IMPORTANT LAWS

Passed at the Recent Session of the State Legislature.

FISH AND GAME LAW.

An Act for the preservation of fish, game and birds; to establish a board of State and county warden and prescribing their duties; to provide penalties for the violation of the act; and to repeal all acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Utah:

Section 1. That the Governor is directed, and with the consent of the Senate shall appoint a State fish and game warden, who shall be a person of good character of the State, whose term of office shall be two years and until his successor is appointed and qualified, except as to the first term, which shall be for three years; provided that when a vacancy occurs in the office of fish and game warden and the Legislature is not in session, the Governor shall have power to fill such vacancy until the next regular session of the Legislature, and he shall have power to remove the State warden at pleasure.

Sec. 2. The State warden shall receive an annual salary of $[illegible]. He shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe to an oath of office and give a bond to the penal sum of $2,000 to the chief executive of his county, with good and sufficient sureties, and file the same with the secretary of State.

Sec. 3. The State warden shall have supervision and supervisory of the waters of the State for the propagation, protection, culture and distribution of fish in the State, and shall receive and distribute all fish, fish fry and spawn coming into his hands lawfully and legitimately in the several counties. He shall have all matters of all the property of the State, counties or both for the purposes mentioned by this act.

Sec. 4. It shall be lawful for the State fish and game warden or any person appointed in writing so to do, to take fish and game at any time, place or place, and in any manner, under the direction of the county fish and game warden, for the purpose of propagation, cultivation, preparation, distribution, scientific or other purposes, deemed to be to the interest of the fish and game industry of the State. He shall make a special report of his official transactions, including the number and kinds of fish distributed and the locality and number of streams, lakes or ponds to which fish have been distributed, and submit such report to the Legislature during the first week of its ensuing regular session.

Sec. 5. At the first session after the passage of this act the county commissioners of each county of the State shall appoint a county fish and game warden who shall hold his office for two years and shall be summarily removable for neglect of duty, and shall be a sworn officer of the county, and shall receive no fees or other compensation for his services, except such as may be allowed by the county commissioners, and shall be subject to the direction and supervision of the State warden at pleasure.

Sec. 6. The State warden shall have power and authority to appoint a deputy State warden, who shall be a resident of the county in which he is appointed, and who shall have the same authority and be subject to the same duties and liabilities as the State warden, and shall perform such duties under the direction of the State warden as may be required.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of the State warden to see that all laws of the State of Utah relating to fish and game are fully and faithfully enforced in their respective counties, and to the performance of such duties given the same authority as is conferred by law upon sheriffs. It shall be the duty of the county warden to report to the State warden the county commissioners all reports monthly.

Sec. 8. The county warden, by authority of the State warden, may take fish from the pools in the waters within their respective counties, and shall file in the prescribed form a report of the number of fish so taken, and shall be the person to superintend the distribution of the State warden under the direction of the State warden.

Sec. 9. It shall be the duty of the county warden to see that all laws of the State of Utah relating to fish and game are fully and faithfully enforced in their respective counties, and to the performance of such duties given the same authority as is conferred by law upon sheriffs. It shall be the duty of the county warden to report to the State warden the county commissioners all reports monthly.

Sec. 10. The State warden, by authority of the State warden, may take fish from the pools in the waters within their respective counties, and shall file in the prescribed form a report of the number of fish so taken, and shall be the person to superintend the distribution of the State warden under the direction of the State warden.

Sec. 11. It shall be the duty of the county warden to take care to be taken in the best practical manner any injurious fish, minnows, trout, carp or sucker, found in ponds or other places in which running waters of the rivers, streams, canals or other waterways have left them, and which are likely to be taken by the water, and put the fish from those ponds into main bodies of water, and to make the best disposition of the dead fish in the interest of the county treasury.

Sec. 12. The owner or owners of any fish ponds or other waters of the citizens of this State shall, if required by the county fish and game warden, allow under his direction, over and between all times of the year, the removal of fish and shall be the person to superintend the removal of fish and shall be the person.

Sec. 13. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons operating any mill, factory, power plant or other machinery taking current for by water power and having either need or not need, without fish screening and measuring the water or other device to prevent the fish from entering therein, and screens to be built and maintained under the direction of the county warden and at the expense of said owner or owners, or operators of said mill, factory, power plant, or other manufacturing concern, provided that said owners shall pay one at every Utah county, the State, through which fish from Spring Lake, to make an equipment to these obligations, and, provided further, that the water or owners of operators of said mills, factory or other machinery or mill shall be liable for all fines and penalties as all other and equal, without screens to prevent fish from entering the water works and water power of said machinery or mill, and shall be liable for all fines and penalties as all other and equal.

Sec. 14. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 15. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 16. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 17. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 18. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 19. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 20. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 21. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 22. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 23. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 24. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 25. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 26. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 27. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 28. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 29. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 30. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 31. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 32. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 33. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 34. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 35. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 36. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 37. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 38. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 39. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 40. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 41. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 42. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 43. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 44. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 45. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 46. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 47. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 48. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 49. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 50. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 51. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 52. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 53. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 54. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 55. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 56. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 57. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 58. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 59. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 60. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 61. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 62. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 63. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 64. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 65. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 66. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 67. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 68. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 69. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 70. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 71. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 72. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 73. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 74. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 75. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 76. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 77. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 78. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 79. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 80. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 81. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 82. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 83. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 84. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 85. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 86. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 87. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 88. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 89. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 90. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 91. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 92. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 93. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 94. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 95. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 96. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 97. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 98. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 99. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 100. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 101. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 102. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 103. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 104. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 105. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 106. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 107. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 108. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 109. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 110. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 111. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 112. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 113. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 114. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 115. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 116. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 117. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 118. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 119. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 120. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 121. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 122. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 123. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 124. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 125. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 126. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 127. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 128. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 129. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 130. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 131. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 132. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 133. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 134. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 135. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 136. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 137. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 138. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 139. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 140. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 141. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 142. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 143. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 144. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 145. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 146. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 147. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 148. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 149. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 150. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 151. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 152. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 153. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 154. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 155. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 156. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 157. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 158. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 159. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 160. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 161. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fifteenth day of January following.

Sec. 162. It shall be unlawful for any person to take any fish except with rod, line, hook and line in the waters of this State, by any means or device whatever, except by means of hook and line, except, if he will be angling, and that only between the first day of July of each year and the fif