TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

NO. 230. WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1896. SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH. VOL. XXIX

DEPOSE THE SULTAN.

That is the Cry of the Young Turkish Party in Constantinople.

SERIOUS TROUBLE EXPECTED.

Immense Fleet Taken Out into the Black Sea and Its Only Business.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—A dispatch to the Herald from London says:

The Standard publishes a dispatch from Constantinople saying that the young Turk party is covering the city with placards inviting the people to depose the sultan. Serious trouble, it is stated, is certain to occur within a week. Turkish troop ships are nightly deporting Armenians to the Black Sea, where, it is believed, they are drowned.

The British residents, at the instance of the British embassy, have been warned to leave Salisburyville, stating that their lives and property are in danger. The French residents have taken similar action. British and French fleets are now near the mouth of the Dardanelles.

Fuat Pasha, one of the sultan's aids-de-camp, was questioned as to how long the forts along the Dardanelles could check the passage of war shipping he replied that they could stay there in almost half an hour.

GROUS FURTHER DISAGREED.

BERLIN, Sept. 16.—A dispatch to the Frankfort Zeitung from Constantinople says a guard of Turkish troops on duty at Yildiz Palace, composed of four battalions of Albanians, was forcibly disarmed last evening in the presence of a large body of troops and replaced by five Bosnian battalions.

RUMORS OF ANOTHER OUTBREAK.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 16.—Owing to the Turkish government's communication to the embassies of the powers regarding the rumors of another Armenian outbreak here, the embassies today deputed the foreign ministers to authorize the police to enter foreign houses when necessary and arrest Armenians throwing bombs or secreting therefrom.

Celebration of Spanish Rule.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—A dispatch to the Herald from Panama says:

Central American residents in the isthmus celebrated the 75th anniversary of independence of Spain's rule yesterday.

The delegates appointed by San Salvador, Honduras and Nicaragua to meet at Ahuipalo to ratify the treaty of Amapala made some months ago by President Gutierrez, Bonilla and Molaya at that place. The object of the treaty is a union of the three republics into one, to be called Republica Mayor de Central America. Costa Rica and Guatemala refused to enter the union.

The Herald's correspondent in Managua telegraphs that the constitutional assembly has nominated President Zelaya as a candidate for the presidential term from 1896 to 1902.

The Herald's correspondent in Guayaquil says that the Liberals have promised a decree convoking a convention to meet October 9.

TAMMANY IN CONTROL.

Differences in the New York Convention Are Made Amicable.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 16.—It looks like a state convention tonight, now the arrival of the Tammany delegation has done more to bring to view the controversy that has been raging, than it has happened. During the afternoon there was every evidence of friction, but as the evening wore on, every ripple on the surface was smoothed over, and it became more than ever evident that the convention was to be dominated by the great political organization from New York. From the time Mr. Hinckley arrived this morning and announced that the selections of Hubert Danforth, the New York member of the Brynt and Sewall notification committee, for state chairman, and Frank S. Campbell for national committeeman, were favored by Mr. Bryan, with a twinkle, when this news was confirmed, there had been a spell of calm among the secondary delegates, and it only needed a few words to the effect that there would be a close contest. The result made the capitol to shake that the cause of difference between Senator Hill and Murphy were conceded for a purpose, and that the whole chair of Senator Hill, staying away and the delegation from Kings county voting in the matter of selection of state party officers, was for the purpose of concerting the rank and file into the belief that there was a difference of opinion to be the whole control of the convention.

The ticket, as it was decided upon today, is for governor, Judge Alton B. Parker; lieutenant governor, Gen. Jesse Culver of Hamilton; chairman of state committee, Hubert Danforth; state committee, Major James Hinckley, Hubert Danforth, State Treasurer Frank Dudleck of Onondaga county; for national committeeman, Vice William F. Sheehan; national committeeman, Frank S. Campbell; Bull Moose Tammany chairman, Thomas F. Gray of New York; permanent chairman, E. H. Rockwell of Chemung.

UNDER A PILE OF BRICKS.

One Workman Killed, Others Fatally Injured.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—One workman was killed and three perhaps fatally injured this morning by the falling of a pile of bricks at the site of the old Grand Pacific hotel at La Salle and Jackson streets. The accident was caused by the caving in of an old brick foundation.

