LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THERMOMETER 38 degrees F. in the shade, at 1 p. m. to-day. Fine day.

City Election.—The election of municipal officers for Salt Lake City will take place on the second Monday of February.

Branch Mint.—What about that branch mint? Is not this a proper time to agitate the question? The matter is settled as to the benefits that would accrue from the existence of such an institution here, and most everybody wants it.

Discharged.—Mr. Clay, the night watchman who shot Charles Barnum, at Bingham, a short time since, has been discharged, by Justice Kinney, it having been proved that Barnum fired the first shot, and that what Mr. Clay did was in self-defense.

Want a Bell.—Some of the members of the Wasatch Fire Company are circulating a subscription paper soliciting donations towards the purchase of a new alarm bell, the one now in use being deemed altogether too small. The one they purpose to purchase measures thirty-four inches in diameter, across the mouth, and weighs 800 pounds. Some of the citizens have subscribed liberally for the object named.

Thirty-Sixth Quorum of Seventies.—The members of the Thirty-Sixth Quorum of Seventies are requested to meet in the house of President J. W. Fox, 14th Ward, on Thursday evening, the 15th inst., at half past six o'clock. A full attendance is requested as business of importance has to be transacted. By order of the council.

Country members are requested to report themselves by letter.

Official Sale.—Deputy marshal R. W. McAllister sold at auction, in front of the Court House, yesterday, one-eighth interest in 600 feet in the Flagstaff mine, or rather Imperial Tunnel. The sale was the result of a suit of Walker Brothers against John Snider, and by virtue of an execution issued from the District Court in favor of the plaintiffs. The property was purchased by Mr. S. S. Walker, for the small sum of $50.

"Belshazzar" and "Temptation."—There was a large audience at the Eleventh Ward new schoolhouse last evening, to witness the entertainment given by the dramatic company of that Ward. The playing by the several members was very good, much better than might reasonably have been expected. The songs by Miss Miner and Mr. Isom and the recitation, "Dot Schmall Schild," by Mr. Denney, were heartily applauded by the audience. The closing piece, "Temptation," though it went a little slow in some places, was well performed. Financially and otherwise the entertainment was a decided success.

The same bill will be repeated to-night. The proceeds go towards the schoolhouse fund.

Dusted.—Yesterday the work of taking the volumes of the Territorial Library from their places, brushing the cobwebs from them and replacing them was commenced. Some of those volumes, could they speak on the subject, would have no reason to growl at being thus disturbed, for they have been "let severely alone" for a long time past. This refers particularly to those musty law books which have so long adorned the upper tiers, from which, in their ponderosity, they have frowned down, from their elevated position, upon their more fragile companions in lower places, as the departed Judge Hawley would sometimes do when elaborating upon the "majesty of the law" in presence of a mixed assemblage of court spectators.

In Town.—S. D. Sollers, Esq., senior partner of the celebrated shoe firm of S. D. Sollers & Co., of Philadelphia, whose advertisement will be found in our columns, is now in town, with a large variety of specimens of their manufacture, which, from the excellence of quality, one would think storekeepers would find to their interest to invest in. The firm has only been in existance about two years, but it already employs two hundred and fifty hands, and manufactures about twelve hundred pairs of shoes per day. Their specialty is children's wear and their stock comprises about five hundred different styles, including gold, silver, and bronze morocco, patent calf, goat, kid, &c. The specimens shown by Mr. Sollers are of the most excellent quality, both as to material and workmanship, and can hardly be surpassed. The firm has purchased the patent right of the "Joyce Protection Toe," and are manufacturing large quantities of shoes for the little folks with this improvement. This invention was patented last summer, and, while unseen on the outside of the boot or shoe possessing it, it is of such a character that the upper leather of the "protection toe" will be good until the shoe is worn out. It is perhaps quite as durable and safe in this respect as the copper toe, but in its construction no metal or other substance, except the upper leather itself, is used, and the finest and lightest kinds of children's boots and shoes can be thus protected as well as those for stronger and rougher wear. Various classes of Sollers & Co's goods can be purchased at Z. C. M. I., also at the stores of Messrs. Teasdel & Co. and Dunford & Sons.

