THE OFFICER FIRED.

His Command to Halt Not as Effectual as the Shot.

HEARD THE BULLET WHISTLE.

Wm. J. Smith, Sentenced to a Term of Fifty Days, Makes a Break For Liberty.

There was a lively scene at police headquarters this morning and considerable excitement existed thereabouts for a short time. The cause of it all was the attempted escape of a convict and the steps that were taken to his capture.

The convict's name was William J. Smith, who has been in the talk on previous occasions. He was before Justice Smith this morning on the charge of petit larceny, his case having been continued from Saturday last. At the trial he was convicted of the charge and sentenced to pay a fine of $50, but not having the necessary funds he will spend the next fifty days in working for the city.

While going from the court room to the jail he made his break for liberty. There were about ten prisoners being escorted thither by the officers, and as reaching the foot of the stairs, instead of making the turn with the rest of the party, Smith darted through the hall onto the sidewalk and started east at a lively rate of speed. He was dressed in compartment, however, as Officer Hadgis seeing the prisoner's action, quickly followed him into the street, and called upon the fleeing convict to halt. The latter paid no attention to this command, however, and therefore a more effective command was given, viz: a shot from a gun. The bullet whistled past the form of the fugitive in close enough proximity that he immediately halted, threw up his hands and begged the officer not to shoot him, and he would surrender his stage. A more frightened individual than he would be difficult to imagine. He was as meek as a lamb when taken by the officers and placed in safe quarters.

DIED IN THE MISSION FIELD.

Elder John A. Clark Passed Away at Haifa, Turkey, on February 8th.

President Woodruff this afternoon received a cablegram from Elder A. H. Lund, president of the European mission, to the effect that Elder John A. Clark of Farmington, died at Haifa, Turkey, on the 8th of February, from small pox.

Elder Clark was the son of Ezra T. and Susan Tingey Clark of Farmington. He was unmarried and was born February 20th, 1871. He was set apart to take city for the Turkish mission, February 21st, 1894, and departed therefor immediately afterwards. The deceased was an excellent young man, worthy of the high confidence placed in him and the news of his death while he was yet on the threshold of manhood will be received with universal sadness and regret. The sorrowful tidings were communicated to the young man's parents this evening.

Pleasant Grove Items.

PLEASANT GROVE, March 1st, 1895.—Fredrick Tanner and family are celebrating a double wedding at their residence tonight. Their daughters Mary E. and Ida were married this week, the former to Mr. George Nye, of Springville, the latter to Mr. Wm. Henry Dash, of Sugar House Ward, Salt Lake county.

The snow is fast disappearing, the roads are almost impassable—mud, mud, more mud. Parties just down from the head of American Fork report the snow very light in the mountains.

The "married folks" of Alpine are holding a picnic party there tonight. Snow still remains to quite a depth in that locality.

Sister Mary Ann Winters, of Pleasant Grove, is engaged in a novel work—undertaking to enlist the young boys into what she terms a "Bedside class." Her object is to gather up those between the ages of three not eligible for either Young Men's Association or the Primary. The boys are taking hold of the work in good earnest, and Sister Winters will "make men" of them if they will only follow out her good teachings.

Prisoners John Brown and Heaven Walker are both quite feeble.

Messrs. Wadley and Dewey are putting in machinery for working up their crops, of which they have a large quantity ready for the mark. They are making some very slow progress from this fine stock.

The district schools hold exhibition exercises today. The work of the pupils was very creditable and was viewed by many parents. The results are quite satisfactory.

Our Home Dramatic association are rehearsing "The Farmer's Honey," to be played next week.

Some of our townsfolk are contemplating moving to Teton Basin, Idaho, this spring.

Horses turned loose last night making everything scarce in the city.

Fairview Jottings.

FAIRVIEW, Sanpete Co., Utah, March 2.—Miss Amanda Lundquist recently returned from Ohio where she has been in attendance at a prominent seminary for some years. She graduates with honors.

An unfortunate accident occurred in Henry, the little son of Hartson Christensen. While engaged in playing upon the school grounds some time ago, the boy fell to the ground resulting in a fracture of his arm. Medical aid was given and was at once administered, and he at present is doing well.

The following young people have lately entered upon the threshold of married life: Fritz Christensen and Miss Frances Henry; Orlando Carlson and Miss Charlotte Johnson; Perry Stevens and Miss Ida Rooney, and Vernon Wade of Payson and Miss Vida Young.

The Home Dramatic Co. played the melo-drama Fisher to a well filled house on the night of the 8th ult. The production of the play was a success, the players rendering their parts correctly with, demonstrating the ability of hold talent.

The Relief Society celebrated its anniversary on the 23rd inst. Services were held in the afternoon which included of a refreshing character, music, speeches, with words of congratulation. The society numbered at its annual call in the session, a great number being in other, wards scattered for the Mount Pleasant, Fairview, Ephraim, Manti, Salt Lake and Logan.

On the 15th day of February we closed the school term of our seminary and requested Professor Peter N. Dawson, Jun., to take charge of the school, he cheerfully supported before the local council. He leaves a wife, four daughters and three sons to mourn his loss. The funeral services were held on the 20th, at noon o'clock, the remains being followed to Mount Pleasant by a large concourse of friends and acquaintances.

Obstinate Case of Catarrh

Local Applications Failed—Hood's Sarsaparilla Cured.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Gentlemen—I might as well begin my testimonial with Hood's Sarsaparilla as anything else, for it was the first medicine that did me any good. I was troubled with catarrh in the worst form, and had a cough so that I could not sleep nights. My mother had taken your Sarsaparilla for a long time for her health, and I decided to try it. I have taken three bottles and it has cured me. I can now sleep all night and do my work without fatigue. I cough but little and the catarrh is all gone. I recommend your Sarsaparilla to all my friends and shall do so as long as I live. Yours truly, MINNIE M. KEPNER."

A Consumptive's Grave

"Gentlemen—I was given up by the doctors, who said I was in the last stage of consumption, and could live but a few days. I had a cough that would not let me sleep, night sweats, and was so low that I could not sit up in my chair. My mother had taken Hood's Sarsaparilla for a long time for her health, and I decided to try it. I have taken three bottles and it has cured me. I can now sleep all night and do my work without fatigue. I cough but little and the catarrh is all gone. I recommend your Sarsaparilla to all my friends and shall do so as long as I live. Yours truly, MINNIE M. KEPNER."