Populists Endorse Altgeld.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—After nine hours of exciting debate the Populist convention tacitly endorsed Governor Altgeld by leaving the head of the ticket blank. The following are the nominations:

Lieutenant-governor, Henry D. Lloyd; secretary of state, L. A. Quindel; auditor, Oscar Dobson; attorney general, H. L. Herrick; treasurer, Joseph Sickenberg; trustee of the state university, Mr. Francis Kirkpatrick; commissioner, A. H. Allen, O. H. Ingham.

The platform says: "We do most heartily endorse the wisdom of the national course in the nomination of Thomas E. Watson for Vice President of the United States and most earnestly endorse any action which may be taken by the Populists of any Eastern state to effect a fusion on the ticket for Virginia or casting their ballot for him."

The following presidential electors will be recommended to the executive committee by each congressional district:

Killed by Salmon Stunners.

VIENNA, Sept. 16.—A scientific party from the warship Albatross, U. S. steamship, was attacked on August 15th by natives of Gandalcanal, one mile Sta. A general round Fuhrer, a midshipman and two seamen were killed.

CARRIED A SPANISH SPY.

The Lauredo on Her Last Filibustering Expedition.

He Attempted to Wreck the Vessel But Fatalities Account of the Sensibility of the Current.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The Herald this morning publishes the following special correspondence from Kingston, Jamaica, September 8: At circumstances public to the last time so her last voyage the steamer Lauredo to United among her crew a Spanish agent and spy. So far as is known here his identity has not been discovered. That the Lauredo carried a filibustering expedition to Cuba on this trip seems to be beyond all doubt; although there is probably a great difficulty in proving the fact, for the Spanish spy, who, it is now well known, was on board, will hardly care to reveal himself to the authorities here.

If the party is known on action will be taken against him and he will not be discovered to carry out to the end the plot he had formed of having on a hired spy. The explanation is simply that this man attempted to wreck the vessel, but could be spoken to reveal to the interest on his personal regarding the filibustering part of the voyage, he will have to face a charge on this count per counts. If his identity has really been mentioned to the Spanish will be taken against him, as that might log the question as to his possible testimony about the leading of the biggest filibustering expedition of modern times.

The party in connection with the attempt to destroy the Lauredo, so far as the Herald's correspondent has been able to ascertain, also is unknown. On the arrival at the Lauredo at Port Antonio, some persons unknown gave information to the consulate to the effect that she had been engaged in a filibustering expedition, and that there was a large quantity of rifles on board which had not been loaded which would be put ashore on the return voyage. The ship was searched twice and proceeded to the outports to take up her cargo of tobacco, but she arrived at Kingston, where the searches were not found. The informant thereupon recently promised one of the customs officers that on the vessel's return from her outport he would find proofs of discovering the secret recesses in which he was convinced Captain Neiphu had concealed the arms than they had left the vessel.

On the night of the last instant, as the Lauredo was entering Port Antonio on the Lems was going out, the two vessels passing one another in the dark, but intimate chance, the Lauredo has to have to make way for the outward bound ship. At the critical moment spy with a strong current impinging the steering gear of the Lauredo gave way.

At the moment the probable effect of the break down would have been to throw the Lauredo across the Lems's bows and bring about a collision that would have cost the former her masts. It happened that the current was more rapid and the Lems escaped and stayed on the reef.

Captain Murphy made a cash deposit of $200 in gold on the 20th of last, to answer the charge of conveying contraband of war, and was allowed to sail.

Nicaragua's Tariff on Liquors.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—The state department has been informed by Colonel Wolcott at Managua that the Nicaraguan government finding the office of the law of December last, taking the duties on imported wines and spirits, has been to stop the importation of Cabinets and other light wines and spirits formerly imported, has adopted a new law which went into effect August 10th, and which fixes the duties on imported Otherwise not over 20 degrees strength, 9 cents (about 21 10 cents United States coin) each liquid ounce weight gross, and 1 cent more for each degree of strength in excess of 20 degrees. Mixed liquors of not over 20 degrees strength, 12 cents (0 22-100 United States money), for each pound gross and 1 cent for each degree in excess. Wines and mixed liquors above 20 degrees, 12 cents (0 22-100 United States money) for each pound gross. Champagne and sparkling wines 12 cents (0 22-100 U. S.) a pound.

