Mr. Bennett Very Ill.

Dr. Benson last night reported Mr. J. H. Bennett, who fell from the rear end of a street car last Wednesday evening, in a very critical condition. Mr. Bennett received a violent contusion of the brain and has ever since the accident been in a delirious condition.

REMOVAL SALE—BEFORE WE MOVE

ANOTHER RAMBLER DAY.

The Rambler boys made a great showing in the Ogden races. The first event of the day was the ten mile road race, in which McCombey finished third, taking third prize and third time prize. Then came the track race, Joe Beck taking second in the novice, Fowler first, Weber second, and Thatcher third in the six scratch, class B, all "Ramblers" you will note. In the half mile class A, May took second, Carter third. Half mile, class B, Thatcher second, Fowler third. Five mile, class B, Fowler second. In this race a man in a yellow suit on his head and bell, Comalbear and Weber being immediately behind him, the result was a split for these parties and the race left to Hayes. The five mile, class A, was another Rambler event, May taking first, Joe Beck second and McCombey third. Fourteen prizes in one day is glory enough for any one.

Prince may laugh and people may cry,
And days may howl if they please,
But Rambler's win races whenever they go,
Regardless of how others tease.

Moral—Buy a Rambler! Ride a winner and you'll be a splinter.