Cache Valley.—Col. T. E. Ricks, of Logan, dropped into our office to-day, fresh and ruddy from Cache Valley. He says that valley, in that county, continuing to rain or thaw, more or less, until Friday when the wind changed to the north, and a blustering winter storm and heavy fall of snow ensued. Now there is a similar amount of snow at Logan to what there is here, but more in some parts of Cache Valley. Cattle in places there require feeding, but in others they are doing well. Hauling rock for the new Tabernacle at Logan is on the tapis.

Committed.—A man named William Smith was brought down from Granite to this city, having been committed to the Probate Court, by Justice Despaine. He is charged with burglariously entering a house at Granite and stealing therefrom about $90 currency.

Telegraphic.—Mr. R. M. Wilkinson, late of Z. C. M. I. Clothing Department, and formerly a telegraph operator on the Deseret line, was installed yesterday as manager of the East Temple Street Salt Lake office of the Deseret Telegraph Company, vice Mr. Morison, resigned. The latter showed much efficiency in the position, and Mr. Wilkinson is a gentleman well qualified to fill it creditably also.

Not Sufficiently Explicit.—It was stated in yesterday's NEWS that a committee of members of the Fire Brigade had been appointed to solicit subscriptions in aid of the Fire Companies. The statement should have gone further and explained that the members themselves are the only parties donating or called upon to do so. The firemen not only give their services free, but are frequently at considerable personal expense in keeping up the organization.

Replevined.—Some time ago a trunk and contents belonging to Chas. G. Loeber were attached at the suit of Col. Jesse C. Little, to whom the defendant was indebted for board. The property has, since the attachment, been in the hands of the officers, pending the case being taken from Justice Clinton's to the District Court, where it came up to-day, and, the plaintiff not appearing, a writ of replevin was granted to Mr. Loeber, directed to Justice Clinton, directing the latter to give up the property to him.

We understand that the complainant in the suit, Col. Little, states that himself or counsel was not notified that the case would come up for hearing to-day, which he assigns as the reason for his not appearing.

Funeral Services.—A large and respectable concourse of persons met on Sunday morning in the Sixth Ward school house, and paid the last tribute of respect to the remains of Sister Susannah Riser, wife of Henry Riser, watchmaker, of this city, who is now on a mission to Switzerland. Addresses were delivered by Elders Maeser, Schonfelt, Wilcken and G. Riser, and others, who eulogized the faith and good works so characteristic of the deceased, whose home was always open for the poor. Having no children of her own, she adopted several and did a mother's duty to them. All felt to ask God to bless her absent husband in his sudden bereavement.

Probate Court.—In the Probate Court, this forenoon, the case of the [illegible] on school tax, appealed from the court of the Justice of the Peace of Sugar House Ward, was brought up—verdict in favor of plaintiff. Defendant gave notice of an appeal to the District Court.

In the afternoon the case of the People vs. Jerry Deady, and — Leahy, charged with larceny, was called up. Prosecution asked for time till to-morrow afternoon, as an important witness could not arrive till then. Counsel for the defense objected, as the case had already been postponed two or three times. Judge Smith had not ruled on the question up to our going to press.

Theatre.—Mr. J. A. Herne reappeared last evening, as "Rip Van Winkle," before a large, intelligent and appreciative audience, and presented the character in that quiet, realistic manner which has made him so successful in this peculiar role. It was an admirable piece of acting, almost causing laughter and tears to mingle in the audience. We have heard several persons, who were there, speak in high terms of his acting last night. At the close of the play, Mr. Herne, in response to the call of the house, appeared before the curtain, and while there apologized for his temporary vocal imperfection, he having a severe cold.

Miss Walters, as "Mrs. Rip," and "Mrs. Dutlick," played with much vim. Misses Adams and Clawson, and Messrs. Sewtelle, Crosbie and Thorne, in their respective characters, gave efficient support.

The scenery was creditable, and some of it beautiful.

After the play Wieniawski, jr., gave his performance on the violin, showing his nimbleness in the use of horsehair and "catgut," and receiving an encore.