Death's Harvest.

TOLEDO, OHIO, Sept 16.—Hon. Jas. M. Ashley, ex-congressman and territorial governor of Montana, died here this morning.

NEW YORK'S CONVENTION.

The Leadership of Absent Senators Felt in the Assembly.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 16.—Though they are absent, the leadership of Senators Hill and Murphy and W. F. Sheehan may be felt in the Democratic state convention today. Rumors were circulated early in the day that all night the wires have been carrying communications to and from the senators and other state leaders. A dispatch received by [illegible] from Senator Murphy stating about a [illegible] of the resolution on the Chicago platform was received by Bryan and Sewall. It appears that two sets of resolutions have been prepared for submission to the convention. The one would endorse Dickinson for temporary chairman, and Senator Hill's name is mentioned for permanent chairman. The other would endorse Dickinson for temporary chairman, but would endorse Senator Murphy as permanent chairman. Senator Hill is said, to be willing to accept a significant endorsement of the Chicago convention's work. If he is for the nomination of a gold standard Democratic ticket can be avoided.

Representatives of the various other radical minorities desire, however, that there shall be no half-hearted endorsement, as the party must retrace from the straight line of the Chicago platform. The result is further made that the state organization will be made up independent of the Hill ticket, part in the result at Chicago.

ACCEPTED WITH THANKS,

The Resignation of Gold Members of the Committee.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Sept. 16.—The Democratic state convention which meets today began the day with every indication of being as memorable an occasion as ever has taken place in the political history of this section. While the delegates nominated 400 were absent solely for the endorsement of the Chicago platform and candidates, the whole machinery of the party was in the hands of the gold standard men. Anticipating an event, twelve members of the state central committee resigned. It was rumored today before the convention met that there would be a bolt of the gold standard men.

Chairman David, of the state central committee, called the convention to order. William Kennedy, temporary chairman, caused a tumultuous cheering by praising the Chicago platform and candidates. The temporary officers were made permanent.

After Chairman Kennedy handed in the resignations of the gold state committeemen, a delegate moved that they be accepted "with thanks by the convention." The motion was adopted amid loud cheering.

A DYNAMITE PROPAGANDA.

Spain and Kansas Said to Belong to It.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 16.—According to a local paper the arrest of Tapias and Kearney, the dynamite conspirators, is a verification of the statements made years ago by Captain Thomas Phelan of Chicago, that the two secret societies were members of an Irish dynamite propaganda which had ramifications in the country. Phelan was then a detective on the trail of the Kansas Kearney as an active dynamiter and as is known he nearly paid with his life for giving out the information, and the charge that O'Donovan Rossa was a traitor.

Captain Phelan who is a brunette man of long, was at the time a city official in Kansas City. He went to New York at the time of the Phelan excitement and finally to Europe to receive an intermediate sentence the movement of the men connected with the plots then existing. He became acquainted with Kearney and Kearney told of his intention to place an infernal machine on the Atlantic steamer Queen, set to explode two hours after the steamer should reach Liverpool. Phelan confided the information to the Queen's officials and later laid of the conference to a New York paper and implicated Rossa. This interview, the giving away of Kearney's name and the implied charge of traitor against Rossa was what caused Phelan's arrest, and consequently in New York City later.

BRYAN'S CHARACTER.

Judge Tales Says He is Radical and a Democrat.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 16.—In the Republican county convention here, one of the speakers was Judge Tales, Judge Richard Yates of Jacksonville, Ill., son of War Governor Yates of Illinois, who took occasion to say that he was a strong current impinging the steering gear of the Lauredo gave way.

At the moment the probable effect of the break down would have been to throw the Lauredo across the Lems's bows and bring about a collision that would have cost the former her masts. It happened that the current was more rapid and the Lems escaped and stayed on the reef.

Captain Murphy made a cash deposit of $200 in gold on the 20th of last, to answer the charge of conveying contraband of war, and was allowed to sail.