This evening "Rip Van Winkle" will be repeated, followed by Wieniawski on the violin, in "Il Pirata," a varegated solo, and the celebrated "Concerto Polka Mazurka."

THE MORNING UPON TELEGRAPH LINES.

To-Day's Dispatches.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Impeachment Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, 6.—In the Senate, Buckingham's free banking bill was taken from the table, and referred to the committee on finance. Morrill, of Maine, from the finance committee, reported back the resolution introduced by Sumner, instructing that committee to report a bill abolishing the office of clerk of the Court of Impeachment, and to provide for the collection of taxes by attorneys, [illegible] recommended that the Internal Revenue Bureau be authorized to compromise with delinquent tax offenders, and that so much of the Internal Revenue bureau would be [illegible] to lose at least one half the taxes [illegible] The principal part of the taxes were collected upon spirits and tobacco, and it would be impossible to collect them without officers.

Sumner said here was an opportunity for practical economy, and by adopting this system of collecting taxes by stamps, an army of office holders would be dispensed with. The resolution was indefinitely postponed.

EASTERN.

Compromise Probable.

CHICAGO, Ill., 6.—The Tribune's Washington special says it is probable that the matter of the appointment of Chief Justice will be compromised by the substitution of the name of Caleb Cushing for that of Williams, and the appointment of Williams as Minister to Spain.

Revenue Violation Suit.

NEW YORK, 6.—A suit has been begun by capias, against Edwin Rowe & Co., to recover $200,000 in gold for the alleged violation of the revenue laws.

A Criminal at Large.

ST. LOUIS, 6.—The Republican's special from Topeka says the case of the State versus Pomeroy, for the bribery of Senator York, was called in the County Court to-day. The defendant was not present, and his counsel asked a further continuance, which was refused, and Pomeroy's bail of twenty thousand dollars was ordered to be forfeited, with the understanding, however, that if the defendant appears for trial during this month, the order for forfeiture shall be rescinded. It is believed here that Pomeroy will never be tried, but as the case now stands it puts him in the position of a criminal at large without bail, and liable to arrest at any time.

President of the U. S. Censured.

COLUMBUS, O., 6.—In the House this morning, the resolutions offered by McLain, republican, yesterday, to censure Congress for passing the salary grab act, were reported back so as to include President Grant for not vetoing the bill. The Republicans sought to get a division of the question so as to vote first on censuring Congress, and failing in that they voted solidly against the resolutions, which were adopted by a unanimous Democratic vote.

Will Report Favorably.

WASHINGTON, 6.—The Senate finance committee, to-day, agreed to report favorably on the bill authorizing national banks to withdraw their bonds deposited in the U. S. Treasury as security, in proportion as they retire their circulation.

Unconstitutional.

NEW ORLEANS, 6.—A special from Austin, Texas, says the Supreme Court has just decided that the late State election is unconstitutional, on the ground that the polls were only kept open one day instead of four, as provided by the new constitution.

N. Y. Legislature.

ALBANY, 6.—The Legislature met at noon to-day. Lieutenant-Governor Robinson presided in the Senate. James C. Husted, rep., was elected Speaker of the Assembly.

WEST INDIES.

Powers Enlarged.

HAVANA, 6.—The home government has granted, without restriction, the extraordinary powers demanded by Captain General Jovellar.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Tempestuous.

CARDIFF, 6.—The bark Cachino, just arrived from New York, reports tempestuous weather and having lost several hands overboard.

LONDON, 6.—The Metropolitan Railway Carriage Works, at Birmingham, were burned last night; loss estimated at £50,000. Four hundred persons are thrown out of employment.

The San Francisco police are making their periodical raid on the poorer class of courtezans, for looking out at their miserable doors occasionally. Business being slack during the holidays, the poor girls are unable to come out with their regular two dollars a week to the blackmailing leather-heads, and therefore have to go to prison. And so that moral city and its sweet-scented keepers are getting rich; either directly by the "hire of a harlot," or indirectly by the "price of a dog." In the meantime, rich and stylish courtezans, assignation houses and procurers are flourishing amain, having paid for their immunities, either in commodities of the establishment or in very hard cash.—Oakland Transcript.
